

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Afternoon, January 28, 1862.

THE REMAINS OF JOHN CARSON GRATZ, a member of Col. Calk's regiment, whose death at "Camp Northumberland," near Washington city, was noticed in last evening's Telegraph, will arrive here some time to night in charge of his brother. The funeral will take place from the residence of his grandfather, Mr. Charles C. Carson, in Second street above Locust, at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

THE DRAWING OF JURORS.—In the House, on Friday, a bill was read to permit the drawing of jurors in the presence of a single judge, and the sheriff or his deputy. It proposes to repeal so much of the law known as the Randall law, which requires a list of the names, residences and occupations of jurors in all the courts, and proposes that it shall be necessary to file such list with the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court.

A BIG HATE.—The names of about one hundred and sixty property-holders and tenants were returned to the Mayor's office yesterday charged with violating the city ordinance requiring them to clear the snow from their pavement within twenty-four hours after its fall. Sums' were served upon quite a number of the delinquents to-day, who we presume will be heard before his honor the Mayor this evening, and the remainder will be similarly summoned in due course.

THE HIGHWAY ROBBERY CASE.—More Arrests.—Officer Campbell yesterday succeeded in arresting four more soldiers at Camp Curtin, charged with being connected with the highway robbery in the Harrisburg bridge night before last, noticed in last evening's Telegraph. This makes seven who have been arrested on the charge, and is believed to be all who were engaged in the transaction. Their names are as follows: Jno. Bowermaster, Wm. Bowermaster, Amos Jackson, Jno. P. Moore, Jno. Schuyler, Robert Smith and Schenbriest. They have all been committed to answer. The name of the man who was assaulted and robbed, is Charles Gray, a resident of Luzerne county, and not Williamsport, as erroneously stated in last evening's Telegraph.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—Washington Lodge No. 1, I. O. of Good Templars, will celebrate their ninth anniversary, at their hall, Sons of Temperance building, Second Street, this evening. The committee entrusted with making the arrangements, has performed that duty faithfully, and left nothing undone that will add to the comfort and pleasure of those who may be present on the occasion. A handsome collation will be served, congratulatory speeches made, temperance ode sang, innocent sports and amusements indulged in, all combining to afford the participants any amount of enjoyment, and a good social time generally. We are pleased to learn that this order continues to be in a flourishing condition in our city, and that notwithstanding the time and attention of our country is principally absorbed by the great rebellion, both "Washington" and its sister lodge "Advance," are almost weekly adding new names to their rolls of membership.

THE THREE HUNDRED-DOLLAR LAW.—A bill was read in the Legislature on Friday by Mr. Greenbank, relative to the three hundred-dollar exemption law. It provides that the provisions of that act exempting property from levy and sale, on execution and distress for rent, shall not be construed or held to exempt the specific property, goods or chattles which the plaintiff, in such execution, may have sold to the defendant therein, when such execution is issued to recover the unpaid price or purchase money of such property. The same gentleman read the following bill relative to set-off:—"In all cases where a party has a claim or debt against another, who likewise has a claim or debt against him, both, or either of them, may set off the claim or debt sufficiently moved against the other from whatever cause or right the mutual debt or claim, on either side, has arisen in law or equity."

A CHASE AND CAPTURE.—Various complaints having been made at the Mayor's office of the noisy and boisterous conduct of a party of young men who for some time back have been in the habit of congregating at a house of ill repute in Tanner's alley, officer Campbell last evening was dispatched to that quarter to regulate matters. Upon arriving at the designated spot, he found everything all quiet, and thinking perhaps that he had arrived too early, he concealed himself in an adjoining grave-yard and there quietly awaited events. He did not remain long in this position, until he heard the approach of three young men, who proceeded to the door of the aforesaid house of ill repute and demanded admittance. This was refused, whereupon the young men became exceedingly indignant, and threatened to demolish the door and mix up the household and kitchen furniture generally, when to their surprise they were "surrounded" by officer Campbell, who toted them off towards the Mayor's office. On their way there, however, one of the party succeeded in making his escape, but the officer held on to the remaining two, and brought them safely to the gate leading to the lock-up, where some delay occurring, and taking advantage of a momentary release of the officer's grip, they also suddenly darted off, one up Walnut to Third and down Third towards Market, and the other out Walnut street in the direction of the river. Of course, immediate chase was given, and the former, after a short run was captured somewhere near Market street by one of the bystanders and brought back to the lock-up, where he was snugly enclosed. The former was pursued by officer Campbell, and after a run of several squares, finally captured in a wagon somewhere near Locust street and River alley, and also brought to the lock-up and secured for the night. This morning the party had a hearing before the Mayor, who being assured that it was their first offence, gave them a severe reprimand, and then discharged them with an injunction to "sin no more."

ARREST OF NEGRO RIOTERS.—A party of negroes, named Thos. Keen, Geo. Butler, Dick Allen and "Ginger," were arrested last night by the Mayor's police, for riotous conduct at a house somewhere in Short street. They lodged all night in the lock-up, and this morning had a hearing before the Mayor, who, after due consideration of their case, recommended them for further hearing.

THE GORRO.—The "hall still goes on" at this cozy little temple of fun, to the great delight of the crowds who nightly flock thither for amusement. Several new performers will make their first appearance before a Harrisburg audience this evening, including an accomplished female singer from Philadelphia, so that we anticipate an extra crowded house.

MORE SNOW.—There was a quite a brisk fall of snow this morning, which continues up to the time of writing this article, with a vivacity that inspires the best possible hopes for jolly, good sleighing. And then—and then— With a good, free steed and a flowing rein, The track will follow fast, Away, away o'er the snowy plain; And our cares to the wind we cast. Care to the win—we'll be merry to-day, For jovial spirits are we; To the chime of the bells we are up and away, And our songs are echoing free.

COASTING.—The juveniles just now have a nice time on the hills "coasting." The last fall of snow and the subsequent sleet and "freezes" put the "coasting" places in excellent condition for the sport. Some of the older ones have also caught the fever, and in a few instances we observed grown up ladies with their "sparks" shooting down the hill with great velocity and uproarious hilarity. Last evening we noticed a gay procession of sleds at the east end of Capital Park, each surmounted by a bright eyed girl, and drawn by a happy young fellow, who would have tugged the sled for hours happy enough, if he occasionally received a glance from his lady-love.

THE SILVER GRAYS.—This company of veterans are still in Camp Curtin. Their roll embraces the number of eighty-three, rank and file, the minimum demanded to warrant the issuing of commissions to the captain and two lieutenants. There is a remarkable fact in connection with this company which is worthy of note, and which cannot be said of any other that has been here as long as it has. The fact to which we allude is this: Notwithstanding the average age of the members is a fraction over fifty-two years, not one has been an occupant of the hospital since the company has been in camp. This is as gratifying as it is true, and must dispel any fears that may be entertained by friends of the Grays resulting from the exaggerated stories which have been circulated in relation to the healthy location of the camp.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Frank Brower's engagement at this establishment promises to be a winning card to the management. His first appearance, last night, was greeted with a crowded audience, composed of the most intelligent and fashionable of our citizens; and the gratification and delight unmitigatedly manifested by them shows how well he succeeded in making them happy, in despite of the dullness and all the depressing influences which are operating upon the community at the present time. Mr. Brower will appear again this evening, and we would advise all who are not yet satisfied that this world, even in time of war, has some very pleasant things in it, to go and enjoy the truly artistic entertainments which are presented nightly at the new Opera House.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—The following bill was called up in the House of Representatives yesterday, by Mr. Freeland, and passed finally: An Act to allow the taxes on a certain island in the Susquehanna river to be paid into the county of Dauphin.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the eleventh section of an act passed the seventh day of March, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and forty, which authorizes the taxes on an island in the river Susquehanna, belonging to Andrew Shuman, and situate in the county of Dauphin, to be paid into the treasury of Perry county, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that the taxes on said island shall hereafter be paid to the collectors of taxes for Upper Paxton township, Dauphin county.

Senator Boughter read the following bill in his place to-day. The subject is of great importance to the tax-payers, and we hope they will take measures to have the same acted on in such a manner as will lessen the enormous sums now paid to the police and magistrates. Mr. Boughter is anxious to consult his constituents on the subject and will act in accordance with their wishes. The Act reads: Supplement to an act, entitled, "An Act to incorporate the city of Harrisburg, in the county of Dauphin, approved March nineteenth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, the duties of Police Magistrate shall be vested in the Mayor of the city aforesaid, who shall have complete jurisdiction in hearing all cases of breaches of the peace, drunkenness, vagrancy and disorderly conduct.

SECTION 2. That from and after the passage of this act, all arrests made for the offences hereinbefore mentioned, shall be heard by the Mayor, who shall determine and decide upon them, and that all persons arrested for the offences hereinbefore mentioned, shall be confined in such place of confinement, or lock-up, until heard, as the Mayor may designate, and all acts conflicting with this supplement, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Mr. Freeland, of the House, this morning read in his place, a bill entitled "An Act to change the place of holding elections in the Second Ward of the city of Harrisburg." The act changes the present place of holding the election in said ward (Herr's Hotel) to the school house at the corner of Dewberry alley and Chesnut street.

The Provost Marshal of Leavenworth, Kansas, has declared all persons belonging to military organizations not authorized by Kansas or the United States, to be outlaws and highway men, and that if caught they will be punished according to the decision of a drum head court martial.

Resolved, That a select committee of five be appointed to examine into and investigate the contracts made by certain parties, with the agents appointed by the Governor, for the furnishing of clothing, equipments and supplies to the volunteer department, for the use of the three months' volunteers, called into service in compliance with the requisition of the President, and ascertain, if possible, if any frauds have been committed upon the State, and if so, to report to this House the nature and extent of such frauds, and to ascertain, if possible, the name or names of the parties implicated.

The committee shall also examine in to such other contracts and expenditures, made by the heads of the different departments, or their agents, as they, in their judgment, may deem proper; and shall have power to send for persons and papers.

The pending question was upon the following substitute, submitted by Mr. Greenbank:

WHEREAS, The commissioners appointed by the Governor to investigate the army frauds, have, in their report, divulged the fact that irregularities, extravagances and frauds were committed, to the great injury of the Commonwealth, by persons engaged in furnishing clothing, equipments and supplies to the militia of this State, under the act of April twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

And whereas, Judicial inquiry into the same has, to a considerable extent, been foiled and no efficient action has been had in the premises; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to investigate the facts in regard to said abuses, and to report the same to this House, together with the names of any persons if such there be, from whom the State should be reimbursed the moneys thus fraudulently obtained; and that the Governor and heads of the respective departments be respectively requested to furnish said committee with any information or documents in their possession or control relating to said matters; and that the committee have power to send for persons and papers.

The original resolution as amended, was agreed to.

The hour of 12 o'clock, M., having arrived, the members of the Senate were introduced, for the purpose of proceeding in joint convention with the members of the House, to open the bids and allot the public printing for the next three years.

The SPEAKER of the Senate occupied the chair as president of the convention.

Mr. HESTAND moved that the convention adjourn until 12 o'clock, M., on the twenty-first of next February.

Mr. SCOTT submitted a point of order where the motion of Mr. HESTAND was in order, which the President of the convention declared was not well taken.

The question of order was debated for some time, when

The motion of Mr. HESTAND was withdrawn.

The Speakers of the two Houses, as provided by law, then proceeded to open the bids, which were announced as follows:

Jacob Baab, 62 1/2 per centum.

Geo. Berger, 41 "

A. B. Hamilton, 16 1-16 "

Theo. Fenn, 61 "

J. H. Wells & Co., 66 "

The President announced that the bid of Messrs. J. H. Wells & Co. was the lowest received, but the securities presented by them not being satisfactory to the Speakers, the bid of Jacob Baab was announced as the next lowest.

Mr. Baab, not being present to execute the bond provided for by law, the bid of Theophilus Fenn was announced as being the next lowest.

Pending the call for the appearance of the bidder with his securities,

Mr. HOPKINS moved that the Convention adjourn to meet on the 11th of February at 12 o'clock M. He subsequently accepted an amendment offered by Mr. HESTAND to substitute the 25th of February; and after considerable discussion the motion, as modified, was agreed to.

The Convention then adjourned.

After the Senators had retired the House also Adjourned.

GOOD MANAGEMENT.—The wife surrounded with a large family, dependent upon the limited earnings of the husband, at a time like this when every article of consumption through the internal convulsion of our country, have advanced in price, and where labor generally has not met with corresponding remuneration, is taxed with no little management, to procure with the same amount of money the necessities of life, that was formerly obtained under the former low prices. Under this state of things, Ulrich & Bowman have determined to close out their stock of Dry Goods on hand at a very small advance on old prices.
