HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturda, Morning, February 1, 1862.

APPOINTMENT BY THE GOVERNOR. - Mr. A. C. Smith, of this city, has been appointed a notary public vice Geo. A. C. Seiler, deceased.

ANOTHER DESERTER ARRESTED.—Hiram Wyning, a de-erter from Colonel Wynkoop's 7th pennsylvania Cavalry, now in Kentucky, was Brissel in this city on Thursday by officer Kline, additor a hearing before the mayor, commit ted to prison to await the requisition of the military authorities.

Pulice - A well-dressed and intelligent lookjug lilehwoman, who said her name was Sallie Wilson, and that she hailed from Middletown, this county, was arrested by the mayor's police Thursday night, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. She was com nitted to the Lock-up, and yesterday had a hearing before the mayor who moved by her tears, and promises to foreher to depart.

THE MYSTERY STILL A MYSTERY .- We last week stated, on the authority of an exchange paper that a criminal in Juniata county had, in his confession, stated that he had murdered Miss Bavor, who was, a year or two since, murdered in Berks county. The Juniata Register says that the criminal alluded to makes no around the death of Miss Bavor, and her murderer may still be at large.

John C. Gratz, a private in the Lykenstown Brown: company of volunteers, sitached to Colonel umberland," near Washington, was recently noticed in the TELEGRAPH, took place at halfpast nine o'clock, yesterday, from the residence of his grandfather, Charles C. Carson, Esq., in North Second street. The remains of the deceased were buried in the cometery with military honors, Captain G. W. P. Davis company performing the escort duty on the occa-

GERMAN BALL. - The ball given by our German friends at Brant's Hall Thursday night, is represented as having been a very pleasant affair A large number of the "beauty and gallentry" of our city were present, who vied with each other in promoting the "gay and happy" spirit that prevailed on the occassion.

PROMOTED -We are pleased to learn that Corporal William J. Irvin, of the "Roberts' Guard," Capt. I. S. Waterbury's company, now at Hilton Head, S. C., has been promoted to a responsible position in the army Signal corps, and is attached to the staff of Gen. Viells. The Signal service is one of the most important and responsible in the army, and since its establishment, the fatal error of firing into our own troops is entirely avoided. In the hands of Corporal Irvin, or whatever title go the future use of the "critter," permitted the new position gives him, we feel confident that the service has gained a valuable and faithful auxilliary. He combines all the qualifications essential to an accomplished coldier, and will perform the duties incident to this n-w position in such a manner as to reflect credit upon his appointment.

JEFFERSON, THE ACTOR. -It is not generally known to our readers, that the remains of such admission; so that the mystery still hangs Joseph Jefferson, Sr., the celebrated actor, repose in the grave yard of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, in this city. We find the following brief sketch of his life in the Dramatic FINERAL OF JOHN C. GRATZ.—The funeral of Portrait Gallery, written by Col. S. Alston

Born in Plymouth, Devonshire, England. Cake's regiment, whose death at Camp "North- in 1778. Was invited to this country by C. Powell, for the Boston company, he (Mr. P.) agreeing to pay Mr. Jefferson's passage, and a salary of $17 per week. His first appearance on the American stage was at the old Federal street Theatre, Boston, in 1795; first appeared in New York, February 10th, 1796, at the John street Theatre as Squire Richard in "The Pro-voked Husband." Appeared in Philadelphia in 1808, at the Chennu street Theatre, where he remained until 1830. His last benefit in Philadelphia, took place December 23d, 1829, when he appeared as Bobby Buttercup, in "A School for Grown Children;" last appearance in Philadelphia, was in the character of Sir
