

Daily Telegraph.

HARRISBURG, PA.
Friday Morning, February 21, 1862.

SEVENTH PRESENTATION.—The officers of the Eleventh Pennsylvania regiment, stationed at St. John's College, in Annapolis, have presented their commander, Col. Coulter, with a splendid sword, as a token of the appreciation in which he is held as a soldier and a gentleman.

COUNTERFEIT COIN.—Half dollars—facsimiles of genuine halves—have been counterfeited very successfully by some rogues, who have put many of them into circulation. On a hasty inspection the counterfeit is likely to be passed as true. The imitation is somewhat lighter than the coin from the United States mint.

INDICATING HIS CHARACTER.—When a person comes a noted thief, he takes great pride in being looked upon as such, and considers it a disgrace if he does aught that will lessen him in that light. So it is with Gen. Floyd. This covet not content with stealing all the spare implements belonging to the Government, made an execution recently to Fort Donelson, and, finding nothing else to steal, he, under cover of night, not only stole a march, but actually contrived to steal away five thousand rebels. After this feat of leg erdemian, who dare say that Floyd is not a great man.

STRANGE ANIMAL SHOT.—Mr. Jacob Early, a farmer, residing at Manada Gap, this county, writes to us that while out hunting near the Blue Mountains on the 7th instant, he succeeded with considerable difficulty in killing a wild animal of a species perfectly unknown to the people of that neighborhood. It first attacked the dog, one of which was nearly killed in the encounter; but upon Mr. Early's approach it took to a tree, from whence it was shot. The animal measured three feet in length, and twenty-three inches around the body. It had claws three-quarters of an inch long.

LEGISLATIVE ADJOURNMENT.—It is just fifty years this winter since the Seat of Government was removed to Harrisburg, and we will venture the assertion that upon consulting the records, there will not, within that half century, be found a solitary instance of the neglect of the Legislature to reverence the memory of the great and good Washington by meeting in the capital on his natal day, and having read by the clerk, or some person appointed for that purpose, his Farewell Address. It seems, however, that this long established custom is to be dispensed with this year, in order to afford the members an opportunity of witnessing a military parade of home guards in Philadelphia.

GIVE YOUR CHILD A PAPER.—A child beginning to read becomes delighted with a newspaper, because he reads the names of things which are very familiar, and will make progress accordingly. A newspaper in one year is worth a quarter's schooling to a child, and every father must consider that substantial information is connected with advancement. The mother of a family, being one of the heads, and having a more immediate charge of children, should herself be instructed. A mind occupied, becomes fortified against the ills of life, and is braced against an emergency. Children, amused by reading or study, are of course more considerate and more easily governed. How many parents who have not spent twenty dollars for books for their families, would have given hundreds to reclaim a son or a daughter who had ignorantly or thoughtlessly fallen into temptation?

CATCHING A TARTAR.—Two men, partially intoxicated, ran against a rather quiet countryman, on Walnut street, on Wednesday, shoving him off the sidewalk and nearly upsetting him on the street. Countryman, after eyeing the parties a moment, laid down a small parcel he had in his hand, and pulling off his overcoat, went into the two ruffians in a style that would have delighted a Fenian or a Sayer. One of the fellows he sent sprawling in the mud, where he lay for several seconds, and the other running away, he pursued him until he got within about range, when he let him have it in the left ear, raising him completely off his feet, and making him bellow like a scared ox. After administering him a few kicks, which were delivered with an action that showed he had his heart in the job, the countryman returned to where his coat lay, and putting it quietly on, picked up his parcel and walked away. The affair was witnessed by quite a crowd, and the general verdict in the case of the punished bullies was "served them right."

MURDER THOROUGHFARE.—Just now the thoroughfares of our city are in a very disagreeable condition from the depth and character of the de-cities upon them. Of course, it would be unjust to expect clean streets in view of the limited force of men entrusted with the duty of removing the filth, but we would call the attention of the supervisors to the fact that there is considerably more dirt on the sidewalks at some of the most important crossings than there is any necessity for. The publication of this matter, has had a very beneficial effect, and if it was closely followed up and enforced by the supervisors, we should now have clean sidewalks and pleasant walking, instead of the disagreeable slime and mud through which we are forced to wade in some localities. By the way it is a most singular fact, in connection with pavement cleaning, that some people seem invariably to select the most improper time for the work, if possible. A few days ago, when there was but little dirt on the pavements to require cleaning, and when a sharp breeze had set in from the north, there was an unusual display of diligence in this line. In one case we noticed a colored man with a pavement sweeper cleaning a sidewalk, while the water froze into a thin sheet of ice almost as soon as it lay down over the pavement. There is a strong suspicion of malice attached to such labors, and the public would hear with grim satisfaction of the workers enjoying the fruits thereof in a broken crown.

A LONG SPELL.—If the long spell of disagreeable weather which we "enjoyed" in January and so far in February, brings us an early and genial spring, with plenty of fruit, we shall not have suffered in vain. The "oldest inhabitant," who of late has been very chary in expressing any opinion whatever, has come forward and made the statement that he never witnessed such a succession of soowy, blowy, rainy, drizzling, mizzling, sleety, dirty days as we have had since this winter "set in." We sincerely trust he may soon "set out" on his travels to the North Pole, to learn better manners by the time he visits us again.

TRIM YOUR GRAPES VINES.—Within the last few years the grape interest of our city has become quite extensive. In some of the wards there is scarcely a garden which does not have a grape vine creeping over and around a gracefully constructed arbor. Many bushels of grapes are raised every year, some families having, besides enough for their own use, some to send to market. This crop may be greatly increased, without any additional trouble, by proper attention to the vines. The present is the proper season to attend to them. In the month of February they should be closely pruned, and trained in the proper direction, before the sap begins to ascend from the roots to the branches. Do not be afraid of pruning too closely. Cut off everything but the straight main branches, and your fruit will be the more luscious and plentiful.

THE MUSIC STORE of our friend Knoche, No. 93 Market street, near Fourth, notwithstanding the hard times, continues to flourish like a "green bay tree." This result is due not only to his indefatigable enterprise, but to a proper knowledge of what the public wants in his line of business, and his untiring efforts to supply them. His establishment is a perfect "gem" of a place, and people flock there by the scores to admire and make purchases. He has on hand just now for sale magnificent rosewood seven octave pianos, elegantly toned, which he dispenses of for $200. As usual, his stock of picture frames and musical instruments is large and varied, to please almost any fancy. Among the new music recently received at his establishment, are "Vocal Beauties," a selection of choice songs; Cobb's Parlor Music; the "Hartford Polka," dedicated to the loyal crew of the U. S. sloop-of-war Hartford; "Ondine;" and "Every Household has its Angel," a beautiful song and chorus, sung by Mr. J. A. Arnold, of Sanford's Opera Troupe. A fine assortment of the best plated looking-glasses also on hand.

DESTRUCTION OF COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—An act is before the Legislature for the suppression and destruction of counterfeit notes. It provides that after the first of May next, it shall be the duty of the teller or other bank officer who shall receive in payment or upon deposit, or for redemption, a counterfeit, altered or worthless bank note, to write or stamp upon all such notes the word "counterfeit," altered or worthless, adding the name of the bank and his initials. Any teller or other officer of any bank who shall neglect or refuse to write upon or stamp any note as prescribed, shall forfeit and pay the full amount of the note or notes allowed to pass without being so written upon. It shall be the duty of all police officers, constables or other person, who may seize any bank notes, dies, plates, coins, or materials used in counterfeiting, or coining, after the trial of any person charged with the unlawful possession thereof, to deliver the same to the sheriff of the county, in which such trial shall take place, and the sheriff shall destroy the said materials for counterfeiting, in the presence of one or more of the judges of said court.

THE EIGHTEENTH U. S. INFANTRY REGIMENT.—Interesting Correspondence.—The following correspondence has recently passed between Major Will. A. Stokes and Capt. J. M. Eyster, both of the 18th U. S. Infantry:

HEAD QUARTERS, 18th REG. U. S. INFANTRY,
Columbus, O., February 14, 1862.

Capt. J. M. Eyster.

DEAR SIR:—Col. Carrington has done me the honor to order me to take the field. I march on Monday with four companies of the 18th and two companies of the 16th, and expect to be in Tennessee and in presence of the enemy the latter part of the week. I now appeal to you and to all my friends in Pennsylvania to redeem my pledge, that the Old Keystone should furnish a full Battalion of eight hundred men—to do this but three hundred men are necessary. Send me more to join the Third Battalion in vindicating the cause of the country and the honor of Pennsylvania. Good bye, and God bless you.

Truly yours,
WILL. A. STOKES,
M. J. 18th U. S. Inf'y.

RECRUITING STATION, 3d BAT., 18th U. S. INF'y,
Harrisburg, Feb. 18th, 1862.

Major Will. A. Stokes,
3d Bat., 18th U. S. Infantry.

DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 14th instant was duly received, and I regret to hear that you are compelled to move without me. But it is ordered that I shall remain here to assist in filling up your command; and that you shall take the field to assist to vindicate the honor of the flag of the Union, to maintain the majesty and dignity of the Laws and Constitution as pure and unadulterated as when they came from the hands of the great men that formed them, and to punish the ruthless traitors that have dared to war against them.

Be it so; but be assured that my heart shall be with you, and that I will use my utmost endeavors to redeem your pledge; and, I know, that your friends in Pennsylvania will not forget you, and will lend a helping hand, so that that pledge will soon be redeemed; and then the glorious Eighteenth will appear in its majesty and power to strike for the consummation of that which is devoutly to be wished—the perpetual Union of our Country.

Good bye, and Heaven protect you.

Yours, truly,
J. M. EYSTER,
Capt. 18th U. S. Infantry.

GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON.—The principles and deeds of Washington, though the material and frame work have mouldered and decayed, has stamped his greatness upon the tablet of his country's heart; it is our privilege and duty then to render the admiration earned and to awaken emulation by the proper observance of the day that gave birth to one so gloriously identified with his country's history, and now with the reader's permission, we re-peat of dry goods at the cheap store of Ulrich & Bowman.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.—A whole family burned up.—Early on Monday morning of last week a terrible calamity happened at a mining village, situated some miles from Pottsville, called Thomasville. By some means not yet discovered, fire was communicated to a small one story log house, in which resided a man named Thomas Connell, his wife, four grown up children, a boarder named Michael Holligan, and a hired girl named Bridget Condon. Before assistance could be rendered the building had been burned to the ground, and a mass of blackened bones was all that was left of its inmates. The origin of the fire, so terrible in its consequences, will probably never be discovered, as none of the occupants of the dwelling escaped.

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS of beautiful New spring calico; a large lot of bleached and unbleached muslin of the best make; blue checks, at 12 1/2 cents per yard; white stockings, at 12 1/2 cents; another lot of those good white ribbed stockings; ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, at 12 1/2 cents; children's pocket handkerchiefs, with border, 5 cents a shirt and breast, 15 and up to 37 1/2 cents; 25 pieces new cheap stuff; undershirts and drawers very cheap; cotton and woolen socks, at all prices; 40 dozen woolen stockings, for children, 12 1/2 cents; 14 yard bleached muslin 12 1/2 cents; all wool French merinos, all colors, at 62 cents and 75 cents. Having bought the balance of the stock of a city wholesale house of plain and figured Swiss muslins, brilliant, white cambrics, Naumuck and Victoria lawns, suitable for dresses, as these goods will be very scarce and dear next summer now is the time to buy. Our stock of Furs at cost.

THE LATEST NEWS.—Bargains! Selling off the entire stock of winter goods below cost, viz: Woolen, merino, cotton and cambric flannel, under shirts and drawers, 40 and upwards; 12 1/2 muslin, woolen and cotton; Hose, 104 and upwards; silk ties, 18 and upwards; suspenders, 12; also fine shirts, $1 00 @ 25, actually worth $1 50 @ 75; collars, all linen, 12 1/2; and night shirts, 50; also a large lot of monkey jackets, all wool, from 75c @ $1 00; also a large lot of Union shirt breasts, 10c; fine bleached muslin, 1 1/2 yard wide, 15c; also bleached muslin, 6c, and fine Irish linen, 18 @ 20c per yard; Brocks, Clarks and Co's. enameled spool cotton, &c. Ladies and gentlemen this is the place to get a bargain. Please call an I examine for yourselves, as one call will suffice to convince the public of the facts. Also, on hand a large lot of ladies' collars, cuffs, undershirts, which I will sell equally cheap for cash. N. B.—Shirts, collars, &c., made to measure from sample, on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms. If you want a bargain and a good fitting shirt, &c., just to go to James A. A CARD TO THE LADIES.
DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.
"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Ohio, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. A. Batchelor) and told me that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they may refer any lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to bear knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption, and was nearly dead, and was completely cured. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health. "Weeping with joy, she is now supporting the family, and has gained a handsome fortune. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1. Sold wholesale and retail by A. B. BARNETT, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. KILLER, 91 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. By sending either of them $1 00 through the Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country, "free of postage."
N. B. Look out for counterfeits. Buy no Golden Pills of any kind unless the box is signed S. H. Howe. All others is a base imposition and unsafe; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of being humbugged by business,) all persons knowing those who show the signature of S. H. Howe on every box, which has recently been added on account of the PILLS being counterfeited. The ingredients composing the above Pills are pure and safe, and will cure all diseases, and they are safe, and will perform all claimed for them.
Sold also by T. L. Lumberger, Lebanon; A. J. Kaufman, Mechanicsburg; M. Marks, Lewisburg; S. Elliott, Carlisle; E. G. Wills, Newville; J. E. Miller, York; J. Spangler, Chambersburg; J. T. Miller, York; J. A. Wolf, Wrightsville; S. S. Stevens, Reading; and J. F. Hunter, Reading, all of whom are druggists in every town and village in the United States, and in

Died.
In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, February 20th, of the measles, JULIA BRADLEY, eldest daughter of W. and Mary T. Barker, aged 2 years, 6 months and 17 days. The friends and relatives of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, on Saturday Feb. 23d at 2 o'clock P. M., at the residence of Mr. John Hummel, on Third street, three doors above the Patriot and Union House, West Harrisburg.

JULIA.
Dearest daughter, we shall miss thee,
Now that thou hast gone from earth:
None can fill thy vacant place here,
Though they be of thy gentle worth.
My father, mother, brothers, sisters, daughter dear,
Will see thy vacant place with pain;
In Christian trust they leave no fear,
But that they'll meet with thee again.
For that day, trusting wait,
For that time we'll patiently stay;
Until we get thee at the gate,
That leads to everlasting day.

On the 19th inst, JOHN BELLMAN, in the 74th year of his age.
(The relative and friends are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. COLEMAN, in North street near Front, this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.)

UNION RESTAURANT,
BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOON,
NO. 119 MARKET STREET, NEAR FIFTH.
THE subscribers having erected a large building at the above place, expressly for the purpose above indicated, beg to call the attention of the public to the following:

THE RESTAURANT, on the first floor, with a dining room attached, is fitted up in the first-class style, and it will at all times be supplied with the best "OSTERS," to be had in the Atlantic cities, together with terrapin, fish, and all kinds of game in season. Oysters served up in every style, and meals to be had at all hours. The Ales of all the celebrated breweries in the country constantly on hand.

The Ten-pin Alley, or Bowling Saloon, is in the rear, and contains a complete set of modern construction, where the lovers of this healthy exercise can enjoy their leisure. The Billiard Saloon is up-stairs—elegantly fitted up, and contains three marble top combination billiard tables, equal to any made.

Harrisburg has long felt the want of a grand combination of this kind, and as the proprietors are determined to conduct it in a quiet and orderly manner, and do everything in their power to make it a far more pleasant place to receive a liberal share of public patronage, they hope to receive a liberal share of public patronage.
