Adapting their advantages to all arms of the United States Service. Embodying the Report of Observations in Europe during the Crimean War as Military Commission.

This most interesting volume, prepared with great labor by General McClellan, from copious notes taken during his tour of observation in Europe, under orders from the War Department; opens to the reader much of his own military history and culture. Here will be found his matured views on subjects of immediate and absorbing interests, and the noble and bold suggestions contained herein he is now in position to realize, and is, in fact, every day applying in practice. The book is a striking prophecy, of which his present position and his assured fame are the bright fulfilment.
