HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, December 25, 1861.

NATIONAL SALUTE. - A national salute of thirty four guns was fired on Capitol Hill, yesterday, in honor of Gen. McCall's victory over the rebels at the recent battle of Drainesville, Va. The firing was admirably preformed by Ulman's battery, from Camp Curtin, under the lirection of Lieut, Beck.

SAILED.—The fleet chartered to convey Col. Wynkoop's regiment from Pittsburg to Louisille, sailed on Saturday afternoon. There was large crowd on the wharf to see it leave, and the steamers backed out into the stream, oud and repeated cheers were given on the hore, and answered by the troops.

____ BILLS IN EQUITY ABOUT TO BE FILED .- A COT espondent of the Philadelphia Evening Journal tes that two bills in equity are about to be led against the Pennsylvania railroad company, Westmoreland coal company and others. object of which seems to be to obtain jusand redress from the respondents for cer-In parties in the gas coal business, who claim have suffered deep injury at the hands of de-

CHOOL GIRLS KNITTING FOR THE SOLDIERS. t the suggestinn of their teachers, eighteen or enty of the good and loyal misses of Oxford, ester county, Public school, are industriously ployed at knitting socks and mits for the diers. Since commencing their additional bor, they find that they have time to knit and udy too. Their desire to complete as many as possible before they are imperatively ded, has led them to determine to knit a Year present, through the medium of the young school misses of our city follow the particularly Poetry and Music." imple of their Chester county sisters in this triotic labor. Which teacher will first introuce the subject to their scholars?

Inristmas.—Notwithstanding the great potical excitement which prevails throughout e country, our people are nevertheless deterined to enjoy Christmas, and the appearance things indicate that it will be observed in his city with the usual festivity. Yesterday nd to-day evergreens for preparing the Christas trees were to be seen all over the city, and decorating the churches a large quantity s procured. There will be feasting, but there many who in times past enjoyed the comts of life, will now be compelled to forego ordinary pleasures of the occasion. The or are in great need, and in the midst of fesvity should not be forgotten; they never have een by the people of Harrisburg, and there is o doubt many blank faces will be made to mile, and joy carried to many a fireside by the ppearance of a portion of the luxuries so abunant on each recurrence of Christmas.

SANFORD.—The irresistible Sanford, of pleasant memory, re-opened Brant's Hall on Monday with his famous troupe to a large and appreciative audience. To day the troupe will give two performances - afternoon and evening each of which will terminate with the grand spectacular, dramatic, terpsichorean, mirth-provoking, side-splitting, and expressive pantomine entitled the "Three Legged Monster, Harlequin or The Fighting Shoemaker and Tailor." The piece will be brought out with all the appurtenances of scenery, machinery and dresses, which created such a furore at the manager's opera house in Philadelphia. This is certainly a very liberal bill of entertainment, and we cannot see how any lover of amusement with a quarter in his pocket can stay away from the hall.

The Dauphin Courty Transpar's Instructs sombled by the North Word (Landstorian) School in this city at 9 o'clock a. m. yesterday, The attendance of teachers and others interested in the cause of education, was large and respectable. The morning exercises were conducted by Professor Bates and Messrs. Row and Denlinger, and were replete with interest. The af ternoon session was devoted to the reading of an essay on Physical Training, by Prof. Bates, a lecture on Reading, and discussion on educationalitopics generally. Rev. James Colder and Prof. E. Brooks will be the lecturers in the Court pair in "double quick" time during the hol. House this evening. The subject of Mr. ys of Christmas week, and forward them as a Colder's lecture will be "The Importance of a Military Education for American Youth." and ford Aid Association. THE GRAND QUESTION OF THE DAY.—What has caused the great advance in dry goods and groceries? almost every one inquires, will they get higher? Mr. Dissatisfied says it is speculation, and our friend Mrs. Brown insists that it cannot last long—the old lady Mrs. Prudence has looked all around and canvassed the best information at her disposal, and thinks as Mr. Dissatisfied cannot control speculation, and Mrs. Brown's time is so indefinite, she, Mrs. Prudence will just step in Urich & Bowman's and select a few pieces of cotton goods from the old stock and a dress or two from the beautiful new goods ment, opens to the reader much of his own just arriving, corner of Front and Market military history and culture.
