In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever he restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, this not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandrul ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and uses it if growing gray or getting; baid Very respectfully. BEN A. LAVENDER.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

ORLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co., Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Earsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrotulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an elternative (Sarsaparilla,) for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Chicinnati and get it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doese of a leaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skn socia began to form under the scap, which after a while fell off my skin is now clear, and I know by my felings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am anying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostes of the age, and remain ever gratafully. Yours, Alfred B. Talley.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects. I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its recommended, and have found its recommended. And have found its recommended in the street of Veneral and Mericard Diseases. One of my patients had Syphilitio theore in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, see addy taken ondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had setten away a considerable part of it, so that balleve the incorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcera healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered warmed anticole by wour Sarsaparilla, as few weeks. It sensitive to the weather make on a dain day sine studered coveronating sain is her joins and houses. She, 100, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla is a few weeks. I know from its formula, which you agent gave me, that this Proparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkeble results with it have not surprised me.

PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL.

[FROM OFFICIAL HOSTFIAL REPORTS.]

MAY 19, 1860,—Ellen S., set. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Satur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, hot had so decided chill. Two days later her ankless began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a romedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. Im an propyramiae. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another visial. Imust confess I am always moredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifics; sut this comes to us: recommended so highly, that we see bound to give it a trial. [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER! SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

May 23, 1880.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack of acate rheamatum. She has steadily taken it in doses of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I bound har much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly all of their natural size.—Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentlemen, we must wait a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday last; the has long boes suffering from a bronic rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute lattack supervening apon her chronic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swollen and teose. She took the obloride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you wiff perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 26, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very comfortable, and is now Laking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very, satisfactory results. The second o set to which your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring before you's very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and if the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jarymen, we small justly render our verdict in favor of propylamina.

He is a seaman, set, 26, who was admitted afew days ago. Has had coassional rheumation pains, but not so so kneep his bed, anni eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all swollen, tense and tender. His tongue is furred; its skin, as present dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90.—

This genifeman is what may be called a strictly typical case of souter hearmatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is feyer and the profuse sweating, so generally attlendant on acute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rileumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you; the top in the patient of the string the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anolynes, that there may be no shall see the case of a future clinic.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

JUNE 9, 1860.—The next of our convalencents is 5 the persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as June 9, 1860.—The next of our convalencents is 5 the case of acutor heumatism before you at our clinic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for besume the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore attackly given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has get along very nicely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not hesitate to say that I have neves seen as severe a case of acute Theumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the remedy we have used, I shell bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chloride of Propylamine, the patients have regained their health Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily, pursued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves try t and report the results.

For a full report of which the above is a condense extract, see the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Re porter. It is the report after a fair trial by the best med ical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astoniahed doctor
