PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

(FROM OFFICIAL HOSTITAL REFORM.)

MAY 19, 1860.—Ellen S., set. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years ago ahe had an attack of acoute rhoumation, from which she was ogained to her hed for two weeks and subsequently from a reliables for four more. She has been well since their till last fiatur day, white engaged in house deening, she cfork cold, had pais in her back, felt cold, hot had so decided chill. Two days later her ankies began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the times joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are subcted, but the right is met so. This, then, is a case of acute rhoumatism, or, is the now fashionably called, rhaumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is lo call attention to a remedy which has recently been, i ecommended in the treatment of rheumatism. In an propil awins. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great conedit from its use in 1800 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it awither trial. I must confess I am always incredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifies; out this comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

MAY 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack of soute rheumatum. She has steadily taken it in doses of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to motion a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now marky all of their natural size.—Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentlemen, we must walt a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result. SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

fore we can give a decided opinion as a wall was the result.
Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Suindsy last; she has long been suffering from a brook or rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chronic affection. The wrists and knuckies were much swollen and teese. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has should diminished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 25, 1850.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I realled your attenuous at our last idinic. She as still very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very isatisfactory results. The second cuse to winch your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to de well. I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and if the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we shall justiy render our verdict in favor of propylamina. He is a seaman, sat. 25, who was admitted a few days ago. Whe has coasional rheumatic panes, but not so as to keep his bed, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knes, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joines of the upper extremities. These joines are all swammans and tender. His tongue is furred in his skin, as to still and attend, and about 90.—He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours: This gentleman is what maybe called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to join and was on acute rheumatism. There was exposure to join and was on acute rheumatism.

This gentleman is weat may no cause or south rheumatism. There was exposure to ook and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular path, beginning, as it this lift does, in the lower joints. There as fever and the profession of accounty attandant on active rind the profession. does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the present inventing, so generally attendant on acitiza-rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you, with the intensition of giving you a loctore on all the points compected with rheumatism! but bo again give a trial to the new remedy we are fitting, and to exhibit to you this representation. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other motiones, even anotypes, that there may be no miggivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You that see the case of a future offsice.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDIOT.

JUNE 9, 1860.—The next of our convalencents is the case of acute rheumatism before you at our citude of May 20th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore attackly given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along every noolly, and it now able to walk about, as you see. I do not heditate to say that I have neves seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the remedy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chlorido o Propylamine, the patients in ve regained, their health mach earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves try it, and report the results.

for a full report of which the above is a cond extract, see the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Reposter. It is the report after a fair trial by the best med cal authority in this country, and makes it unnec to give numerous certificates, from astonished dock and rejoicing patients.

ONLAMO, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co., Germa: I seel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scroful just infection, I have suffered from it in parvous ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulous on my hands and arms; sometimes turned in Wheels on my hands and arms; sometimes turned in Wheels on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and ichinsoms beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grow worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sarsaparilla,) for I knew from your requision that any taing you made must be good. I sent to Chemnasi and got it, and used it till is cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small does of a teaspoonful over a month; and used almost three bottles. New and healthy akin soon began to form under the scale, which after a white fell off my skift is now clear, and I know by my feitings that the decase has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I not you to be one of the apostes of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

I have curred with it in my practice, most of the complex for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the ours of Feneral and Mercural Disease. Une of my patients and syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palace and, the top of his mouth. Your Sarrasparilla, steadily taken, oured him in the week. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Earsaparilla: the ulcers heated, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poisson in her bones. I have had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she sufficed encountaing pain in her junus and bones. She, too, was cured outrely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from the termula, which you agent gave may that the Preparation from your laboratory must be a great the taye, not surprised me.

Fraternally yours,

Jules I. Getchell, of St. Leuis, writes: "I have been afficied by years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing taked to relieve me; and I have been a broken down man for some years from no that cause than destroying the feeth. My believed pastor, the feeth Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Marsagarrills, because he said he knew you, and anytuing you made was worth trying. By the bleasing of God its mis cured me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good choogs."
