RELIEF FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED .--- We have already published the address of the Sanitary Committee of Philadelphia for the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers te the women of the State asking for assistance. We learn that the government has rented four large buildings in Philadelphia for hospitals, which have already received the necessary furniture; and in a few days several hundred of the sick and wounded soldiers along the Potomac, will be forwarded to these places. The various associations throughout our city that have been so generally patriotically and industriously collecting comforts for the soldiers at Washington, can now send a portion of their articles of contribution to Philadelphia, directed to Charles J.
