Peunsylvania Daily Telegraph, Wednesday Morning, January 15, 1862

THE "FARLE OF AVA " will open Brant's Hall next Thursday night for a series of entertaioments in the "prestidigitating " business. The Fakir's performances are highly spoken of by the press, and we have no doubt he will draw crowded houses.

Bior.-A disgraceful riot occurred at the lower end of Third street about 10 o'clock Monday ident, between a party of negroes and solday many, comp Curtin, in which stones, clubs, pistols and muskets were freely used, to the severe injury of several of the participants. The consolidated police were early upon the ground and succeeded in arresting Louisa Jacken. Annie E. Thomas, Catharine Gooden, Robert Lane, Sally Holl, Robert Humphrys and Wm. Curtis, all of whon in default of bail were committed by Justice Beader to answer. During the affray Police officer Carachiner was shor by a musket, the ball taking effect in his left thigh. One of the negroes, named Ben. Blue, was also shot through both his legs, and had to be carried to his residence.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.-Manager Sanford is continually bringing forward new productions, and it is not remarkable that success should crown his efforts. Sanford is energetic. and procures each member of his troups regardless of expense. The Opera House is admirably fitted up, and has every accommodation requisite for a first class place of amusement, and good order prevails. The performers are all celebrated, and are always highly applauded by the pleasure-seeking crowd.-We understand, that Sanford, yielding to the wishes of a number of our leading families, has concluded to give a grand Matinee next Saturday afternoon, for the especial benefit of families and children-the latter to be admitted at ten cents.

A FIGHT ABOUT A SLED .- Poor VS. Rich .- To the rich and prosperous Winter has little of the attendant horrors with which its advent is accompanied to the poor and unprovided masses of the city. To the former, it is only a means of employing their money in ministering to their pleasures, and to the latter only an occasion for bewailing the loss of even the necessary comforts of life. While the children of the rich wrapped in furs, enjoy themselves with gaily painted sleds, the gifts of their indulgent parents, the offsprings of the poor, often shoe less, are compelled to witness the pleasures they can never hope to enjoy; and so it happens, as in the case of older persons, that they seek to become the champions of their own rights, and wrest by force, what has been denied to them. Thus, a ragged colored boy, who had no sled, yesterday, in Second street, near Meadow Lane, set upon a white boy, and took his sled away from him, in conseouence of which, a gentleman, who witnessed the whole transaction, made after the colored boy, and overtaking him near Mulberry street, proceeded to "wax" him with his switch cane. antil he cried out lustily, after which he took the sled and restored it to its rightful owner, the aforesaid white boy, who, of course, was highly pleased with the "armed intervention" of his unknown friend.

Snow .-- Weather-wise people wending their lishment with the view to defraud the Insuway homeward last night, turned an eye heavenward and declared with a wise shake of the rance company. THE EXPEDITION AGAINST PORT ROYAL FERRY. -A report of the balled and wounded in a recent expedition by our troops against the rebels at Port Boyal Ferry, South Carolina, made by Brigade Surgeon Geo. S. Kemble, formerly of this city, includes the names of private John Weidenheimer, and Ensign A. Herbert, both of the Fitteenth Pennsylvania regiment, Col. B. C. Christ. Weidenheimer received a gun shot wound in the right foot, and Herbert a wound in one of his legs by a piece of shell.

FIRE LAST NIGHT -The alarm of fire at -half past nine o'clock Monday night was occasioned by the appearance of a large volume of smoke issuing from the two story brick building at the corner of Fourth and Market streets, owned by Mr. Geo. 8 Remble The doors and windows of the building were closed at the time, and when some of them were opened by the firemen in order to apply water, the peat up flames burst forth with a frightful energy, threatening the speedy destruction of the entire building. The apparatus of the firemen, however, were soon brought into action, and by s copious application of water, the flames were hortiv overcome.

The first story of the building was devoted to store-rooms, one of which was occupied by Mr. Loeb as a variety store. The fire here seemed to rage with the most violance, while seemed to rage with the most whence, where the flames and smoke had that poullar appear-ance common to the ignition of the provide camphene, fluid or coal oil. Here the back were almost totally destroyed , but we learn that his löss is fully insured.

The corner room was occupied by Mr. Kemball as a slice store. His property was promptly removed without experiencing much damage.

Another room on the first mor, fronting on Fourth street, was occupied by Mr. George S. Kemble as a clothing store. A line quantity of made-up clothing was consumed, and that portion not destroyed in this way, was damaged almost irreparably by the water and smoke. The dwelling part of the lighte was unoccu ed, the former teaunt, Lieut. Juges B. Kem-ble, U. S. A., having removed which his family to Carlisle. A portion of their furtiture, how-
