upon all such other notes and papers the word city, by tolerating a thousand dens of iniquity "worthless," adding thereto the name of the and passion, owes the duty to its population of bank and the initials of the officer by which the affording it protection from the dangers and outrages thus engendered and prepared. The time has arrived for vigilance and summary reform or else ruffiainism, theft, arson, drunken-ness and murder will claim the city as their exclusive preserve.'

In another column of the Examiner we find the following extraordinary statement, on which it is not necessary to remark at all: "A few nights ago the gamblers of Richmond held a convention in this city, and after the fashion of the 'noble refrigerators' of Congress, fashion of the 'noble refrigerators' of Congress, transacted their business in secret session. are informed that one hundred and fifty members of the gambling and 'plug' fraternity were present; that fifty thousand dollars were voted and subscribed to as a fund to carry the next election for mayor; and that the candidate nominated as likely to unite the gambling and rowdy interests of Richmond, was an ungrammatical grocer and whisky-worm of the name of David J. Saunders. We are very much of the opinion that if matters are not speedily and the retired and unsaviry whisky dealer they propose as their candidate will be in the hands of vigilance a committee before the date of the next municipal election.

A HEBOIC KENTUCKY UNION GIRL - A Paducah correspondent of the Louisville Journal, writing under the date of February 11th, says :

In these times of terror and peril in this district, some of the most heroic acts have been performed; but perhaps the noblest of all was perpetrated, a few days since, by a young lady of Graves county, well known to the writer, Miss Anna Bassford. Her father and family are devotedly for the Union. The old man having information that the noterious H.C. King (expelled from our Legislature for trea-son) and his robber band intended to visit the house for the purpose of taking horses, guns, &c., hid his gun and brought his horses to this place. Whilst here three of King's robuing of general amendment, which was agreed to; band visited the house, demanded the gun, whereupon the House went into committee of and alarmed Mrs. Bassford, who ordered a son the whole, (Mr. CRANE in the chair,) on said of fifteen years old to fire the gun and deliver Mr. COWAN moved to amend by restoring found the gun; the robbers then demanded a he second section of the bill as originally found the gun; the robbers then demanded a the second section of the bill as originally re-ported by the Committee on Banks. Mr. TRACY moved to amend the amendment by inserting the word "four," between the words "its" and "value," in the last line of the second section. the girl was determined, and, seeing that they were foiled in this, they ordered the feeble, sickly boy to mount up behind one of their clan, as they intended to take him to Camp Beauregard in place of his d-d Lincolnite father. The boy and mother, in tears, pro-tested, but to no effect, and the boy was in the act of mounting, when the heroic sister stepped between her brother and the robbers, and, drawing, cocking, and presenting a pistol, ordered her brother back to the house, and, with eagle-piercing eye fastened on the robbers, and death-dealing determination in her coun-tenance, dared them to hinder or touch her brother, and she would lay the robber dead at her feet. Suffice it to say, the three brigands scampered off and left the family without
