DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death pute a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whence so traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing by the unskillulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poston, mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miscrable.

Secession, shot-guns in hand, hiding in the brush, saw the cortege, and supposing it a Federal wagon train, poorly guarded, and hence an easy as well as a legitimate prize. Reasoning thus, Secession walked from the brush, presented its shot gun and demanded a surrender — which demand was instantly met by fifty men rising from the wagons, pre-senting a row of glittering muskets, and re-questing a similar tayor of astonished and now mortified Secession. Secession generally com-plied, and worked off its ill-humor by cursing such "mean Yankee" tricks, unknown to al honorable warfare and unworthy all chivalrous hearts. In this way many a petulent rebel was confounded, and in two cases, where fight was preferred rather than surrender, the sons of chivalry were made to bite the dust.

ONCLUSION OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

Washington, Jan. 16. IN SENATE.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the bill in relation to the arrest of persons claimed to be held to service or labor by officers of the military or naval service of the United States was taken up. The bill provides that any officer arresting such person, be discharged from the service. Mr. Collager, (Vt.) offered an amendment

Mr. Saulsberry, (Del.,) offered an amendment as a new section: Nor shall any soldier or officer under like penalty, any way entice, decoy or retain any such person from his master or owner. He said he thought that the officer or soldier of the United States ought to have nothing to do with the question at all, Mr. Rice, (Minn.,) moved to add after the words "master or owner," the words "who may be a loyal citizen of the States." Agreed to. Mr. Wilson opposed the amendment. He said he was opposed to any kind of justification of slavery; what he wanted was to prevent the present officers from returning slaves, some officers had already disgraced the service in that way and God willing, if he (Wilson) had the power, he meant to prevent their confirmation

The morning hour having expired, the unfinished business of yesterday came up, being the contested seat of the Senator from Kausas. The question being on the resolution of Mr CLARK to strike out the word "not" resolution of the Committee on the Judiciary, that Mr. Lane be "not" entitled to a seat.

Mr. McDougal, (Cal.,) opposed the amendment and contended that the President had authority, under the power to suppress insur-rection, to appoint Mr. Lane a Brigadier. He thought the Senator from Kansas was attempting to exercise military and legislative power at the same time, and in fact had no right to his seat in the Senate. Mr. Lane (Kansas) said he had refused to ac cept the office on the 22d of July. He referred to the contest in Kansas, with Mr. Stanton, for was elected, the Governor whom he had overthrown, and the contestant whom he had beaten, declared his seat vacant. Mr. WRIGHT, (Ind.,) thought the question was purely a legal one. The Presiden having appointed him to an office which was not creation. ted, the Senator from Kansas could not accept it and therefore did not vacate his seat in the Senate. The discussion was continued by Messrs. Lane, Stanton, Clark and Foster.

The vote being taken on Mr. Clark's motion to strike out the word "not," it was agreed to:

tion be taken up to-morrow at one o'clock. The Committee on Ways and Means, in the More Rebel Testimony as to the Blockade.-Rebel testimony to the rigorous efficiency of the blockade of the Southern coast accumulates constantly. The latest is from the Memphis preat, of the 3d instant. "the risk of running the blockade at present is too great, and comparatively but few are willing to encounter the losses that are so apt to follow the experiment." It is understood that the rebel authorities have gone to the trouble to prepare a formidable schedule of skiffs, shallops and scows claimed to have eva-ded the vigilance of our cruisers, which they intend laying on the tables of the members of the French and English Parliaments against their approaching session, in the hope of persuading those Governments to raise the block-ade. If evidence is to be offered on this score, it will not be very hard to offset the fraudulent list by an accumulated series of testimonials as to its efficiency from the Southern journals themselves—testimonials reluctantly wrung from those who have the best means of knowing its extraordinary rigor.
