THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE LARGE PREMIUMS

TO OUR FRIENDS.

HIGHERTO, we have never offered any one a premium for helping to extend the circulation of Jrs Tribune. We have printed the cheapest newspaper, considering the outlay by which it is produced, that was ever issued in any country, selling it for little more than the cost of the white paper; have employed no agents to canvass for subscribers, and have allowed no compensation (beyond a copy of our paper) to any of the thousands of generous friends who have annually taxen care that the number of copis s of our several issues circulated in their respective neighborhoods should be at least maintained and if possible increased. We have been sparing even of verbal thanks to these friends, but have none the less realized the fullness of our obligation for their carnest, unseffish, painstaking, persistent efforts.

We propose for the present season only—in view of the hardness of the times, and the fact that we are enabled to buy white paper somewhat che-per than we have hitherto done, or can hope to do after the close of the War—to make some small acknowledgment—not see much a recomt ense as a slight testimonial—to those friends who shall see fit to exert themselves to obtain subscriptions (whether original or renswals) to our Weekiy and Semi-Weekiy editions. We do not know that we could offer anything of similar value more generally acceptable and useful than a Gold Pen of the best quality and finish. We propose, therefore, to forward to each person who, during the two months enauing, shall send us subscriptions and payments for Tes Tribune.
