As soon as she came within the range of the Cumberland she onened on her with her heavy guns but the balls struck and glanced off having no no more effect on her than peas from a pop gun. Her ports were all closed, and she moved on in silence, but with full head of steam. In the mean time, as the Merrimac was approacing the two frigates on one side, the rebel iron clad steamers, Yorktown and Jamestown, came down James river, and engaged our frigates. On the other side, the batteries at Newport News also openeed on the Jamestown and power to assist the Cumberland and Conat the mercy of the approaching steamers. The Merrimac in the meantime kept steadily on her course, and slowly approached the Cumberland, when she and the Congressat the distance of one hundred yards rained full broadside on the iron dad monster. The shot took no effect glancing upwards and flying off, having only the effect of checking her for the mo ment. After receiving the first broadside
