Lecture on Lincoln.

NO. 10.

The annual message of John Letcher, Gov ernor of Virginia, delivered to the legislature of that State on the 6th instant, after abusing Secretary Cameron for his proposition to use the contrabands in army service, recites the rebel indictment against the President in this amusing style: "The history of Abraham Lincoln is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having for their object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these" Confederate To this end "he has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power." He has combined with Pierpont and other traitors in Virginia "to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws, giving assent to their acts of pretended legislation."

He is endeavoring to quarter "large bodies of armed troops amongst us."

He is endeavoring to cut off "our trade with all parts of the world." He is endeavoring to impose "taxes upon ns oasts, burned our towns and destroyed the lives of our people." "He is at this time transporting large bodies of mercenaries to complete the work of death, desolation and tyranny already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleted in the most barbarous ages, and totally
