also filling any vacancy by such election, which may occur by the thousand casualities of war. By:a decision of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, that organic law remains in force in the regiments of the Reserve Corps, now on duty as a portion of the armies of the Republic. All vacancies of officers can only be filled by the election of the men themselves, a fact which, it is alleged, by the spirit of rivalry and the influences of corrupt competition, has made it impossible for the men to agree in numerous instances, thus leaving many vacancies yet nnfilled. This of course is an evil with which the manner of creating officers and filling vacancies, has nothing to do, and is a reflection more upon the corruption existing in the army, than it is: upon any system for its organization and discipline. In the case of the volunteers outside of the Reserve Corps, the manner of filling vacanoles is different, because in those troops Congress has empowered the Governors of the various states to fill any vacancies thus occurring, by appointment. Thus, for instance, the Governor of Pennsylvania has the exclusive power of filling all vacancies occurring in all regiments recruited and organized by this state, except those comprising the Reserve Corps. The resolution before the legislature seeks to confer this power with respect to the Reserve Corps also, and it is on this point that a difference of opinion exists, such as we noticed in these col umns a few days since, a difference which has already been sufficiently discussed, as to make any further reference to it entirely unnecessary.

On the subject of the power which was conferred on the Governors of the various states, by er can save it from the grave toward which it the act of Congress of the 22nd of July, 1861, is madly hurrying. Circumstances' are doing relative to appointments to fill vacancies in the more to bring it to an end, than could be ac volunteer army of the Republic, Governor complished by all the emancipation acts passed Curtin, on the 26th of February, 1862, issued a between now and deomsday. general order, in which he fixes the rule of seniority in all such cases. carry away. Some fighting took place yesterday between their gunboats and our seige batteries, in which we lost twenty killed and wounded. A shot from one of their guns dismounted one of our 24 pounders, killing four or five. Capt. Carr of the 10th Illinois was killed on Wednesday night, while placing pickets. The loss of the enemy is not known, as they carried off their dead and wounded. They were supposed to number 6,000 men. Island No. 10 is reported evacuated.

Col. John A. Logan arrived here to-day from afternoon from Nashville.
