

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.

Monday Afternoon, January 6, 1862.

APPOINTMENT AT WASHINGTON.—We understand that Mr. James P. Williams, of this city, has been appointed messenger in the United States Senate to Vice President Hamlin, with a salary of twelve hundred dollars.

THE CITY COMMON COUNCIL held its regular monthly meeting at the Council Chamber in the Court House last Saturday evening. No business of general public interest was transacted, the session being principally devoted to the passage of a large number of money orders.

LOSS TO A HARRISBURGER.—Mr. Geo. Kunkle, a former resident of this city, and well known throughout the country as the manager of the famous "Kunkle's Serenaders," is a heavy loser by the burning of the Richmond theatre. An estimate of the loss, by his agent, places it at $10,200, distributed as follows: A handsome wardrobe $5,000; expensive furniture $1,700; new scenery, $1,500; a number of valuable oil paintings, containing, among others, life-size portraits of Misses C. Cushman and Maggie Mitchell, and Messrs. Forest, Booth, Jefferson, Conner, and several others, $400; stage properties, $500; private papers and copy righted plays, $700; and a drop curtain painted by S. C. Getz, cost $400. Mr. Kunkle left Richmond in July of last year, leaving an unexpired lease of four years on the house. His insurance for $10,000 expired in September last.

MILITARY THEATRE.—In General Auger's brigade the soldiers have erected a theatre forty by eighty feet. They have formed a stock company out of the members of their own brigade, and, as they have two excellent bands in the brigade, the opening night will present a grand scene. It is thought that Susan Denin will assist at the opening.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE will meet here tomorrow. The members are pretty near all here, and the few still absent, will arrive by the evening trains. The Republican and Democratic members of the two Houses will meet in caucus this evening for the purpose of selecting candidates for speakers, clerks, and officers, to be elected to-morrow.

TO DETECT EXPLOSIVE COAL OIL.—Many disasters being already occasioned from the use of explosive coal oil, the following receipt for ascertaining whether or not the article is explosive, may not be out of place: Pour a small quantity into a sancer, and bring a lighted match slowly down to it. If explosive, the oil will blaze and flash up almost like powder; if not explosive, it will not burn at all. The latter only is safe for use.

DROWNED IN THE CANAL.—A few days ago the body of an unknown man was found in the canal at the Hog-pen locks, near Marietta. He was apparently twenty-five or thirty years of age, and was dressed in the uniform of a cavalry soldier, and had a sword attached to his side. On him was found a railroad pass and a furlough from Col. Williams, to whose regiment he no doubt belonged. From the appearance of a body, it had been several weeks in the water.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEIT.—Another new counterfeit has been put in circulation. It purports to be the three dollar issue of the Central Bank of Troy, N. Y. The note is described as follows: Figure "3" on the upper left and right hand corner, Kris Kingle in centre in a sleigh, on the top of a house; State arms on the lower left corner; plain medallion on the lower right corner, very poorly executed. These notes are entirely different from the genuine threes of this bank.

THE BILL OF FARE.—At the dinner of the Pennsylvania Eighty-third regiment, at Hall's Hill, on New Year's eve, the bill of fare consisted of boned tongues, roast turkeys, boiled hams, boiled onions, partridges, stewed oysters, chicken salads, pute truffes, Charlotte Russe, sandwiches, ice creams, jellies, assorted cakes, oranges, almonds, raisins, French kisses, bonbons, plenty of cigars, a few punches, a taste of Champagne, and, according to a German's remark, "some oder little dings."

THE DEBATING SOCIETY OF THE POTOMAC.—It is reported that several regiments on the Potomac are putting up commodious cabins for holding meetings for intellectual improvement during the winter evenings. We don't remember that history records any spectacle exactly like that—a huge army coolly resolving itself into a debating society in front of the enemy. Nothing, however, could be more characteristic of the versatile Yankee nature; and we don't know but that, if the army be really going into winter quarters, it is the best thing our boys could do with their evenings.

THE CANALS.—The water was let out the Pennsylvania canal several days ago, and of course navigation has also ceased in its tributaries, the Union and Tide water. The boatmen have had a long season, and in spite of its unpropitious opening, altogether a very busy and remunerative one. The carrying trade through the Tide Water canal has been exceedingly brisk during the autumn, and very heavy freights of coal came through the Pennsylvania canal to this place. The prospects for next season are promising. The spring business will probably open with unusual energy.

THE RIVER.—The frost of the past few days has made desperate efforts to close the river, and has pretty nigh succeeded. The channel between the island and the Cumberland shore opposite Pine street is thoroughly closed, and with the continuance of the present "cold term" it will not be long until the same may be said of the channel between the island and the shore on this side. We shall not be averse to a hard freeze for the coming week or two. It is time to be looking after our ice crop—an important item to this city. We want one luxury plenty and cheap, since the exigencies of war lay so heavy a duty upon coffee and tea.

SNOW.—The first snow of any consequence with which we have been visited this season fell last night, and this morning there was quite enough on the ground to admit of good sleighing. There were several sleighs out during the day, and the "jingle" "jingle" of the merry bells had quite a pleasing effect.

CAPT. P. BENNER WILSON has orders to march with his cavalry company to Camp Patterson, near Philadelphia, to-morrow. He will leave accordingly, and take with him as fine a body of men as ever enlisted in a just cause. The company will be attached to the regiment now recruiting by Col. Butler Price.

POLICE.—Before the Mayor.—The only tenant of the city Lock-up last night were the four soldiers of the 110th regiment, arrested a few days ago for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and awaiting the requisition of their officers.

Before the Consolidated Police.—James Brown was arrested for drunkenness and abusing his family. Sent to prison by Justice Beader. Wm. Frazier, said to be a soldier, but wearing citizen's dress, was found in the streets last Saturday night laboring under an attack of mania a potu. He was arrested, and sent to prison by Justice Beader.

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY.—The anniversary of the battle of New Orleans will be duly celebrated next Wednesday evening by the Hope Fire Company of our city, who give their annual citizens dress ball on the occasion, in Brant's City Hall. The character of the previous annual Terpsichorean entertainments given under the auspices of the company, as well as the names of the managers who make the arrangements on this occasion is a sure guarantee that the "Hop" of 1862 will be no discredit to the brilliant ones which have preceded it. Long life, good music, nimble feet and unimpaired digestion to all partakers in the hospitality of the boys!

RUMORED DEATH OF LIEUT. COL. SIPES.—A rumor prevailed in the city this morning that Lieut. Col. Wm. B. Sipes, of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, (Col. Wynkoop,) died in Philadelphia yesterday, of typhoid fever. Lieut. Col. Sipes was, for several years, connected with the press of this city, and was publisher of the State Sentinel at the commencement of the rebellion, when he disposed of that establishment, and was elected Captain of the "State Capital Guards" of this city, with whom he served faithfully in the three months' campaign. Immediately upon his return to this city, he commenced recruiting for the cavalry regiment, of which he was Lieut. Colonel at the time of his rumored death.

REDUCTION OF RENTS.—We understand that several of our landlords, in consequence of the "pressure of the times" have consented to a reduction of their rents. This is highly creditable. We think it is the duty of landlords to do the best they can under the circumstances, during the present year and when this now distracted country is again in a prosperous condition, they can raise them again. Many of the families of our brave volunteers, who are fighting for our country's good, find themselves unable to pay very high rents, and as the prices of the common necessities of life are high and promises to be yet still higher, it is incumbent on all to do something towards aiding in crushing down this rebellion—and landlords can do much in this way. Who else will follow in this good movement?

GOOD SUGGESTIONS.—We deem it important at this time to publish a number of suggestions in regard to the prevention of fires, which we commend to the attention of housekeepers, tradesmen, manufacturers and others. They are as follows: Keep matches in metal boxes, and out of the reach of children. Wax matches are particularly dangerous, and should be kept out of the way of rats or mice. Be careful in making fires with shavings and other light kindling. Do not deposit coal or wood ashes in a wooden vessel, and be sure burning cinders are extinguished before they are deposited. Never put fire-wood upon the stove to dry. Never place ashes or a light under a stair-case. Fill fluid or camphene lamps only by daylight, and never near a fire or light. Do not leave a candle burning upon the steps of a stairway. Never leave a candle burning on a bureau on a chest. Always be cautious in extinguishing matches and other lighters before throwing them away. Never throw a cigar stump upon the floor or into a spit-box containing saw-dust or trash, without being certain that it retains no fire. After blowing out a candle, never put it away on a shelf or anywhere else, until sure that the snuff has gone entirely out. A lighted candle ought not to be stuck up against a frame wall, or placed upon any portion of the wood work in a stable, manufactory, shop, or other place. Never enter a barn or a stable at night, with an uncovered light. Ostlers should never smoke pipes about stables. Never take an open light to examine a gas meter. Do not put gas or other lights, near curtains. Never take a light into a closet. Do not read in bed either by candle or lamp light. Place glass shades over gas lights in show windows, and do not crowd goods too close to them. No smoking should ever be permitted in ware-houses, especially where goods are packed or gotten stored. The principal register of a furnace should always be fastened open. Stovepipes should be at least four inches from wood-work, and well guarded by tin. Rags ought never to be stuffed into stove-pipe holes. Opening in chimney-flues for stove-pipes which are not used, ought always to be securely protected by metallic coverings. Never close up a place of business in the evening without looking well to the extinguishing of lights and the proper security of the fires. When retiring to bed at night, always see that there is no danger from your fires, and be sure that the lights are safe. This is the season of the year when fires are indispensable everywhere, and when the short days and long nights render it necessary to burn lights for many hours. The above suggestions if carefully followed, may be the means of preventing numerous fires, and thereby saving thousands of dollars' worth of property, as well as preserving many valuable lives.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.
"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Philadelphia, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city for the Golden Pills, and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they might refer any lady to her, as she should consider it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into convulsions, and almost blind, and had been obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—"We were particular in buying this medicine, and explicit directions accompanied each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by G. A. BARNARD, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. REEDER, 61 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. For sending certificates to the proprietors, Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country, "free of postage."

NOTICE.—J. C. Young, Prothonotary, gives notice that the account of the assignees of Jno. Wallower & Son, have filed their account.

GROTTO MUSIC HALL.—Crowded houses are the order of the night here, and the management have been responsible for the loss of illimitable quantities of buttons; while some hundreds of heads have been partially turned by the melodies, and their owners gone away singing odd mixtures of fun and music. The programme for the coming week is correspondingly excellent.

THE EUROPEAN RESTAURANT is now open for the season, and will be the grand "centre of attraction" to all who want a capital dinner, a comfortable breakfast and hearty supper. During the last summer the establishment has been completely renovated, rendering it one of the most beautiful and agreeable saloons in this city. The cuisine is under the immediate superintendence of a bona fide Frenchman, who of course will prepare the edibles in that recherche style for which the natives of "the grand nation" are so famous.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—The grand opening of this beautiful and popular place of amusement is "booked" for to-morrow night. The programme for the occasion, of course, is something extra, embracing in fact, such a variety of fun, that the only wonder is how anybody with a quarter can stay away. Among the attractions are the re-appearance of the exquisite tenor Mr. Carross, and the first appearance of the lovely danes Miss Julia Sanford, who has been styled the "Empress of motive poetry;" and most certainly if the possession of a beautiful person, captivating manners, together with skillful and graceful dancing may give title to that distinction, it has not in her case been misapplied, for she possesses all of these attractions in a remarkable degree.

"Winter has come with its cold chilling blasts. Now is the time to remember the poor." The stern breath of winter has now fully come, and while some of us are in the enjoyment of all the comforts that money will purchase, we should not forget that many of our brothers and sisters in the flesh are not so well provided for. What a pleasure then for those of us who have means to assist them, that they have been less fortunate. To those disposed to contribute in gifts of dry goods, the cheap store of Ulrich & Bowman offer more than ordinary inducements, corner Front and Market streets.

TO THE YOUNG MEN OF PENNA.
HAVING been authorized to recruit a Regiment for the Volunteer service of Pennsylvania we have concluded to make it a regiment of "Sharpshooters"—to whom recruits from the State at large. We want TEN good able bodied young men from each county, so as to have every portion of the State fully and equitably represented.
These desirous of serving their country, of fighting under the old American flag, of doing substantial service, and of earning good money, will be pleased to receive from us the following particulars: We intend to make this a "CRACK REGIMENT" if possible the best in the service of our noble Commonwealth. Good substantial uniforms will be furnished as soon as the men reach Camp, and a sworn into the service. The Regiment will be armed with SPIES or KENTUCKY PISTOLS with SABER BAYONETS. Those desiring to enlist, as positively only TEN will be taken from each county in the State, had better report immediately, any time after the 20th of December to W. W. Brown, Harrisburg, Pa. Any or all communications from distant counties will be answered promptly and confidentially.
W. W. BROWN, Captain.
P. S.—All papers favorable to the cause will please copy.
