Oakland, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. Ayra & Go., Gents: I feel it my duty to ack lowledge what your Sarsaparlils has done for me. Having suberited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Uce: so may hands that arms; sometimes tursed inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew werse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an distributive (Sarsaparlila,) for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Chemnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small does of a teaspoonlum over a month; and used although three bitties. New and healthy skn seen began to form under the scal, which took it, as you, and used allocal three bottles: New and healthy skn soen began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off my skin is pow clear, and I know by my fellings that the discase has gond from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratafully. Yours, ALERED B. TALLEY.

I have cared many inveterate cases of Leucorrhoas by it, and some where the complaint was caused by alceration of the atterns. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my anowicedge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangeous courion toxing on one of the female in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, hus at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains." Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL. (FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.)

[FROM OFFICIAL REPURIS.]

MAY 19, 1860,—Ellen S., set. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years' ago she had an attack of acute rheumatum, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks and subsequency from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Satur day, while engaged in house dealning's she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, itch had no decided chill. Two days later her anxies began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the tippe jours and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of acute rhematism, or, at it is new fashlonably called, rheumatic lever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the class, and from time to time call your attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. In an propylassiae. Dr. alweshirs, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great concent from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendationly testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another tital! I must confess I am always moredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifies; but this comes to us recommended to highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER! May 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then labor-ting under an attack of access rheumatism. She has sleadily taken it in desset of three grains every two hourwhom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then is bording under an attack of scates rheumatism. She has sleadily taken it in doges of three grams every two hours [Intermitting it at night.] The day after you saw iter, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The pittlen now Walkes little the room.) The improvement has steadily, progressed, and you can not fill to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly all of their natural size.—Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentification, which was placed on the use of the result.

Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday last; she has long bean sylfering from a front or neumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chroica affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swollen and to-se. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain doses everytwo hours, and you will ished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 20, 1860.—This!is the case of soute rheamatism reases, with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic, but is still very comfortable, and is now, thing three grains shrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second c. se to which your attention that was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheamatism, and if the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we shall justly render our verdict in favor of propylamin.

He is a seaman, satight, who was admitted a few days sego. Has has occasional rheumatic pains, but not so as to keep hit bed, until clight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected she left kneep, and later, the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all swollen, tense and tender. His tongus is forted; his skin, as present dry, though there has been much sweating. His puise is full and strong, and about 90.—He has now, used propylamine for twenty-four hours. This gentleman is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it; usually doe, in the lower joints. There was exposure is a trial to the new remains, so generally attendant on abute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you, with the interior med you are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there to uid has be a fairer opportunity for testing the, medicine is question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anotynes, that there imay be no misnifyings as to which was the efficient ramedy. You shall like the case of a future chicle.
