HARRISBURG. PA. Tuesday Afternoon, February 25, 1862,

LEFT FOR THE SEAT OF WAR.-Mr. Samue Davis, of the Harrisburg City Cavalry, attached Wynkoop, left here at four o'clock this after noon to join his company, now in service in Kentucky.

LECTURE.—Rev. Robert J. Carson will deliver a lecture on the subject of "Itinerancy," in the Vine Street M. E. church, on Wednesday evening, the 26th, at 71 o'clock, for the benefit of the Sabbath school. Tickets can be had at the door on the evening of the lecture.

OMISSION.-In our notice of citizens who illuminated their residences on the evening of the 22od inst, we inadvertantly omitted the of the storm. The wires of the magnetic telenames of Messrs Kepple, Young, Gildea, Peelor, Strominger, Reel, and the Miss. Lefeveres, in State street, opposite the Brady House; Wm. Buehlers in Market street, Peter Bernheizel in Second street, and David M'Cormick and Rev Mr. Maher in State street. The residences of these gentlemen and ladies were handsomely illuminated, and attracted much attention

BEAUTIFUL PAINTING -The "skating scene on the Susquehanna" introduced in the popular play of "New Year's calls," now performing at Sanford's Opera House, was painted expressly for the occasion by Mr. John Crukshank, of our city, and as a work of art challenges the admi ration of every spectator. The coloring is exceedingly natural, and the perspective faultless: and, taking in connection with the merry tablaux vivant in front, forms altogether a view which fairly mocks reality.

Dr. Jones, of New York, who is practicing at Herr's Hotel, in this city, with such unbounded success, will remain here until the 3d of March, when he leaves for Lancaster city, where he will practice at the City Hotel for a couple of weeks before he returns home.
