Expedition to Savannah. Speedy capture of the City anticipated GENERAL WRIGHT IN COMMAND OF THE LAND FORCES.

ENCOUNTER WITH TATNALL'S FLEET. HIS FLAGBOAT DISABLED.

HILTON HEAD, S. C., Funday, February 9 On the 21-t day of January the embarkation of a veral regiments of troops, and other active preparations, betokened an expedition of some preparations. The troops are under command of descrial Wight, while the naval force, consisting of six un boats—the Ottawa, Seneca Penniki, Western World, Isaac Smith, and

THE TWENTY-SECOND OF FEBRUARY. - Are we to have a Celebration?—Next Saturday is the annivesary of the great and good Washington; but we have not learned of any arrangements being made to signalize its recurrence by a proper celebration. At the present time, and in the peculiar situation in which our country is just now placed, it behooves every man who has an American heart to celebrate the day in a becoming and appropriate manner. Instead of a military display, we think a civic celebration would be tue most proper course; that endur
