falling off the top of my head and threatening to make ue baid.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting baid very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER.

PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL. [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

FERRING LOVANIA. ILUCALITATION |

[FROM OFFICIAL HOEFITAL REPORTS.]

MAY 19, 1860,—Ellen S., æt. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Satur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, hot had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of zoute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. I mean propylemaine. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another trial. I must confess I am always meredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specific; but his comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER !

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER I

MAY 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in doses of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly all of their natural size.—
Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentlemen, we must wait a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

the result.

Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday last; she has long been suffering from chronic rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chronic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swollen and tense. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 26, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last chind. She is stril very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very, satisfactory results. The second case to winch your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and if the result be satfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we snall justly render our verdict in favor of propylamine.

He is a seaman, set. 26, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had ceassional rheumatic pams, but not so as to keep his bed, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all awollen, teuse and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin, at present dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90.—He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours.

This gentleman is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular psin, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, so generally attendant on acute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there co uid not be a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in question. We are, thorsfore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgiving as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case of a future clinic.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

JUNE 9, 1860.—The next of our convalescents is the case of souterheumatism before you at our clinic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses overy two hours for four days. The patient has got along very incely, and is now able to walk about, as you see.—I do not besitate to say that I have neves seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the remedy we have used; I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chloride o Propylamine, the patients have regained their health Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pur-sued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves try it, and report the results.

For a full report of which the above is a condense extract, see the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Renorter. It is the report after a fair trial by the best med ical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astonished doctor and rejoicing patients.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

A ND for the speedy cure of the sub-joined varieties of Disease: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affection such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all skin Diseases.

OAKIAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co., Genis: I teel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparila has done for me. Having inherited a Scrotthous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Uloers on my hands and arms; sometimes turned in Uloers on my hands and arms; sometimes turned in the troop of the sometimes turned in the fore out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sursaparilla,) for I knew rom your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Chnonnati and got it, and used it till it curled me. I took it, as yon savise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scan, which after a while full off my skin is now clear, and I knew by my it ellings that the disease has gone from my system. You closs well believe that I feel what I am asying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B, TALLEY.

I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucerrhosa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the ulcrus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements." Edward S. New Origans, 25th August, 1959.

Dr. J. C. Ayez: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects. I have realized with your sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Veneral and Mercural Disease. One of my patients had syptultion diers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five week. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the diseration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla: the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her boues: they had become exemptating pain in her joints and nones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which you agent gave me, that this treparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkedle results with that the results with the property of the course.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Precton Co., Va., 6th July, 1869.

DR. J. C. ATRE: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful curouse Rheumatism for a long time, which ballied the skill of physicians, and stock to me in spite of all the remedies I could fin , until I tried your Sarsaparilla.—One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than belore I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis. writes: "I have been afficied for years with an affection of the liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every ining, and every thing laited to relieve me; and I have been a Broken down man for soke years from no ther cause than derangment of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advaed me to try your Sarsaparrilla, because he said he knew you, and anything you made was worth trying. By the blessing, of God it has cired me, I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

MIC BORES.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formulable companies have resultions the use of this remedy, but one space here will not admit them: Some of them may be found in our American almanac, which the agents below hamed are pleased to furnish gratts to all who call for them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alternative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that nedicine can do. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral FOR THE RAPID CURB OF Coughs. Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Kelief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its univalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderiul cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth.—

Tew are the communities or even familia- arrent them. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects,—some living frophy in their miest of its victory over the subile and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know; too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
