HARRISBURG, PA Wednesday Morning, February 5, 1862,

THE UTY LOCK-UP contained only three tenants Monday night-"drunks"-who, upon being brought before the Mayor this morning were properly disposed of.

SLEIGHING .-- The sleighing has been excellent in and about our city for the last few days, and every available sled and sleigh has been brought into requisition to supply the popular demand for this delightful recreation.

INSPECTORS OF THE COUNTY PRISON. - The Bond of Inspectors of the Dauphin County Prison has been organized by the election of D. W. Gross, President, and Henry Peffer, Secretary. The Board now consists of the following ry. Line paniel Snyder, D. W. Gross, named gentlemen: Daniel Snyder, D. W. Gross, George Bergner, Jacob D. Hoffman, Henry Peffer and Daniel Shellenberger.

THE MILITARY HOSPITAL.-We understand that several Sisters of Charity are now officiating as nurses to the sick soldiers in the milftary hospital at Camp Curtin. Their modest deportment, and strict attention to their humane duties, does much to alleviate the sufferings of the soldiers, who treat them with the respect due their heavenly mission.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—The Bordwells, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, were greetel with a full house, at Sanford's Orera House Monday night. Their performances were of the most entertaining character, and pleased the audience exceedingly. They will appearagain this evening in parlor opera, which in connection with an excellent programme of doubt attract another crowded house.

Dog Tax -Petitions for a dog tax of not less than one dollar are in circulation in various parts of the State. They pray the legislature to impose this tax for the purpose of aiding in the support of the poor in such locations where there are no poor houses, and in every instance where the tax thus raised is not absorbed for the support of paupers, it shall be devoted to school and road purposes. The idea may be a good one, but the petitioners will find all taxation, hereafter, sufficiently high without the necessity of creating any new taxes.

CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY .- A stated meeting of the Citizen Fire Company was held at the Company's Eugine house, last Monday evening, when the following officers were elected for the enguing term:

President-Dr. C. Seiler. Vice President-C. M. Shell. Treasurer-Joseph Montgomery. President Secretary David G. Krause.
Assistant Secretary — M. Cash.
Hours Committee — J. C. Eckert, Jacob Fieck,

Engineer-George C. Fager. Assistant Engineer—Frank Mathers, Captain of Hose—Samuel Swiler.

Longs Visitation .- The members of Advance Lodge, No. 89, I. O. of Good Templars are to visit their co-laborers of Washington Lodge No. 1, this evening at 7 o'clock. The re-union, from the peculiar circumstances connected with it, promises to be of unusual interest; and from the mutual interchange of sentiment and friendly greetings between the members good impressions will be formed, and a unanimity of feeling established that will be productive of much good to the temperance interest in our city. Washington Lodge is the piencer of the order in this region, and while almost every other organization formed for similar purposes, have either been dissolved entirely, or eke out a sickly existence, it has nobly buffeted the science from the East with an extensive and well science stock of goods, purchased for east, respec fully waves of adversity, and stands to-day as firm and intact as when first organized, affording not only a noble example of individual fealty COFFEE, Green and Browned; other organization formed for similar purposes, The recruiting station of the captain, is in the Exchange, Walnut street, to which place we superior character of the organization itself.

Its daughter, Advance Lodge, although only esreier all active young men who desire to serve tablished a little over two months ago, has ac quired a strength in membership, and a financial basis that renders its stability no longer matter of doubt, while it affords to its parent Lodge a support and co-operation in the great tion from the members of the Pennsylvania work of temperance reform, which, although Legislature to deliver a lecture in the Hall the effects may not be apparent to the public of the House of Representatives this Wed- in general, are still of a character to gratify nesday evening "On the Necessity of Im- every friend of humanity. We repeat that the mediate Emancipation, for the crushing of the re-union of the two lodges—this social meeting of the parent and child-will be an occasion of ាសសេកាដាកាសពីស្រែម៉ាលេ ក្នុង THE PREVALENCE OF Small pox generally throughout the country, is awakening renewed attention to the subject of vaccination. Dr. Bell, of the Brooklyn City Hospital, has presented a paper on this theme to the Kings County Medical Society, in which it is stated that during 1861 there were not far from 8,000 cases of the disease, and from 700 to 800 deaths from it. It is astonishing that, when this sickness and death might he almost entirely avoided by vaccination, (which is performed free in nearly all our public hospitals,) so many become its victims. Among the conclusions of Harrisburg at the earliest day that may suit at which Dr. Bell arrives is the very important one, that proper vaccination not only prevents small-pox, but very many scrofulous diseases. He urges especially the great importance of vaccination to infants, and the making its performance one of the qualifications for entrance into every school or asylum for children. He dwells also on the importance of repeating the operation through life as an extra safeguard, the virtue of the vaccine matter being lost partiality, if not wholly, in the course of a few years.

While the medical profession, without exception, we believe, insist upon the expediency and necessity of vaccination, it cannot be denied that there is a deep-seated prejudice against it among a considerable class of the community, founded on these lamentable cases where terrible diseases have been introduced into the system of a healthy child from the vaccine matter having been impure. the honor of the invitation you have so kindly Ever since JENNER made his great discovery, given me, and shall be most happy to accept it there have not been wanting a few to deery it; for a lecture on the evening of the fifth of Feb-but there is happily at the present day no immediate emancipation for the crushing of the doubt entertained by intelligent persons of its simple and harmless, but wonderfully beneficial effects.
