Whereupon, on motion of Mr. LAWRENCE, the Senate proceeded to the election of a Speaker; the Clerks acting as tellers.

The ballot resulted as follows :

Messrs. Bensou, Boughter, Bound, Connell, Crawford, Fuller, Hamilton, Hiestand, Johnson, Ketcham, Landon, Lawrence, Lowry, M Clure, Meredith, Nichols, Penney, Robinson, Serrill, Smith, (Philadelphia,) and Wharton-21-voted for Lewis W. HALL.

Messrs. Clymer, Donovan, Glats, Hall, Kin-zey, Lamberton, Reilly, Smith, (Montgomery,) and Stine-9-voted for Erasmus D. Craw-FORD.

The Clerks announced, having agreed in their tallies, and declared Lawrs W. HALL to be duly elected Speaker of the Senate.

The SPEAKER elect was then conducted to the chair by Mr. CRAWFORD, and addressed the enate, as follows :

SENATORS :--- I thank you for the kind partiality which has raised me to the dignity of your presiding officer. I accept the honor with diffilence in my ability to fulfil your expectations.

National life is upon us. Events of vast impor-tance in quick succession cluster fast, decisive, perhaps of our destiny, perhaps of the destiny of mankind. For let this government be over-thrown from within itself, and who can say, but The bill provides that if any officer detains such persons, he shall be discharged from the service. the future, by the people of the world, as a failure. The present session will doubtless be one of great importance. Whatever public affairs may lemand our attention, (it is needless for me to surmise what they may be) it becomes us to lift ourselves above all personal and party interests and to act in that grave, dispassionate and dig-nified manner, which should ever characterize a legislative body. From my knowledge of the Senate, I confidently anticipate that the peculiar duties of my position will be rendered light and easy, by your cordial co-operation in the main-tenance of strict order and the careful observance of parliamentary rules. Again I thank you, Senators, for the honor you have conferred upon me, and doubt not that mutual prudence and patience will enable us to transact the business of the session pleasantly to ourselves and to the welfare our constituents. You will be good enough to indicate a Sena tor to administer the usual oath.

The SPEAKER was requested to select a Sen-ator for the purpose, and designated Mr. CRAW-FORD, who appeared before the Chair, and administered the following oath :

"You most solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm, that you will support the Constitution of the United States; so you stfirm. "You do also affirm that you will support the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania, and that you will perform your duty as Speak-er and member of the Senate with fidelity; so you affirm.'

The recently elected members of the Senate were then severally sworn or affirmed.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. BENSON moved that the Senate proceed to the election of clerk. Agreed to. A ballot was taken with the following result Messrs. Benson, Boughter, Bound, Connell, Fuller, Hamilton, Hiestand, Johnson, Ketchim, Landon, Lawrence, Lowry, McClure, Meredith, Nichols, Penney, Robinson, Serrill, Smith, (Philadelphia;) Wharton; and Hall, Sperker-21 voted for GEORGE W. "That a committee of two be appointed to wait npon the House of Representatives, and inform them that the Senate is organized and ready to proceed to business.'

The resolution was twice read and agreed to. Messrs. BOUND and CLYMER were appointed said committee. Mr. CRAWFORD offered the following resolution : "That a committee of three members be appinted to act in conjunction with a simi-lar committee from the House of Representatives, (if the House shall appoint such a comreballion. Mr. BENSON accordingly modified his motion providing for the election of three additional doorkeepers, instead of four, thus overcoming monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the retiring officers of the General Assembly for 10 days services at the opening of the present session and their usual mileage, including such officers as were paid by resolu-tion or otherwise."

Mr. LAWRENCE explained that the bill was but a mere copy of the formula observed by pieceding sessions.

The bill then passed finally. On motion of Mr. SERRILL the Senate Adjourned

Speaker as follows: GENTLEMEN: I call your attention to the fact of the absence of the Sergeant-at Arms, who is —I hope only temporarily—confined to his home by sickness. ARRESTED FOR SEDUCTION AND MURDER.-Prof. Austin, formerly Principal of Boalsburg Academy, a Minister of the Seceder Church, and latterly a prominent teacher of Common Schools, was on last Sunday arrested at Boalsburg, in this county, by a shrewd detective police officer from the State of Michigan, on the charge of having seduced two females, and finally effect-ing the death of the one, while the other is in a dangerous situation. If the charges be true, which we trust is not the case, and the diabolical means by which he consummated the deeds, he cannot escape from being indicted for perpe-trating an offense which seeks a parallel in the criminal records. We do not now feel inclined to give further details concerning the history of this horrible affair further than to state the fact of his arrest on these charges .- Belleforte, Centre

KING COTTON IN PERU.-The South American news by the Northern Light is calculated to make the Cotton Lords of the C. S. A. feel uncomfortable. The British steamer Callao, at Panama, from Valparaiso, brought up a large quantity of cotton from Peru, consigned to England, with the announcement that a much larger amount is going round Cape Horn. This number of officer's elected last year " The SPEAKER responded in the affirmative. Mr. PENNEY then called the attention of the Senators to the fact that by electing the present contemplated number of assistant doorkeepers, thus threatened with a powerful rival in a new cotton is said to be of superior quality, and no
