

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, February 7, 1862.

The Communication, signed "A parent," will appear in tomorrow evening's TELEGRAPH.

REWARD.—The friends of Mr. Thomas J. Blinn, who was recently killed by a train of cars, near Shippensburg, offer a reward of $25 for the good watch of the deceased.

CONTRACTS FOR BRICK AWARDED.—Major Beck has awarded to John Snodgrass, of this city, the contract for 4,000 bricks, with the privilege of 11,000, to be delivered either at Harrisburg, Chamber-burg, or York, at three eighty-nine cents.

TIMBER.—The roads and the weather in the lumber region are most favorable for hauling timber to the stream, and all that has been prepared will no doubt be hauled to the water in good season.

PRIVATE SALE OF PROPERTY.—Jacob Shell, trustee of the estate of Geo. Hammond, deceased, recently sold the "Fox" tavern at the junction of Front and Second streets to Christian Ely and Michael Burke for the sum of $2,100.

TRIAL OF STEEL ARMOR.—A public trial of the newly invented steel armor, or bullet proof vest, was to have taken place at the State Arsenal at three o'clock this afternoon.

AN EMBLEMATIC TROPHY.—We noticed in the Executive Chamber to-day, a large and well wrought scabbard—the vegetable stick white and sanguinary stripes, with the dull and tyrant union of stars, which floats in rebellion under ordinary circumstances.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—On last Tuesday evening, the following officers were installed to serve the ensuing term, in Washington Lodge No. 1, Independent Order of Good Templars: W. C. T., Wm. T. Bishop, Jr.; W. C. T., Thomas W. Anderson; W. V. T., Miss Ella Potts; W. S. G., Washington Fox; W. A. S., Miss Ann M. Eslinger; W. F. S., Miss Eliza A. Bishop; W. T., Wm. T. Bishop; W. C. M., Mrs. T. C. Kunkel; W. C. T., J. Milton Potts; W. D. M., Mrs. T. W. Anderson; W. J. G., Miss Annie Radabaugh; W. O. G., Thomas J. Easley; W. R. H. S., Mrs. Elizabeth Wyant; W. L. H. S., Miss Mary McAuley; Lodge Deputy, G. W. C. T., Wm. T. Bishop, Jr.

MAPLE MOLASSES, well made and put up in cans right from the kettle, and hermetically sealed, as you would can and seal fruits, will keep as when first boiled from the sap; and this is decidedly the best plan for keeping, as when made in casks, if exposed to the air, it will lose somewhat of the peculiarly delightful flavor for which it is so prized, and is often injured by insects. All this is obviated by canning white hot.

- A meeting of the citizens of Dauphin county will be held at Brant's concert hall, in Harrisburg, on Monday evening, Feb. 10, 1862, for the purpose of adopting such measures as will secure the erection of this strong arm of our country's defence at or near Harrisburg, Pa.

A STATED meeting of the Washington Hose Company will be held at the hose house this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock. Punctual attendance is required.

A STATED MEETING of the Friendship Fire Company, will be held in their hall on Monday evening at seven o'clock.

A BATTLE WITH A MUSKRAT.—A few days since, a desperate and rather novel battle occurred in Swatara township, this county, between a young man named Ulrich, and a large muskrat. It appears that while Mr. Ulrich was walking along the Union canal, he noticed a muskrat in a field, secreted behind some bushes. Quietly moving up to the animal, he thought with one blow to lay dead the life of his foe. But not so easily done. The rat, on the application of the young man's boot, showed battle, and made at him like a savage dog, compelling Mr. U. to retreat a short distance. The animal, however, took advantage of its victory and followed his assailant, making several attempts at the throat of the young man, fortunately, succeeded only in tearing his vest and coat. At this stage of the battle, two well-belligerees pretty nearly exhausted,—the young man happily procured a stick, and soon ended the battle by taking the life of the fighting rat. That a muskrat would attack a man or give battle, is something new, at least to us; but we have the above authority that dare not be questioned.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—The New Court House.—The following bill has passed the Senate and was messaged to the House this morning: A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT to an act entitled "An act to authorize the county of Dauphin to borrow money," approved the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and to a supplement thereto, approved the twenty-ninth day of January, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Mr. Speaker HALL. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Steele, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Harrisburg.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.—Mr. McCLURE obtained leave to make a personal explanation as follows: I find in the report of yesterday's proceedings published in a morning paper of the city of Philadelphia, that I am represented as having used the following remarks: "Mr. McCLURE did not know the motives of the House. The Senate could not judge by what scurrilous members of the House might have said." I beg to state that I made no such remark. I did say that the Senate could not judge of the motives of the House in its action upon any public question by what scurrilous members of that body had stated outside of the House. As a matter of justice to myself and to the dignity of the Senate, I have made the explanation.
