HARRISBURG, PA.
Tuesday Afternoon, January 14, 1862.

A STATED MEETING of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at their rooms, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

A STATED MEETING of Washington Lodge No. 1, I. O. of Good Templars, will be held at their hall at 7 1/2 o'clock this evening. Nomination night.

NEGRO RIOT.—A disgraceful riot occurred at the lower end of Third street about ten o'clock last night, between a party of negroes and soldiers from Camp Curtin, in which stones, clubs, pistols and muskets were freely used, to the severe injury of several of the participants. The consolidated police were early upon the ground and succeeded in arresting Louisa Jackson, Annie E. Thomas, Catharine Gorden, Robert Lave, Sally Hall, Robert Humphrey and Wm. Curtis, all of whom in default of bail were committed by Justice Beader to answer. During the affray Police officer Carachiner was shot by a musket, the ball taking effect in his left thigh. One of the negroes, named Ben. Bile, was also shot through both his legs, and had to be carried to his residence.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Manager Sanford is continually bringing forward new productions, and it is not remarkable that success should crown his efforts. Sanford is energetic, and procures each member of his troupe regardless of expense. The Opera House is admirably fitted up, and has every accommodation requisite for a first class place of amusement, and good order prevails. The performers are all celebrated, and are always highly applauded by the pleasure-seeking crowd.—We understand, that Sanford, yielding to the wishes of a number of our leading families, has concluded to give a grand Matinée next Saturday afternoon, for the special benefit of families and children—the latter to be admitted at ten cents.

A FIGHT ABOUT A SKED.—Poor vs. Rich.—To the rich and prosperous Winter has little of the attendant horrors with which its advent is accompanied to the poor and unprovided masses of the city. To the former, it is only a means of employing their money in ministering to their pleasures, and to the latter only an occasion for bewailing the loss of even the necessary comforts of life. While the children of the rich wrapped in furs, enjoy themselves with gaily painted sleds, the gifts of their indulgent parents, the offspring of the poor, often shoeless, are compelled to witness the pleasures they can never hope to enjoy; and so it happens, as in the case of older persons, that they seek to become the champions of their own rights, and wrest by force, what has been denied to them. Thus, a ragged colored boy, who had no sled, yesterday, in Second street, near Meadow Lane, set upon a white boy, and took his sled away from him, in consequence of which, a gentleman, who witnessed the whole transaction, made after the colored boy, and overtaking him near Mulberry street, proceeded to "wax" him with his switch cane, until he cried out lustily, after which he took the sled and restored it to its rightful owner, the aforesaid white boy, who, of course, was highly pleased with the "armed intervention" of his unknown friend.

SNOW.—Weather-wise people wending their way homeward last night, turned an eye heavenward and declared with a wise shake of the head, "snow before morning." Juveniles could not see it in the clear skies and twinkling stars, and turned in with full faith in a fine day's sport upon the ice ponds. But this morning—sure enough!—when we bonned from our beds, we beheld winter's white coat spread over house and street and sidewalk and fleecy flakes still falling silently down. Let it come! say the jubilant youths and merry damsels; we cannot always skate, and a little sleigh ride is good for a change. Aye! let it come; but remember, ye who have plenty and to spare to keep your backs warm and your stomach full, that there are poor little bare feet pattering up and down in the snow this morning, that there bodies, wrapped in tattered rags which shiver with cold, and that there are stomachs which have not been heated by the fire of food in long, long hours. Turn not, lady wrapped in warm furs clad in silks and velvets, heedless from the poor little skinned bare hand extended at your elbow, and its owner's supplications, "please give me a penny, mam?" The mite you'll never miss, while it will send happiness to the hearts of many a poor starvingling. In such times as these it is better to give to a dozen who are under-riding than to turn away one who is suffering, starving. Remember the poor.

THE IDENTIFICATION OF THE DROWNED SOLDIER.—The cavalry soldier who was found drowned in the canal, near Shook's mills, on the 31st of December, and which was noticed in the TELEGRAPH at that time, has since been ascertained to be the body of Thomas Conley, a member of Col. Williams' Cavalry, now in Kentucky, and whose family resides at "Henry Clay Furnace," near Columbia. The Lancaster Express says that private Conley had been at home on a furlough when his regiment left, but a few days after took leave of his family with the intention of joining it. Six weeks elapsed after his leaving home without a word or any tidings being received by his wife in relation to his arrival with his regiment. Mrs. Conley's solicitude and anxiety were naturally very much manifested concerning his fate, as he had promised, when leaving her, to communicate weekly in regard to his welfare and remit his pay when due, for her maintenance—this being the only means of support from which she expected to be maintained during his absence in service. Pending this anxiety her cares and griefs were much increased by one of her children becoming very sick, and she was necessitated to make application to the Relief Board of Columbia for aid until the fate of her husband could be ascertained. This relief, we are assured, was cheerfully afforded by the Relief Board on her application, which was on January 1st, and until after the melancholy fate of her husband was discovered.

THE EXPEDITION AGAINST FORT ROYAL FERRY.—A report of the killed and wounded in a recent expedition by our troops against the rebels at Fort Royal Ferry, South Carolina, made by Brigade Surgeon Geo. S. Kemble, formerly of this city, includes the names of private John Weidenheimer, and Ensign A. Herbert, both of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania regiment, Col. B. C. Christ. Weidenheimer received a gun-shot wound in the right foot, and Herbert a wound in one of his legs by a piece of shell.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.—The alarm of fire at half past nine o'clock last night was occasioned by the appearance of a large volume of smoke issuing from the two story brick building at the corner of Fourth and Market streets, owned by Mr. Geo. S. Kemble. The doors and windows of the building were closed at the time, and when some of them were opened by the firemen in order to apply water, the pent up flames burst forth with a frightful energy, threatening the speedy destruction of the entire building. The apparatus of the firemen, however, were soon brought into action, and by a copious application of water, the flames were shortly overcome.

The first story of the building was devoted to store-rooms, one of which was occupied by Mr. Loeb as a variety store. The fire here seemed to rage with the most violence, while the flames and smoke had that peculiar appearance common to the ignition of turpentine, camphene, fluid or coal oil. His stock of goods were almost totally destroyed; but we learn that his loss is fully insured.

The corner room was occupied by Mr. Kemball as a shoe store. His property was promptly removed without experiencing much damage. Another room on the first floor, fronting on Fourth street, was occupied by Mr. George S. Kemble as a clothing store. A large quantity of made-up clothing was consumed, and that portion not destroyed in this way, was damaged almost irreparably by the water and smoke.

The dwelling part of the house was unoccupied, the former tenant, Lieut. James B. Kemble, U. S. A., having removed with his family to Carlisle. A portion of their furniture, however, still remained in the building, some of which was entirely destroyed, and other portions considerably damaged by the water. The damage done to the building itself, so far as we could observe by a hurried inspection immediately after the fire had been extinguished, was in the destruction of a portion of the flooring, stair-ways and partition walls on the first story, the discoloring and blistering of the paint, the breaking of window sash and the flooding of water generally throughout the entire structure. Mr. Kemble, we believe, had no insurance upon the property, and his loss, therefore, is considerable.

THE ORIGIN OF THE FIRE is a mystery. Some suppose it to have caught from a heater in the cellar, or from a hot air chamber connecting with it; yet we understand that as late as half past eight o'clock the heater was examined by a gentleman connected with one of the stores in the building, and found to be all right, so that it is scarcely probable that within the short space of an hour afterwards, it could have got so hot as to communicate fire to any surrounding inflammable substance. As to the hot air chamber, it would be incapable of communicating fire even under the most heated condition of the heater.

Since writing the above we understand that Edward Loeb, the proprietor of the variety store, was arrested this morning by officer Fleck, charged with setting fire to his establishment with the view to defraud the Insurance company. In default of bail he was committed to prison by Justice Beader.

GEN. ORD'S BRIGADE.—The regimental flags of this gallant Brigade of Pennsylvanians, were today yesterday presented to them, with the inscription "Drainesville, December 20, 1861," upon them. Gen. McColl had the whole division drawn up in line. Speaker Grow was introduced by Gen. W. H. Keim, on behalf of the State of Pennsylvania, and he presented each regiment with these flags, and closed by an eloquent address, in which he eulogized the troops for their heroic bravery, though their ranks were thinned out in the late contest. Mourn not for the dead; they sleep in honored graves. Let the tears we drop on their ashes be for the near and dear of the living whose hearts bleed for their loss—citizens, soldiers, the hour draws nigh when the drum will again summon you to the battlefield, there to decide not a question of family or dynastic rule, but whether the will of the majority constitutionally expressed shall be respected as the vital principle of free government.

Man's capacity for self-government is on trial, and if it fail, the last great experiment of elective Constitutional Government among men has been tried. Liberty having her last sigh, may then wing her way back from earth to heaven, and the crushed and down-trodden of the world may bring their chains as the only legacy they can bequeath to their children.

Instead of family or landed aristocracies, it is now the institution of human bondage warring upon vital principles of free government. They have chosen, and will permit no arbiter but the sword. The only arguments, therefore, are cannon balls and battalions. The orators of the hour are before me, and, if I mistake not the signs, they will soon be taught to speak in tones that will teach the enemies of liberty the rights of mankind.

The lessons taught by our fathers and the last great battle of Constitutional freedom, will have been fought and won. In that trying hour you have already proven, by your heroic deeds, that the fame of the old Keystone State, and the memory of her illustrious dead, will receive no dishonor at your hands.

Take your banner. May it wave proudly o'er the good and brave, When the battle's distant wall Breaks the Sabbath of our vale; When the clarion's music thrills To the heart of these low hills; When the spear in conflict shaks, And the strong lance, shivering, breaks.

General McColl then invited the speaker and a number of others to his quarters, where a sumptuous repast was set out.

All should read Prof. Wood's advertisement in another column.

THE "FAKIR OF AVA" will open Brant's Hall next Thursday night for a series of entertainments in the "prestidigitating" business. The Fakir's performances are highly spoken of by the press, and we have no doubt he will draw crowded houses.

GROTTO MUSIO HALL.—The ball still goes on at this prosperous establishment, and Mat. Gebler, Ole Bull Myers, and all the other "irrepressibles," continue to let out new flukes of musical drollery and laughter nightly.

REMARKABLE SAGACITY OF A DOG.—A gentleman of our acquaintance was advised a few days since to purchase a beautiful dog of the Newfoundland species. The seller told surprising instances of the dogs intelligence, and descended largely on his qualities generally, and stated he could be sent on any mission with confidence. To test the dog's qualities, the gentleman wrote an order and enclosed five dollars, directed to the cheap dry good store, enveloped and placed in the dogs mouth, and he immediately delivered it at Ulrich & Bowman's, corner Front and Market streets.

"Perhaps the owner had been at the store with the dog previous."

NEW GOODS, NEW GOODS.—25 pieces of beautiful DeLaines, black ground with set flower, at 25cts., with 37cts. 50 pieces of white, yellow and red flannels, all prices. BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM CAIRO.
More Troops Moving into Kentucky.
Fifty Rebel Prisoners Taken.
REPORTED FIRING HEARD AT COLUMBUS, MO.
Chicago, Jan. 13.

A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Cairo—says that two more columns will be moved into Kentucky to-morrow. All the transports here have chartered for that purpose. I am assured from the best authority that troops on their way here from St. Louis will arrive to-night or to-morrow. Fifty prisoners taken by Gen. Paine were brought to Bird's Point to day, among whom is Col. Bird, from whom that place derived its name. Positive evidence exists that he has contributed thirty-five thousand dollars in aid of the rebellion; that he voluntarily sent his slaves to work on fortifications. A nephew of Gen. Polk was arrested yesterday near Blandville, Ky., by one of our scouting parties. He had despatches in his possession to spies at Columbus. Reconnoissances made in the direction of Columbus from Fort Jefferson, yesterday went three miles beyond Elliott's mills and drove in rebel pickets. At the same time the gunboats Essex and St. Louis went down the river to lower Columbus. At the time the messenger left heavy firing was heard in that direction.

FROM KENTUCKY.
Retreat of Marshall's Forces Confirmed.
The Rebels Whipped in a Skirmish.
Louisville, Jan. 13, 1862.

A letter from Catlingburg dated the 11th, to the Democrat, says:—On the 7th, on Jennie creek, three miles west of Paintville, a skirmish took place between a part of the Second Virginia (U. S.) cavalry, under Col. Bowles, and a portion of Humphry Marshall's forces under Gen. Shaw. The rebels lost six killed, and fourteen wounded, and seven prisoners, while the federal loss was two killed and one wounded. Before Col. Bowles made the attack, Humphry Marshall addressed his men, advising the surrender of the whole force. The rebels refused to submit to this disgrace, saying they preferred to fight, than such a cowardly course. After the skirmish, Marshall's whole force fled, and three hundred picked Federal infantry and nine hundred cavalry pursued them with the expectation of overtaking them and occupying Prestonsburg on the 10th. All is quiet down the road. A delegation of ladies from Gibson county, Indiana, to-day presented a stand of colors, at the Louisville Hotel, to the Fifty-eighth Indiana regiment, encamped on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. A letter dated Dec. 27th, from Charleston, S. C., has been received here from Colonel A. Woodruff. He regrets that the Government has not effected his exchange.

FROM OHIO.
Inauguration of Governor Todd.
His Address, &c.
Cleveland, Jan. 14.

Governor Todd was inaugurated at Columbus yesterday. His message is brief. The Governor has confidence in the purity and patriotism of President Lincoln; commends the President's determination to restore the Government former harmony and vigor irrespective of the result upon the domestic institutions in any of the States. He recommends a reduction of salaries of all State officers, except Auditor and Treasurer; a reduction in the per diem compensation to members of the Legislature, and a reduction of the local taxation. The object of these arrangements being to enable Ohio to furnish more money to prosecute the war. He recommends a new system of taxing railroads; a continuance of the tax to support families of volunteers; advises that banks be allowed to suspend specie payment, and finally a thorough organization of the militia of the State.

FROM NEW YORK.
Arrival of Treasure from California.
DISASTER AT SEA.
New York, Jan. 14.

The steamer Champion, from Aspinwall, with the treasure shipped from San Francisco on the 20th ult., is below and will be up about two o'clock.

New York, Jan. 14.—The bark Kenmore, of Pictou, hence for Cork, has been abandoned at sea, a complete wreck and sinking. Her crew was brought here by the bark Lucy Sing.

FROM NEW MEXICO.
TEXAN REBELS REPORTED MARCHING ON FORTS UNION AND WISE.
APPREHENSION OF AN ATTACK ON SANTA FEE.
Kansas City, Jan. 13.

The Santa Fee mail has arrived with dates to December 29th. Two thousand Texan troops are reported marching up the Rio Grande river, for the purpose of attacking Fort Craig, and the same number marching up Pecos river to attack Fort Union. The troops stationed at Ft. Wise have been ordered to New Mexico. Ft. Union is well prepared to receive an attack, but fears are entertained that Fort Craig will be taken, and that the Texans will advance on Santa Fee. Considerable excitement prevails in that place.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Washington, Jan. 13.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.
Sailing of Troops for Burnside's Expedition.
Fortress Monroe, Jan. 13.

The transports Louisiana and New Brunswick with the remaining troops for the Burnside expedition, left last night. A few tug boats are still here, said to be part of the expedition. The barge John Trucks with Dr Espinal's Zouaves, which went ashore on the passage from Annapolis, has arrived, and is still here. The propeller Matanzas from Port Royal has arrived. The Spaulding sailed for Hatteras, Port Royal last evening. Com. Goldsborough was a passenger in the Pensacola which arrived here this afternoon.

FROM FREDERICK.
Hancock again shelled by the Rebels.
Frederick, Jan. 14.

It is reported, but not authentically, that the rebels, under Gen. Jackson, threw several shells into our lines at Hancock, yesterday.

XXXVIIth Congress—First Session.
Washington, Jan. 14.

IN SENATE.

Several petitions for the emancipation of slaves were presented.

Mr. Cowan, (Pennsylvania,) presented the petition of George W. Harris, asking the aid of Congress to enable him to publish the proceedings of the Senate of the first Congress from a Journal which had been kept by Senator McLane, of Pennsylvania. Referred.

Mr. Cowan offered a resolution making an appropriation of three thousand dollars for one thousand copies of the above work. Referred.

Mr. Foster, (Conn.), introduced a bill to allow the President to accept the service of certain persons in the army without pay. Referred.

A communication was received from the President, transmitting a copy of the instructions sent to the Minister to Austria. Referred.

Mr. Powell's resolution was taken up asking the Secretary of War to answer a previous resolution in regard to contracts, &c.

Mr. Cowan hoped the resolution would not pass. He was opposed to calling for general reports from the departments, though willing to have any details called for, if there was any thing of a suspicious character detected.

Mr. Powell contended that he wanted the people to know the truth respecting these contracts.

Mr. Wilson, (Mass.) did not believe the Department could give this information. For months there was not an act of that Department. He was not willing they should see light, but it would be a physical impossibility to answer the resolution.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House resumed the consideration of the bill to abolish the franking privilege, it having been postponed on Thursday last till to-day.

Mr. Porter, (Ind.), advocated the bill and expressed a hope that Congress would distinguish itself by reforming abuses and making the recipients pay the postage on documents instead of the public at large.

Several other gentlemen expressed their views upon the subject.

UNION RESTAURANT,
BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOON.
NO. 119 MARKET STREET, NEAR FIFTH.
THE subscribers having erected a large building at the above place, expressly for the purpose above indicated, beg to call the attention of the public to the following:
The RESTAURANT, on the first floor, with a dining room attached, is fitted up in first-class style, and it will at all times be supplied with the best OYSTERS to be had in the Atlantic cities, together with terrapin, fish, and all kinds of game in season. Oysters served up in every style, and meals to be had at all hours. The Ale of all the celebrated breweries in the country constantly on hand.
The Ten-pin Alley, or Bowling Saloon, is in the rear, and contains three alleys of modern construction, where the lovers of this healthy exercise can enjoy themselves. The Billiard Saloon is on the stairs—elegantly fitted up, and contains three tables of top or mahogany cushion tables, equal to any made.
Harrisburg has long felt the want of a good combination of this kind, and as the proprietors are determined to conduct it in a quiet and orderly manner, and do everything in their power to make it a fashionable resort, they hope to receive a liberal share of public patronage.
