THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE LARGE PREMIUMS TO OUR FRIENDS.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

ITHERTO, we have never offered any one a premium for helping to extend the circulation of The Tribune. We have printed the cheapest newspaper, considering the outlay by which it is produced, that was ever issued in any country, selling it for little more than the cost of the white paper; have employed no agents to canvass for subscribers, and have allowed no expensation (beyond a copy of our paper) to any of the thousands of generous friends who have annually taxen care that the number of copies of our several issues circulated in their respective neighborhoods should be at least maintained and if possible increased. We have been sparing even of verbal thanks to these irlends, but have none the less realized the fullness of our obligation for their earnest, unsetfish, painstaking, persistent efforts.

We propose for the present season only—in view of the hardness of the times, and the fact that we are enabled to buy white paper somewhat cheaper than we have hitherto done, or can hope to do after the close of the War—to make some small acknowledgment—not so much a recompense as a slight testimonial—to those friends who shall see fit to exert themselves to obtain subscriptions (whether original or renewals) to our Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions. We do not know that we could offer anything of similar value more generally acceptations, when the country and dinish. battle will be acknowledged and rewarded in a fitting manner. The courage that encountered and vanquished the greatly superior number of the traitor force, pursued and attacked them in their en trenchments, and paused not until the enemy was completely routed, merits and receives commendation. The purpose of this war is to attack, pursue and destroy the rebellious enemy, and to deliver the country from the danger menaced by traitor. Alacrity, daring, courageous spirit, and patriotic zeal on all occasions, and under every circumstance are expected from the armylof the United States,

Mr. BAYARD withdrew the amendment. Mr. HARRIS offered an amendment that, in law, shall not be so construed as to require izing the President to take possession of certain railroads and telegraph lines. Referred. The case of Senator Bright was then taken

Mr. Davis, (Ky.,) said in regard to the Senator from Indiana, if he understood his course, he had always opposed any measure to coerce the rebellious States and bring back peace to the Union. If the President had pursued such a course and refused to do anything to reduce rebellion he would have been liable to im-peachment, and shall a Senator pursue the same course and not be liable to expulsion. He (Mr. Davis) depicted the rebellion as a stupendous wickedness, and would give the President every power to crush it out forever. Suppose the whole Government had taken the same course as the Senator from Indiana. The Union would have been in ruins to-day, and the experiment of self government destroyed. He did not understand that the Senator from
