JEFF. DAVIS is being severaly overhauled by the traitor Congress. He is openly accused with cultivating the most imperious bearing, and as freely charged with being a tyrant and a llar., Of course he is, as none but a tyrant would represent the exclusive idea of slavery as the basis of a government, and only a liar would utter the sentiments and make the charges which have disgraced his whole life and public career. It was a common remark of the father in-law of this kuave and double ingrate and traitor, that he had become accus tomed go much to the habit of lying, that the trath would throw him into spasms, and his utterance of it was a positive impossibility.

"WE'LL DIE IN THE LAST DITCH," was the favorite expression of the traitors, when they desired to ventilate their great determination to succeed. Judging from the manner in which they are strolling and running through the rebel states, they have a hard time hunting that last ditch.

THE LEBANON COURSER explains the opposition to the law of treason, as manifested by certain dough-face journalists, to the political truth that,

They are identical We extract the above paragraph from the Albany Evening Journal, one of the oldest and ablest Republican journals in the country, and commend it to our brethren of the Republican press in Pennsylvania. For the past six months we have been carefully watching the movements and pondering the sentiments of Demo cratic editors, and in that time we have fre quently stated in these columns the bitterness with which these gentlemen assailed the measures and the men of the Republican party .---On every occasion, and with every pretext, this work of defamation has been conducted by the Locofoco-Breckinridge semi-traitor organs that ? of the Commonwealth, while their columns lacked the semblance of opposition to the leaders of the rebellion at the south, but rather at times teemed with covert sympathy for those who were engaged in the hellish work of rend-

Gallardet-the "guardians" have been discussing a new candidate, namely : the Count of Flanders, second son of the King of Belgium. It is true he is a scion of the house of Orleans, and Napoleon might object to nourishing such a Royal viper ; but has he not contly been granting all kinds of amnestic to all kinds of people, and may he not think it a masterly stroke of policy to "conquer the affections" of the Bourbons by throwing them a sop in the shape of a bankrupt kingdom. A few verdant people may look upon this farming out of Powers and Principalities-this trading in the happiness of peoples and thrusting obnoxious rulers upon them as a slight abuse of the prerogatives of "guardianahip" but the Great Powers are only following time-

THERE IS WORK in the future for every man who esteems Republican principles essential to the success of Republican government. There is work for every Republican who deepises the treason of pg and destroying the American Union of the slave power, and who desires to avert a repetition of states.
