HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Morning, December 24, 1561,

PASSED THROUGH, -Brigadier Generals Reyolds and Schenck passed through the city last Saturday, en route for Washington.

CAPTAIN WATERBURY will leave Harrisburg on Friday night for Hilton Head, S. C., to rejoin his command, which is now located at that point. The friends of those in that company, point. In this city or vicinity, who desire to quanticate with their friends at Hilton Head can do so by leaving their letters at the residence of Capt. Waterbury in Second street, bedence in this and Friday evening, who will carry and deliver such letters with pleasure.

A House and Budgy Stolen .- Three soldiers, nid to belong to Company C., First Virginia reiment, on the 11th inst., hired a horse and buggy of A. T. Reesler, at Williamsport, Md., or the purpose of visiting Hagerstown, Md. quising to return the same evening. This omise, however, they forgot to keep; and as hey have not yet returned the presumption is hat they have disposed of the horse and wagon, propriated the proceeds, and made off to parts known. A full description of the stolen orse and wagon may be found in the advertiing columns of this evening's TRLEGRAPH.

FANCY ARTICLES .- A splendid assortment of ncy articles at McCalla's, 38, Market street.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING .-- One day more and christmas will be here. The store windows of our merchants give us the assurance that they re prepared to accommodate all in their line business, and give notice to that effect in the alvertising columns of the TELEGRAPH. The oungsters have got their stockings ready and re counting the hours that are to pass before they can have the pleasure of handing them up for the expected visit of "old Kris." The good usewives are looking up the tin patterns for he "fancy" cakes; the chestnut bag is in waiting to be untied; and the turkeys and nickens scarcely make a gobble or cackle, so vell are they being supplied with corn and careully housed at night.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR SOLDIERS .- During the latter part of last week the officers of the Hope and Adams' express companies in this city were unusually busy shipping boxes and packages containing presents for the soldiers. These boxes and packages were of all shapes and sizes and the contents were as varied as their out ward appearance. They all contained something useful or dainty to contribute to the soldier's comfort, and to gladden their hearts with the reflection that although absent they are not forgotten at this festive season. In this connection we would state by way of hint to those who desire to send articles to their friends in camp, that all boxes destined for the soldiers must be of strong material, convenient for handling and securely fastened. It is moreover absolutely necessary for the name of the soldier, the number of his company and regiment, and the loca tion, to be inscribed in distinct letters with marking ink upon the box. The charges for transporting packages to soldiers must be paid in advance. All the cumps are accessible to the agents of the several express companies, and all possible dispatch is used in forwarding goods.

CAKE BASKETS .- A fine assortment of cake baskets, castors, and a general assortment of plated silver and gold ware, can always be found at M'Calla's jewelry store.

> CHRISTMAS IN THE GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH -Our German friends of the Second street Lu theran church, are making extensive preparations for the Christmas festivities. They have handsomely decorated the Church with spruce and holly, and prepared a beautiful "Christmas tree," which is filled with appropriate sweet meats and other articles, intended, we believe, as presents to the Sunday School scholars. The Church will be open to the inspection of the public from one to five o'clock on Christmas afternoon, and again at six o'clock in the evening, when the Christmas tree will be beautifully illuminated with wax tapers, in the good old German style, and the presents given to the children.
