Ho! FOR THE HOLIDAYS! - The beautiful and cical blended in the Gifts offered for sale at Bergge's Book Store!—The approaching Christmas Hollidays are bringing with them their accostomary anticipations of gifts and presents, one of the onored costoms; too, in the observance of which nonoreu cosconis, and the sequally shared by the doner and the recipient of a gift. Nor is it the cost or the extent of a gift which increases friendship, because the simplest remembrance betokells often the sincerest friendship. In orin the shape of articles for presents during the proaching holidays, the stock of Books and Jancy Articles at Bergner's Book and Stationery tore has been most extensively enlarged, and ow embraces a variety of the beautiful, the seful, the practical and economical, such as annot be found in any other establishment out ide of New York or Philadelphia. The adversement in another column presents these artiles in detail, and to this we invite the attenion of the reader desirous of supplying himself r his triends with rare articles for Christma

Books of Romance emallished with every conceivable fancy of the rist and the painter. Books, in fact, from the rave to the gay—designed as gifts for all tastes

One of the most beautiful gifts of the season the Photographic Album. This is an entirely w construction in the shape of an Album, otten up in size for the preservation of the orinary photographic pictures. They will conin from 10 to 100 pictures, and when the otographs are inserted between their folds, hey can be preserved and handled for years thout danger from light or injury from the such of the hand. As a suitable and valuable esent we consider these albums in all respects perior to any other articles which can possibly purchased. The stock at Bergner's is more tensive and more select than that at any other ablishment in the city.

The other articles at this establishment, he line of superior Cutlery, Turkey Morocco ichels, Purses and Pocket-books, Stationerv. nd in fact all that is beautiful and useful, must examined to be fairly appreciated and valued. mere description is inadequate to an idea of alize by actual observation, the extent and eauty of this immense stock of Books, Fancy rticles and Stationery.
