PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL. [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

[FROM OFFICIAL REFORM.]

MAY 19, 1860, ERICA S., set. 28, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rhoumatism, from which she was configed to her bed for two weeks and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till hast Satur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, hot had so decided chill. Two days later her ankles her gan so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders; and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashloushy called, rheumatic fever. It is a well rémarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your sticution to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a remedy which has recently been 'feconimended in the treatment of rheumatism. I mean propriamate: Dr. Awensaries, of St. Petersburg, recommended in the highest terms, having derived great penefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Yarrous commendatory testimovitals feespecting it have appeared in our journals, and I prepose therefore to give it another wisi. I must confess I am always moredulous as so the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifies; but this comes to us recommended to highly, that we are bound to give it's trial:

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

MAY 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack: of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in does of three grang every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her; I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now waited thing from her other attack. (The patient now waited into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now fearly all of their natural site;—Thus far our experiment, would have seemed very, successful; but, gentlemen, we must wait a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

Here is another nation were must wait should be at the least of the manufacture of the manufactu the result.

Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday lest; the bas long been suffering from a bronic rheamatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chronic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swollen and tense. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain desergivery two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminished.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 26, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very confortable, and is now taking three grains, thrice, daily.

In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecture; has also continued to do well I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and it the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we shall justly render our verdet in favor of propylamine.

He is a seaman, set 28, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had occasional rheumatin pams, but not so as to keep his bed, until cight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremittes. These joints are all awellen, tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin, at present dry, though there has, been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90.—He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours.

This genteman is what may the tailed a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure of points congected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the low remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there co uld not be a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgytyng as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case of a future chinic.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT

June 9, 1860.—The next of our convalencents is the case of souter beamatism before you at our clinic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked war a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our heaviernedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not heatists to a sy that I have neves seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the reined; we have used, I feel; bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chloride o Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the frestment or dinarily pursued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves try it, and report the results.

For a full report of which the above is a condense atract, see the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Reporter. It is the report after a fair trial by the best med cal authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astonished doctor and rejoicing patients.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co., Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scroffelous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my bands and arms; sometimes turned invarid and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it thick out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grow worse. At-length I was repliced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sarsaparilla,) for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cindmusti and got it, and used it till it dured me. I sook it, as you advise, in spual doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy sku soon began to formi-suder the sead, which after a while thil off my skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You only well believe that I feel whist I mi adving when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the actions of the see, and remain over gratefully. Fours, TIDr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects. I have called with your saraparilla.

I have called with your saraparilla.

I have called with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the ours of Veneral and Mericard Disches. One of my patients had hyphilitic nicers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Saraparilla, steadily taken cured him in five week. Another was attacked by iscondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had, eatien away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would sconresch his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarasparilla: the ulcers heated, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by morcury was suffer ing from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day are suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. So, too, was coursed entirely by your Saraspasilla is a few weeks: I know from its formula, which you agent gave me, that this freparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkeble results with it have not surprised me.
