

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.

Friday Afternoon, December 20, 1861.

PROMOTED.—Gov. Curtin, commander-in-chief of the militia of Pennsylvania, has appointed Charles O'Neill, Corporal of company E, First Pennsylvania Reserve Corps (Col. Roberts), a Second Lieutenant in company C, Eighty-fourth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers (Col. Wm. Murray).

Lieut. O'Neill is now on duty with his regiment in Virginia. He is a native of Lancaster, Pa., and a printer by profession.

BULL RUN PRISONERS.—On Wednesday some four or five soldiers, belonging to Minnesota and Wisconsin regiments, and wounded in the battle at Bull Run, passed through the city, on their way homeward. They came from Richmond direct, but were unable to tell much about matters there as their wounds were too serious to permit of their going about. They were all fine looking men, but are maimed for life, all of them having either a leg or an arm taken off.

PROF. MCCOY AT CAMP CURTIN.—Prof. McCoy, the distinguished orator, has accepted an invitation, signed by the commissioned officers at Camp Curtin, to repeat his great oration "On the London Times on the Rebellion and the war for the Constitution," before the officers and soldiers at that camp at one o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The oration will be delivered on the parade ground, from a platform, to be erected for that purpose, the troops occupying the front, formed in a hollow square. The occasion promises to be one of great interest.

BROKE JAIL.—Two prisoners—the only ones in the Lebanon county jail—escaped on Wednesday of last week, by cutting a hole through the ceiling of their cell through which they got on the roof of the prison, thence to the jail wall, and thence to "freedom." Their names are Jonas Hoffman and Jacob Zattazahn. The former is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, with black hair and sandy complexion; the latter is about 18 years of age, about 5 feet four inches in height, with light hair. Sheriff Bender offers twenty-five dollars each for their recapture. The hole through which they escaped must have made a tight squeeze for them. Since writing the above we learn that Zattazahn was captured the next day in the barn of Mr. Gerberich, in Union township, and was returned to prison.

ORATION ON TEMPERANCE.—Those of our citizens who had the good fortune to hear Prof. McCoy deliver his great oration "On the London Times on the Rebellion and the war for the Constitution," will be gratified to learn that an opportunity will be afforded them next Monday night to hear the distinguished orator upon another subject—that of Temperance. Prof. McCoy has for a number of years been a zealous laborer in the cause of temperance, both in the forum and through the press, and takes a lively interest in any measure that tends to the advancement of this great reform. The title of the proposed lecture is "A Historical Vindication of Temperance Societies," and is represented to be a beautiful production, abounding with humorous descriptions, thrilling incidents, and unanswerable arguments. The oration will be delivered in the Fourth Street Bethel next Monday night, for the benefit of Advance Lodge, No. 39, I. O. of Good Templars. Admission fifteen cents. Tickets to be had at the book stores, and at the door on the evening of the lecture.

POlice.—Before the Mayor.—Chris. Bing was arraigned for drunkenness and abusing his wife. Committed for 30 days. Richard Galshall and R. C. Tompkins, were arraigned charged with stealing officer Campbell's cane. Re-committed to the lock-up. Andrew Pilliar and Henry Simpson were up for drunkenness. Re-committed to the lock-up. James Berkman and Wm. King were charged with drunkenness and discharged. John M. Dean and James Muskey were charged with assault and battery on Alex. Ruggles. By mutual consent the case was settled by defendants paying costs.

Yesterday a woman named Catharine Hamilton made oath against Geo. Robinson, charging him with the larceny of a blanket. A search warrant was issued to officer Campbell, who succeeded in recovering the blanket at Robinson's residence, but the defendant was non est. A dashing specimen of the "frail sisterhood," attired in silks and satins, was arrested last night by officer Campbell for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets. The officer placed her in the city lock-up, but when he went there this morning to take her before the Mayor, it was discovered that she was non est.—Subsequent investigation proved that during the temporary absence of the watchman from the Mayor's office, one of her pals obtained the keys of the lock-up, and released her from duress. She has doubtless left the city.

By the Consolidated Police.—"Whisky Jim"—an Irishman—arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Committed by Alderman Caldwell. Joseph Miller. Passing counterfeit money. Committed by Justice Beader. George Hoopery. Passing counterfeit money. Committed by Justice Beader. John Arent. Passing counterfeit money. Committed by Justice Beader. John Scallin—a soldier, drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. J. M. Miller. Passing counterfeit money. Committed by Justice Beader. James Bradley—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. Geo. Eyles—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. Edward Kansas—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. John Daugherty—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. John M'Alister—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader. John Cunningham—drunk and disorderly. Committed by Justice Beader.

PROBABLE FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jacob Halbach, residing a few miles above the city, was shot this morning by the accidental discharge of a pistol, which he was examining. The ball entered his body in the neighborhood of the heart, inflicting a wound that will most probably prove fatal.

BATTALION PARADE.—A battalion of Col. Campbell's regiment from Camp Curtin, followed our citizens with a street parade this afternoon. The battalion was preceded by an excellent brass band, and the fine appearance of the men attracted much attention. The companies marched with the precision of regulars.

GOOD ADVICE.—A volunteer who prides himself on the domestic arts he has learned during camp life, writes home to advise the girls not to be in a hurry to marry, for the boys will be home in a short time, and they can get good husbands that can cook, wash and iron, and do general housework, or work in the garden, or run errands for their wives.

LIEUT. SHIPLEY.—The many personal friends of Lieut. Alex. Shipley will be gratified to learn that he rendered distinguished services at Fort Pickens during the recent bombardment of the rebel batteries at and around Pensacola. Major Arnold, commanding the batteries on Fort Pickens, in his official despatch of the engagement, published in this evening's TELEGRAPH, in alluding to a marvelous escape of Lieut. S. and his command, adds that he "observed with admiration the gallant and efficient manner that Lieut. Shipley commanded his Battery during the two days of the bombardment."

WEEK WALKING.—Prof. Donaldson, who has opened Brant's Hall for a series of entertainments in magic and ventriloquism, astonished the natives "hereabouts" yesterday afternoon by walking a rope attached from the roof of Breiting's restaurant to the roof of Brant's Hall—an average height of probably sixty feet. Long before the time announced for this performance a large crowd had assembled in Market and Third streets, anxious to witness the perilous feat. Shortly after four o'clock Prof. Donaldson in all the pomp of "lights" and spangles appeared on the roof of Breiting's restaurant, where he was greeted with a rousing shout of applause from the assembled multitude. After quiet was restored the Professor with balancing pole in hand stepped on the rope, and with the air of a French dancing master, proceeded on his hazardous journey, performing several gymnastic feats as he went along. When he reached Brant's Hall, he blindfolded himself and started on a slow but successful walk to the other end of the rope from whence he started, and which completed the performance. The feat was performed with great courage, and was highly appreciated by those who witnessed it.

BUTTER STATISTICS.—Few people have any idea of the immense quantity of butter that is daily shipped from the several stations along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad in the interior of the State, to the eastern market. The Johnstown Tribune gives the following statement of butter shipped from that town during the months of September, October, November and December up to Saturday last, the 14th inst., to wit: September.....1,157 kegs. October.....5,292 " November.....5,988 " December, (to the 14th inst.).....1,568 "

Total butter shipped in 3 1/2 months, 13,995 kegs. This amount of butter, when viewed in the aggregated number of kegs, will at once strike the reader as enormous—especially to be handled at a single station in so short a time as three months and a half. But when the amount of butter contained in these fourteen thousand kegs is reduced to pounds, the immensity of the quantity becomes more apparent. We estimate that each keg contains upon an average fifty-six pounds of butter, (each keg and contents manifestly at sixty-two pounds). This, by simple multiplication, gives us a product of seven hundred and eighty-three thousand, seven hundred and twenty (783,720) pounds as the net amount of the butter thus shipped! A huge pile of this table-essential, surely—enough, one would think, to spread the "pieces" of the non-producers of half the realm.

THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.—Notwithstanding our political disturbances, the approach of the holidays fills us with the same joyous anticipations as in by-gone years of peace. Our political troubles will not for a moment be suffered to come in contact with our social enjoyments, and must give way before the hallowed memories of "merry Christmas," and the time-honored associations of the "happy New Year." Old and young, rich and poor, are alike counting the few long-tarrying days which intervene between happy reunions, the merry greetings, the gifts, the feasts, and the thousand blessings which good Santa Claus showers upon poor mortals. The shop-keepers, as usual, give evidence that they are awake to the near approach of the holiday harvest, and many of them are availing themselves of our columns, and our nice display type, to let the public know what they have. See the displays of goods, the very mention of which in type creates an unappeasable appetite in the female heart till it is gratified; see how careful another is in providing some new fashioned articles of wearing apparel which will secure the body against the changes of the weather. One has books for the mind, another blankets for the body. One has amulets and photographs for remembrance, another has trinkets and jewelry for adornment. One has work-baskets for stowing away the knick-knacks of the ladies, another sewing machines to render them more free from the slavery of labor. Everywhere there are evidences of mind actively employed to add to the comforts of life, and of shrewd, sharp business sense, making the facts known in the multitude public way in the newspapers to the multitudes readers who now peruse those brief records of politics and of business with greater avidity than ever, filled as they are with the history of the world to-day, and left, as they are, at their doors daily, for the smallest coin that the Government condescends to embellish with the likeness of its representative bird—the eagle.

ATTENTION GOOD WILL.—A special meeting of the Good Will Fire Company will be held in their hall this (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock. By order.

SLIPPERS FOR THE SICK SOLDIERS.—Among those articles indispensable for hospital use, are slippers. They may be made of Brussels or three ply carpet, and as almost every house-keeper has pieces of one or the other lying by, there need be no difficulty in procuring the material at least. Five hundred pairs of such slippers might be made here within a month if our wives and daughters would but try to get them up.

ARRIVAL OF MILITARY.—A fine looking volunteer company, numbering some eighty odd men, from Bellefonte and vicinity, commanded by Capt. W. W. Brown, arrived here at noon today, and went into quarters at Camp Curtin.—Capt. Brown is associate editor of the Centre Democrat, and although we believe he never had much experience in the art of military, he nevertheless wears the sword with all the grace and dignity of a veteran, and we have no doubt that when an occasion presents itself the gallant Captain will show himself an adept in its use against the enemies of his country. In this connection we might notice that the proprietor of the Centre Democrat is the Second Lieutenant of the company, and that among the privates, are three or four printers who formerly worked in the same office Bully for the Centre Democrat.

PROMOTED.—By Special Order No. 33, of the commander-in-chief, published in another column of this evening's TELEGRAPH, it will be seen that Mr. O. W. Sees has been appointed Chief of the Transportation and Telegraph Department in the State military service, and will assume the duties of that position next Monday. Lieut. Col. S. es—we believe that is the title of the rank which goes with the post—was formerly chief telegrapher in the office of the Atlantic and Ohio Telegraph Company in this city, but since the commencement of the rebellion he has had charge of the telegraph apparatus in the Executive Department, in which position he has given general satisfaction. He is a young gentleman of considerable intelligence, polite deportment, and correct business habits, and will faithfully serve the interests of the State in his new and responsible position.

FOUND.—A new pocket, book containing a railroad ticket from Williamsport to Philadelphia, was found in Judge Murray's lumber yard. The owner can have the same by calling on B. G. Peters' Farmers' Hotel. 2t.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.—We have from common consent denominated the week exclusive from Christmas to New Year's the holidays, rejoicing and good cheer with an interchange of presents, and friendly expressions with those we love, is a becoming emblem of the great event that gives birth to the salvation of mankind; it would be as well to say that the presents spoken of can be had at Ulrich & Bowman's cheap store, corner of Front and Market streets, dec. 19-2t.

FURS! FURS! FURS!—We have received a new supply of Furs, Muffs and Fur Capes, from $2.50 up to $12, a large assortment of Cloaks $2.50 up to $8. 25 doz. Hoop Skirts at 60c, 75c, $1.00, $1.75. 50 doz. of Undershirts and Drawers white and grey mixed. 50 doz. of white ribbed Stockings at 16c and 17c. 40 pc. of white, yellow and red Flannel. 100 doz. of Men's woolen Socks, at all prices. 25 pc. of beautiful Mourning Delaines, black and purple. 100 doz. A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.—"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Cuba, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Dr. Wm. Bristol & Co.), and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they need only refer to Lady S. who, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old, who was fast going into consumption, and taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health. We were particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by C. K. KELLER, (Wholesale) 91 Market street, (Retail) 128 Market street, in the house formerly occupied by Jacob R. Eby, near the United States Hotel. The Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country, "free of postage." Buy no Golden Pills unless they are made in the box signed S. D. Howe. All others is a base imposition and unsafe; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of the loss of your money,) buy only those which show the signature of S. D. Howe on every box, which has recently been added on account of the many counterfeiters. The ingredients composing the pills are safe, and will perform all claimed for them. Sold also by T. L. Lumberger, Lebanon; A. J. Kaufmann, Mechanicsburg; S. G. Wild, Newville; J. C. Antick, Shippenburg; J. Spangler, Chambersburg; E. T. Miller, York; J. A. Wolf, Whiteville; S. S. Schaeffer, in every town and village in the United States, and by S. D. HOWE, Sole Proprietor, New York. oct-4m
