Daily Telegraph.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Afternoon, December 28, 1861.

McCALLA SAYS—"Don't be feeling around, but call at No. 38 Market street, and get a good pair of spectacles."

A CORRESPONDENT who signs himself an "old subscriber" can best obtain the information he seeks for at the Mayor's or either one of our Aldermen's officers. We do not profess to be booked up in matters of law.

NEW YEAR'S ADDRESS.—Our carriers beg to remind their patrons that they will as usual present themselves at their doors on the morning of the New Year with their annual address, and express the hope that they will be generously received. The address is no "washy-washy" affair, but a really beautiful and useful paper, well worth a quarter to any one.

BENEFIT OF THE FRIENDSHIP FIRE COMPANY.—Sanford's Opera Troupe will perform next Tuesday night for the benefit of the Friendship Fire Company. The programme for the occasion is full of "good things," and cannot fail to be attractive. The "Friendly Boys" are among the most active of our firemen; and as they have a heavy debt yet to pay on their "Steamer," we hope our citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity to contribute liberally towards their relief.

THE PLEASURES OF A BUGGY RIDE.—One of our fast young men, who delights in fast horses, gay times and fun, recently borrowed a horse and buggy from one of our livery men for the purpose of enjoying a ride with his "lady love." Unfortunately, while proceeding with his "team" to the residence of the lady, the horse took fright, ran off at 2.40 speed, pitched the driver head over heels down a ten foot embankment, and brought up against a fence post somewhere back of the reservoir, demolishing the vehicle and slightly injuring the animal.

FRAUDULENT USE OF FRANKS.—The attention of the Postoffice Department having been called to the fact that the frank of those entitled to the franking privilege is being fraudulently used and sometimes forged for the purpose of evading the payment of postage, and that such franks are being sold to soldiers and others, it may be well to state that the following law will be rigidly enforced against all offenders; and that postmasters are enjoined to retain all letters bearing such fictitious franks:

"Chap. 18, Sec. 243—Postoffice Regulations.—If any person shall counterfeit the handwriting or frank of a person entitled to the franking privilege, or cause the same to be done, in order to avoid the payment of postage, each person so offending is liable to a fine of five hundred dollars.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.—A correspondent informs us that Mr. Abraham Burkholder, of South Anville township, Lebanon county, recently lost four chidlren out of a family of five, by scarlet fever. The children all died within the short time of fifty four hours, and were buried side by side in one grave on Thursday the 20th inst, in the presence of a large assembly of friends and neighbors. The following are the names of the deceased:

Harriet died on Sunday, the 22nd inst. Age 7 years, 10 months and 28 days.

Ann Elizabeth died on Tuesday the 24th. Age 5 years, 11 months and 26 days.

Felix died on Monday, the 23d. Age 3 years, 8 months and 1 day.

Catharine died on Sunday night, the 22d.—Age 1 year, 2 months and 24 days.

"Insatiate Archer, would not one suffice?"

EXTRAVAGANCE IN DRESS.—It has grown up into a gigantic evil, from whatever point of view it may be regarded—outlay, convenience or taste, a girl is lost in her vast amplitude of tulle and tarlatan. She does injustice to her own attractions by swamping them in gorgeous billows of silk or lace, that rise and foam over half the breadth of a room, dwarfing her face into insignificance. Dress should be elegant, but need not be ruinously extravagant; in the reigning style, but never in the excess of fashion, which may or may not suit every form and complexion, and which never really becomes any. It should always be remembered that however the eye may be taken at first sight with a magnificent dress, it is the wearer that a man finally falls in love with; besides which, there is such a competition in the article that few women can hope to conquer by supremacy its extravagance.

POLICE—Before the Mayor.—Wm. Wolf, who said he was a lieutenant in the three months' service, was arraigned, charged with violating one of the city ordinances, by driving over pavements. The lieutenant was considerably inebriated, and threatened divers terrible things. A friend advanced the money wherewith to pay the fine, but the lieutenant was furnished with lodgings in the lock-up.

John Gastrock—the supervisor of the Second District—was summoned to answer the charge of obstructing the public highway in front of his property in Fourth street. The obstruction complained of consisted of a quantity of loose boards and planks. Fined five dollars and thirty-three cents.

James Weltmer and Joseph Higgins—soldiers, belonging to the 110th Pennsylvania Regiment, were up, charged with feloniously taking from Barnhart's tavern a coat belonging to Mr. Jacob Levi. The stolen property was found in Weltmore's possession. Sent to prison to answer.

About a dozen of soldiers were arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, all of whom were discharged.

By the Consolidated Police.—Wm. Longe was arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Committed to prison by Justice Beader.

John Neihoff, was arrested for drunkenness. Committed to prison by Justice Beader.

Daniel Butler was arrested for assault and battery with intent to kill. Committed to prison by Alderman Kline.

ALL should read Prof. Wood's advertisement in another column.

PREACHING IN THE COURT HOUSE.—A. K. Shoemaker will preach in the Court Houce to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours of divine worship.

PRESENTS suitable for people in all stages of life—the old, the young, the gay and happy, the heart-broken, the heart-seekers, the heart-loosers, the heart-winners and the heartless, or those that never loved. For the latter class we recommend a pistol. All of which can be obtained at M'Calla's Jewelry store, No. 38 Market street.

THE PANTOMIME at Sanford's Opera, Brant's Hall, still continues all the rage, and the question of "have you seen the three legged monster?" is becoming almost as popular as that of "have you seen the elephant?" The pantomime is certainly the best ever performed in this city, and is only a fortaste of the many amusing novelties which the enterprizing manager has in store for our play-going community.

LECTURE NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.—Holders of tickets, and others will remember that the distinguished orator Prof. M'Coy, will deliver his celebrated lecture, entitled "An Historical Vindication of Temperance Societies" in the Fourth Street Bethel next Monday evening for the benefit of Advance Lodge I. O. of Good Templars. Tickets fifteen cents—to be had at the book stores, and at the door on the evening of the lecture.

THE COUNTY TEACHER'S INSTITUTE adjourned last evening, and the closing proceedings will be found on the outside of this evening's TELEGRAPH. The attendence, during the session was large and respectable, the exercises replete with interest, and the whole affair, through the well directed, ardent, and devoted labors of the County Superintendent, was a most signal, and decidedly deserved success. Much good has doubtless been done, much instruction gained, and whilst the brain and the mind have been benefitted, the heart has been expanded, and the genial social qualities cultivated and improved. Many lasting lessons have been learned, and so eager and thirsty for knowledge have many of our young men become, and so desirous are they still further to pursue the "pleasant paths," which lead thereto, that many of them are decidedly of the opinion that the "annual" meeting should occur at least twice during the year.

GREAT RISE OF GOODS.—For several months past Cotton Goods, and Groceries have been tending upwards in price till now they have taken a sudden flight of thirty to fifty per cent. Sheetings usually retailed at eight and ten cents cannot now be bought in the cities at wholesale less than fifteen cents per yard, and shilling prints are held at eighteen cents. Dealers in Teas, Coffee and Sugar have withdrawn their stocks from the market waiting for a fancy price, and the prospect is fair that they will eventually get all they choose to ask. Country dealers are obliged to be governed in their sales by the wholesale men of the cities, and our readers must expect in the future to pay "war prices" for their store goods. Our merchants to-day can re-ship their goods to New York, and sell them at better profit than they have been selling of late. Some who purchased early bought comparatively cheap, while others paid dearly for their goods. In Justice to themselves and the public, thererore, they have now mutually agreed upnn uniform prices for all staple goods, and though considerably higher than heretofore, they are only at about city wholesale prices, and probably much less than they will be bye and bye.

THE WAR AND THE HOLIDAYS.—Except that the gilt gingerbread in the baker's windows runs more in the line of colossal cavalry than usual, and that toy dealers must affect playthings of a more material cast than customary, the war appears to be ignored by the devotees of the seasons. The boys certainly evince somewhat of a martial spirit in their choice of holiday articles, when, in the words of the old song—

"Rattles and toys they throw away,
All for a gun or a sabre, O!"

Knapsacks of a limited calibre, tin-bladed swords, harmless muskets, half-pint canteens, and intensely clipperish red caps, with tri-colored plumes, are in high favor; but upon the whole, the war is merged in the holidays, and King Christmas is too much for Mars. Adult masculine humanity still gives his first glance at the telegraphic head of his evening paper; but as for the children, Beauregard has given way to bon-bons, and Mason and Slidell are not worth a straw's consideration in comparison with a well filled stocking or a wax headed and flaxen haired doll. Just look at a squad of youngsters absorbed in the contemplation of the glittering stores displayed in the windows of a toy or a confectionary store, about this time, if you would see an example of earnest undivided attention to a single class of objects.

How their eyes dilate at the contemplation of the treasures so lavishly spread out before them; how their mouths water at the bare sight of saccharine or gingery dainties, and how profound their inward speculations as to their ability to satisfy a reasonable proportion of their desires with the outlay of the few nickels which form the sum total of their Christmas treasures, and which they instinctively finger with the hands that are thrust, far down into their pockets. Christmas is everything to them, war is nothing, and the news of an advance on the line of the Potomac, or of the sailing of an English fleet up the Delaware would fail to divert even momentary attention from the outward signs and symbols of the great holidays.

WAR PRICES.—The undersigned offers the following goods 25 per cent cheaper than can be purchased in New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg or elsewhere, viz: Shirt collars, scarftees, half hose, jackets, overalls, muffins, nightshirts, undershirts, drawers and shirt bosoms; also ladies' callars, cuff setts, under-garments, &c., &c. A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Utica, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.,) and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of DR. DUPONCO'S Golden Pills, they might refer any Lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young Lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health—"We were particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. TO THE YOUNG MEN OF PENN'A.

HAVING been authorized to recruit a Regiment for the Volunteer service of Pennsylvania we have concluded to make it a regiment of "sharp shooters"—riflemen—recruited from the State at large. We want TEN good able bodied young men from each county, so as to have every portion of the State fully and equally represented.

Those desirous of serving their country, of fighting under and for our good old FLAG, have now a splendid opportunity offered them. We intend to make this a "CRACK REGIMENT;" if possible the best in the service of our noble Commonwealth. Good substantial uniforms will be furnished as soon as the men reach Camp and are sworn into the service. The Regiment will be armed with MINIE or ENFIELD RIFLES with SABRE BAYONETS. Those desiring to enlist, as positively only TEN will be taken from each county in the State, had better report immediately, any time after the 20th of December to W. W. Brown, Harrisburg, Pa. Any or all communications from distant counties will be answered speedily and confidentially.

W. W. BROWN, Captain.

TELEGRAPH.

Dauphin County Teachers' Institute

Afternoon session was opened, and on motion of Mr. Lawrence the Institute resolved to adjourn this afternoon.

Prof. Brooks then commenced the subject of mental arithmetic, which subject he treated very ably. Analysis is the golden key to arithmetic.

The committee appointed to fix upon a time and place for holding the next meeting of the Dauphin County Teachers' Institute, beg leave to report: That after a careful consideration of the subject submitted to us, we are unanimously of the opinion that it is inexpedient to take action thereon, but would submit the following resolution in lieu thereof:

Resolved, That this Institute earnestly recommend to the teachers of Dauphin County, when assembled for the examination in their respective districts, that they then decide upon what they consider the proper time and place for holding the meeting of the county Institute in the year 1862, said decision to be made known to the County Superintendent at the close of the examination.

Resolved, That the County Superintendent be, and is hereby requested to call said meeting of the County Institute at such place and time as may have the largest number of votes.

The committee was then discharged.

The following preamble and resolution was offered; which was agreed to:

WHEREAS, We, as teachers of Dauphin county, when associated together in the capacity of District or County Institute, are not only benefitted and improved as individuals and teachers, but are enabled by such improvement to advance the best interest of the pupils committed to our care.

AND WHEREAS, The present session of our County Institute has demonstrated the fact of their being too much lethargy on our part, in preparing ourselves for a practical participation in its proceedings.

AND WHEREAS, We believe that the next annual meeting of the teachers of this county, can be made more interesting and useful than even the present one; therefore,

Resolved, That each teacher in the county be requested to prepare himself or herself for an active participation in the proceedings of the next County Institute, by the preparation of lectures, to be delivered, or original compositions or essays, to be read, and also the mode of teaching the different branches in the school.

D. H. R. LARUE, Chairman.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Reports of the Fire Exaggerated.

HEALTH OF GEN. McCLELLAN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.

The reports sent North concerning the fire at the Government stables, last night, were grossly exaggerated. Not one hundred horses were burned, and the loss will not reach one hundred thousand dollars.

General McClellan has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to resume his duties in doors to day.

Lieutenant General Scott is expected to arrive in Washington to-night. There is much curiosity to learn the object of his errand to this country at present.

The contested election case of the First District in Philadelphia, will be finally disposed of on the re-assembling of Congress.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.

There was quite an excitement in the stock market this afternoon with an advance in prices, which is attributed to the impression that a suspension of extensive payments in specie by the buyers, will precede the next large Treasury negotiation.
