OUR PLATFORM THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

THE UNITED STATES LAWS ARE PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY IN THE PENNSYLVANIA DAILY TELEGRAPH.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Afternoon, January 25, 1862.

ANOTHER GRAB AT THE FUNDS.

The merchants and bankers of New York city have been laboring ever since the establishment of a mint, to control its coinage and transfer its business to that city.

We sincerely trust that Congress will rebuke this bullying disposition of the people of New York to take advantage of the wants of the nation by imposing new burdens on its government.

SERVICES RENDERED.

The Daily States Journal, the home organ of President Lincoln, says that as Gen. Cameron has now gone out of office, it must not be forgotten that the nation owes him a debt of gratitude for what he has done.

HUGH YOUNG, of the Triega Agitator, an able organ of Republicanism in the north of the state, has been appointed Consul to Santa Cruz, Danish West Indies.

WE HAVE HEARD OF MEN reading their own obituaries in the papers and finding themselves credited with virtues, the existence of which they never suspected.

DEFERRED.—The widow of the late Col. Sam Colt is still further afflicted, in the loss of an infant daughter, who died on Monday morning, of diphtheria.

STRANGE ARGUMENT.

There is a certain class of men in the loyal and also in the rebel states, who are honestly attached to the Union, and sincerely in favor of putting down the rebellion...

THE DISPOSITION to listen to this kind of argument, and the desire to cater to a certain class of men in the south, who are loyal, not so much because they respect the federal authority...

STURTEVANT, Ohio, Jan. 22, 1862. DAN L. MCCOOK: Robert is painfully, but not dangerously wounded. Don't start West.

THE LATEST AND BARRETT TRICK to defraud the United States Treasury, is that stated by the Washington correspondents to have been recently discovered by a regiment, who had his son—who knew little more about money than a jackass—appointed to a place in the regimental band, drawing a lieutenant's pay...

OFFICERS OF THE NAVY.—It appears from a communication from the Secretary of the Navy, addressed to the Senate, in answer to a resolution calling for information relative to acting lieutenants, masters, master's mates, paymasters, and acting assistant paymasters...

ILLINOIS COFFEE.—Mr Geo. R. Hoffman, of Elmhurst, Ill., last year raised two bushels of coffee, nearly identical with the Rio coffee. His seed was sent to him three years ago from Australia.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS

HOW SOLDIERS GET LIQUOR.—Some days ago a common trunk was placed on board of a Government line steamer at Baltimore and during the trip down to Fortress Monroe...

HARD TIMES IN THE WEST.—A correspondent at Glenwood, Mills county, Iowa, writes as follows under date of January 10. While the country generally is suffering from hard times, we of Western Iowa are by no means exempt.

COULD HAVE TAKEN CHARLESTON.—Captain Sprague, of Sandusky City, is among the prisoners exchanged recently. He was captured in Charleston at the time of the Port Royal victory, and says: We learned from the Irish guards of the approach of General Sherman...

THE McCOOK "FIGHTING FAN" is a small son of Hon. Daniel McCook, and the fourth son of the Third Brigade of General Thomas' division of the army of Kentucky...

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25. Flour is rather dull, but without change in price; sales of 2,000 bbls. at $5 25 for superfine; $5 62 1/2 for extra, and $5 67 1/2 for 00 for extra family; receipts small.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. Flour quiet, sales of 4,500 barrels. State brands are unchanged. Wheat and corn quiet, sales unimportant. Beef steady. Pork firm.

A Sketch of Cairo.

One of the numerous correspondents gathered at Cairo, Illinois, in view of an advance from that point, writes: You have heard of the modern Cairo, (pronounced Kairo,) of the subterranean situation on the delta between the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers; but not the most graphic power for descriptive narrative can give a faithful picture.

might have been heightened if he had seen Cairo! But to go on with the picture: there are sheds, shanties, stables, pig-sties, wood piles, and carts, wagons, barrels, boxes—the debris of everything, thrown over the area.

THE TARIFF.—The business community are considerably alarmed at the idea that Congress is to make a great and serious change in the present tariff.

BIBLES.—It has been computed that the whole number of copies of the Scriptures in existence in the Christian world at the close of the last century did not exceed four millions.

RAPIDITY EVERYWHERE.—The Canadian military authorities at Montreal advertised for two thousand bedsteads for troops arriving, whereupon some speculators bought up all the iron in the market suitable for the purpose, and held it for a large advance.

THE new Napoleons struck at the Paris mint show the imperial brow encircled with a laurel wreath, in token of the Emperor's victory at Waterloo.

THE corners of New York hold about twenty-five hundred inquests annually, and the average cost of each inquest is about $3.

COL. ASTOR, who resigned his position on General McClellan's staff, has withdrawn his resignation.

THIRTY per cent. upon the State tax has been appropriated to aid the families of Mississippi rebel volunteers.
