AYER'S SARSAPARILLA FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD. A ND for the speedy cure of the sub-

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affection such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co., Genius: I feel it my duty to acknowladge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having unherited a Sorofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Uicers on my hands and arms; sometimes turned in ward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sarsaparilla,) for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skn soen began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off my skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the a costles of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B, TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head Ring worm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sep., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous attack of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same says he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck. Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Gerrar—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes; "I most cheerfully comply with the respect of your agent in suying I have found your Streaparilla a most excellent alternative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy; but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhoas by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these lemale derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ouarian tumor on one of the formaise in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could affor relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1959.

NEW ORLEAMS, 25th August, 1959.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sareaparilla.

I have oured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Veneral and Mericarial Diseases. (the of my patients had syphilitic ulcers in his threat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five week. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had saten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill blim. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilis: the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill blm. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla: the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some dissignration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day, the suffered corrotating main in her joints and bones. She, loo, was cured entirely by your sarsaparilla la a few weeks. I know from its formula, which you agent gave me, that his froparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkeble results with it have not surprised me,

Fraternally yours.

I think it a wonderful medicine,

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Leuis. writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every hing, and every thing lailed to relieve me; and I have been a broken down man for some years from no ther cause than de-rangments fite Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alternative power of this medicine. of the Disease

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of paimonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the cearth.— Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects.— some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

[FROM OFFIGIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

MAY 19, 1860,—Ellea S., 2a. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks and subsequently from a relapse fer four more. She has been well since then till hat Satur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, hot had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case: We will carefully wadon the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. In man propylamine. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another trial I must confess I am always incredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifies; but this comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER! [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

May 23, 1880.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in does of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her ot her attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now marly all of their natural size.—Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentlemen, we must wait a little white bafore we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result. SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday last; she has long been suffering from chronic rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chrodic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swellen and terse. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

May 26, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very comfortable, and it now taking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to winchyour attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and if the result be satisatiotry, I think, as good jurymen, we shall justly render our verdict in favor of propylamin.

He is a seaman, set. 28, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had coassional rheumatic pairs, but not so us to keep his bed, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremittes. These joints are all swollen, tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin, at present dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is fall and strong, and about 90.—He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours. This gentleman is what may be called a triefly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, so generally attendant on acute rheumatism.

I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there could not be a fairer opportunity for losting the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anolynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case of a future clinio.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

JUNE 9, 1860.—The next of our convalescents is the case of acuterheumatism before you at our clinic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for tosting the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not hesitate to s y that I have noves seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by acto the value of the remedy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chloride of Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves by it, and report the results. June 9, 1860.—The next of our convalescents is the
