PASSED THROUGH. - Brigadier-Generals Reylds and Schenck passed through the city last turday, en route for Washington.

CAPTAIN WATERBURY will leave Harrisburg a Friday night for Hilton Head, S. C., to rein his command, which is now located at that ont. The friends of those in that company, siding in this city or vicinity, who desire to municate with their friends at Hilton Head, n do so by leaving their letters at the resian do so by locating in Second street, beeen this and Friday evening, who will carry nd deliver such letters with pleasure.

A GOOD IDEA.—It has been suggested that ax be placed in some public place in our city, receive the contributions of those who may gire to do something to alleviate the condion and render more comfortable our sick and abled soldiers. A very good idea, and we pe it will be carried out. Every patriotic izen will put something in it, if it should d will prove the best investment ever made. ing out the Box

A HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN.—Three soldiers. d to belong to Company C., First Virginia rement, on the 11th inst., hired a horse and ggy of A T. Reesler, at Williamsport, Md., the purpose of visiting Hagerstown, Md., mising to return the same evening. This mise however, they forgot to keep; and as w have not yet returned the presumption is they have disposed of the horse and wagon. ropriated the proceeds, and made off to parts known. CHRISTMAS IS COMING.—One day more and ristmas will be here. The store windows of r merchants give us the assurance that they prepared to accommodate all in their line business, and give notice to that effect in the vertising columns of the Telegraph. The ngsters have got their stockings ready and counting the hours that are to pass before y can have the pleasure of hanging them up the expected visit of "old Kris." The good usewives are looking up the tin patterns for "fancy" cakes; the chestnut bag is in aiting to be untied; and the turkeys and ickens scarcely make a gobble or cackle, so ill are they being supplied with corn and carelly housed at night.

PROF. M'COY TO-NIGHT.-Our readers, Ly no ans, should forget the lecture of Prof. Ama-M'Coy, at the Fourth Street Bethel, this ning. The subject—"An Historical Vindition of Temperance Societies"—is one that uches the interest of all classes of society, d in the hands of the eloquent Professor, it be replete with humorous allusions, witty edotes, affecting incidents, and powerful arnent. The interest excited in this city by Professor's previous lecture "on the London and the rebellion" was greater, perhaps. n that occasioned by any other orator for a mber of years, and those who had the good tune to hear him on that subject, will unabtedly be present to-night.

The house in which the family lived night fire, and during the night Mrs. C. was oused by the smoke. Jumping out of bed e opened a door leading to an old kitchen, here the fire originated, when the flames ruchin, filling the apartment and rendering escape apo-sible. Mrs. Cochrane, however, contrived secure her labe, and handed it out through window to the father, who had by this time ached the open air, but the heroic mother erself was unable to escape, and was burned death, while two of her children suffered a the fate. The fire caught from an ash barrel the old kitchen before referred to, and spread rapidly that everything in the house was

Police.-The city lock-up was tenantless last night-the disagreeable weather doubtless inducing "vags" and "bummers" generally to tie close within their nests.

The consolidated police worked up several ases of drunkenness last Saturday, all of which were heard before Justice Beader, and the parties committed to prison.
