HARRISBURG, PA. Wodnesday Morning, January), 1862,

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER. -At the annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons, held in Philadelphia on the 27th inst., Robert A Lumberton, Esq., of this city, was appointed Deputy District Grand Master for the appointed of Dauphin, Franklin, Cumberland, Adams, Juniata and Perry.

NAVIGATION CLOSED - The cold weather of Friday put an effectual ice embargo on the Eastern Division of the canal, which was doing a brisk business up till that day. It is believed a max will be a prosperous one on the next scarce and boat building has accordingly dite.," and boat been commenced. The main line, east of the nountains, especially along the Juniata, is to mountains, be put in thorough repair during the winter.

OUR CARRIERS will be "around" bright and ently to-day with their usual offering to the Patroles of the "TELEGRAPH." They flatter themselves, it will be an acceptable present, and as one good turn deserves another, they hove I meet with a substantial mark of approhation from their numerous well wishers the city. As they only make one Ciliate the kind in a twelve-month, they do icinate anything else than a cordial gir ing on the occasion.

1 VISITATION.—The following is an exin the report of County School Sudent Ingram for the month of Decem-

135 schools in Lower Paxton, London mewago and Harrisburg—spending 523 these schools, making the average of visits one hour and fifty minutes. 150 miles; walked 67; in cars 78, and or conveyance five. Twenty-five days on tin official duty, of which four were ment in conducting County Institute.

NEGLEY'S BRIGADS. - A correspondent of the New York Tribune, in speaking of the recent advalue of Gen. Buell's army to Green river, says our men behaved finely, and, although fatigued by a long march, General Negley's brigade came up at the double quick, all eager for the firlit, condemning in as strong terms as soldiers are permitted to indulge in, the orders from Lasisville prohibiting the command from cross ing and bringing on a general engagement. It was the general opinion that if they had not been trammelled by orders given at a distance of seventy-four miles from the scene of action, they could have captured Hindman's whole force, or, at least, have captured his battery.

CORE FOR FROSTED ERET.-It is said that frozen feet can be speedily and certainly cured by being bathed and well rubbed by kerosene or to bed. Several persons have already tried it, all of whom unite in pronouncing it an effectual cure, which, if they are correct, is an easy and cheap mode of getting rid of a very sore and troublesome affliction. Those who have tried it say that the feet should be well warmed cure. Persons suffering from the pain of frosted feet will no doubt do well in giving it a trial for it is surely a very cheap ointment and which is very easily applied.

He went to bed, and nothing more was noticed of him until Saturday morning, when, as stated, he was found a corpse. His body was placed in a box, transferred to the baggage car, and taken to Pittsburg. Coroner M'Clung was notified, and immediately upon the arrival of the train held an inquest on the body, which was indentified by Conductor W. H. Watt as that of George Arnold, retiding at Latrobe. Letters found in the pockets of the deceased also indicated his identity. He was, we understand, traveling agent for a New York firm, with a branch in Cincinnati, and frequently traveled over the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was on his way to Latrobe, and his wife was anticipating his arrival, as was as-Rendered a verdict that his death resulted from causes to them unknown.

THE NEW YEAR.—As this is the last time the 'local" will address his readers during the present year, he most heartily wishes them all the compliments of the season. As travelers who have reached a mountain top pause and look over the valley through which they have traveled, so stand we, on the verge of this old year, looking back over its various lights and D for the Dealer who is after your gold. shadows. How many flowers have faced from life's green paths; how many weary ones have sunk to rest since the year was ushered in! Lips then eloquent with tones of friendship, are mute and motionless: eyes that danced with joy are closed forever! What changes, even in one short year! The new volume lies before us; its leaves are yet pure, and how shall we fill its pages-with high and noble deeds, with manly acts, or with deeds of shame and darkness? Have we fulfilled life's great design in the year just flown? How many crushed hearts have we healed? How many streaming eyes dried? How many of the guilty redeemed? How many misspent hours, how many neglected opportunities? The days of the new born year will glide as noiselessly away as did those of the past year. But let us employ them for life's to the Ladies of Darrisoning and Volling at 12 jc. noble purposes, that when we stand upon its farthest verge, we can look back with an unregretful glance and bear its harvest with a clear conscience to the judgment of that unseen land -the eternity of God.

*THE LECTURE .- The Lecture of Prof. M'Coy, at the Fourth Street Bethel, Tuesday evening, was attended by a highly intelligent and appreciative audience. A very interesting feature of the meeting was the introduction of a and arrive safe at the net distant harbor, and movement which promises to become part of the then will arise from twenty millions of glad history not only of Temperance but of the War. Professor M'Coy read the following "National Patriotic Temperance Pledge," which he drew up at the tomb of Washington, on the 21st of May, when he made his way through the rebel pickets to ascertain if the report was true that they had stolen away the remains of Washington. It will be seen that this form of pledge asserts temperance as a war measure.coal oil for a few times at night before retiring It also asserts the intimate connection between personal and political self-government. Prof. M'Coy said that the first persons he submitted it to, after returning from Mount Vernon, were the President of the United States, the Vice President, and the Chairman of the Military Committee of the United States Senate. All of by a hot stove during and after application of them approved of the positions taken in the the oil, and it will certainly effect a speedy paper, commended the movement, and had or would sign it themselves. It seemed to meet with very general approval on the part of the audience last night. A number of our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, immediately signed it; and it was signed also by a number of recruits who were on their way to reinforce the Round-head regiment at Port Royal.
