HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Morning, March 18, 1862.

THE HUTCHINSON FAMILY.—The celebrated Hutchinson Family have engaged Brant's Hall and will give two concerts, on this and to-morrow evenings, the 18th and 19th.

RELEASED ON BAIL.—The German Jew, named Henry Hoffman, arrested last Tuesday by officer Flick, charged with passing, and having in possession a quantity of counterfeit bank notes, has been released from prison on bail.

ARRIVED.—The remains of Col. James Campbell, who fell gallantly fighting, at the head of the New York 79th regiment at the disastrous battle of Bull Run, arrived here at eight o'clock last evening by the train from Baltimore, and will immediately sent forward to Elizabeth, Union county for interment, the obsequies of which will be performed to-day.

SIGNOR BLITZ AND VALENTINE.—These distinguished artists opened Sanford's Opera House last evening for a series of their inimitable entertainments in necromancy and ventriloquism. It would be a work of superogation to speak of the merits of either Blitz or Valentine, as they are too well known in our community to require any commendation by us, and the mere announcement of their intended concert will of course be sufficient to draw a crowded house. During his last visit here, Signor Blitz has added additional tricks to his repertoire of necromantic feats, which together with the trained canines, the redoubtable "Bobby" and the inimitable ventriloquism of Mr. Valentine, will furnish altogether a rich fund of amusement to our play-going community. They perform again this evening.

THE SONGS AND MUSIC OF THE AGES.—This is the subject chosen by the Rev. T. H. Robinson for the second lecture of the Young Men's Christian Association course, to be delivered by him this (Tuesday) evening in the Presbyterian Lecture Room, corner of Market Square. The well known ability of the lecturer is a sufficient guaranty that the lecture will be able and interesting; and this interest will be heightened by the novel feature of illustrations of the lecture, during the course of its delivery, to be given by the Harmonic Society, who will sing specimen pieces of the music of the different centuries, beginning with the Hymn of St. Ambrose, followed by a specimen of the Gregorian Chant, the music of the Reformation, and of later periods. We hope their efforts to instruct and please, will meet with the response of a full house. Tickets may be had at the book and drug stores.

THE EIGHTEENTH U. S. INFANTRY.—A recent number of the Delaware (O.) Democratic Standard, commenting upon our notice of the Eighteenth United States Infantry and Captain J. M. Eyster, thus speaks of that gallant Captain: "Captain Eyster opened a recruiting office in this place last summer, and in a few weeks raised more than a company of men. He made many warm friends while here, all of whom fully endorse the above. We regard him as an able efficient officer, as well as a gentleman, and cordially hail his promotion to a major-ship as the 'eminently fit to be made.' That he has filled up very rapidly, more so than any other regiment in the regular army, we think is in a great degree owing to the energy and popularity of Captain Eyster.—If the government could command the services of three more such officers, it would soon crush the rebellion."

ANOTHER BLUNDER OF THE "UNION."—A few days since the local reporter of the Patriot and Union, announced that the Eastern Division of the Pennsylvania Canal was in a state of thorough repair, and only required the completion of a floating bridge above this city, to be ready for the opening to-day. We visited the "wind-bridge" above alluded to, expecting to see a new structure, or at least a score or more of men making repairs to the old one, but were disappointed. The structure is the old one, not in good condition, nor has it undergone any repairs since it was erected. The only wind-bridge on the Eastern division now in process of erection or being repaired, is located a short distance above Marietta, which our cotemporary of the Marietian says will not be completed for a week or ten days hence, although a large force of mechanics are busy at work. We make this correction for the benefit of our readers interested in the navigation of the canal, who may have been misled, and put to considerable inconvenience by the blunders of our blundering cotemporary.

SPRING STYLES.—Our milliners are bringing out their spring bonnets, and some of them certainly make a fine display. The style is outre to a great extent, the top of the bonnet towering high above the forehead to a lofty peak. The space between the forehead and the peak is filled up with a solid mass of artificial flowers of various colors—pink, lilac, or pale blue mixed with white. To some faces the style is becoming, to others so much the reverse that the fickle goddess fashion is very likely to be extensively ostracised. Neapolitan and fine French chip seem to be the leading materials. Crape bonnets for spring, will not make their appearance for a month. Cloaks of various styles are quite as much in demand as they were last year. The most fashionable plain colors are pink, white and light green. Short cloaks appear to be coming in fashion again, so that people having "spring cloaks" left over from last season will be considerably behind the times when winter cloaks, with out-toned hand organs, are played out.—The specimens exhibited are trimmed with exceeding plainness. While some few long cloaks may be worn this spring, the short ones are a sort of cross between a "wamus" and a red garibaldi shirt—are the style that bid fair to be in the rage. Altogether, the spring fashions of 1862 are merciful to the pocket book—perhaps this is the case in order that fashion may not be defied, for, were it otherwise, fashion this spring would be taboced, and necessity would be united into a first class virtue.

THE SIXTH WARD.—The Union Republicans of the Sixth Ward will meet at the May House, Ridge Road, this evening, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of making Ward nominations.

THE SEA-COAST DEFENCES.—To-morrow morning there will be a meeting of the Governors of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, and a deputation from the Legislatures of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, at the Continental Hotel, in Philadelphia, to consult upon the best plan to be adopted for the establishment of permanent coast defences. Messrs. Ketcham and G. R. Smith will represent the Senate, and Messrs. Abbott, Armstrong, Scott, Williams and Smith of Chester, the House. The Legislature of Delaware not being in session, will not be represented.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—For two or three weeks past, the oyster trade has been in some agitation because of the impossibility of getting such stock as is desirable. The oysters now brought to Baltimore are said to be of very inferior quality, and the supply is not equal to the demand. No oysters from Virginia, except those on the coast of the Eastern shore, are to be had, and they are so eagerly sought after that few or none fall into the hands of the packing trade. The large supplies from York river and Lynhaven bay, of former years are still cut off, and they were generally the last that found their way to market.

AN ADDITIONAL PRAYER.—The following additional prayer has been issued by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter, to be read by the clergy of this Diocese, when there may be occasion:

"O Eternal God, the shield of our help, beneath whose sovereign defence thy people dwell in safety, we bless and praise, we laud and magnify thy glorious name, for all thy goodness to the people of this land, and especially for the success with which, of late, thou hast crowned our efforts to maintain the authority of law, and to restore once more the blessings of union and peace. Inspire our souls with grateful love; lift up our voices in songs of thankfulness; make us humble and watchful in our prosperity, and prepare us for whatever reverses thou shalt see that we need. Give wisdom and grace to our rulers. Pour constancy and courage, and charity, towards all men, into the hearts of our people. Draw towards us those who are now alienated from us in appearance or in heart, and hasten, O Lord of hosts, the blessed day, when as one people, we may once more give thanks unto thee in thy Holy Church, and by our daily lives show forth thy praise, through Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen."

THE CANALS.—The water was admitted into the Union canal on Saturday, and navigation will commence this week. The prospect for a brisk trade during the coming season is said to be encouraging. The proposed arrangement between the bond-holders and general creditors has been defeated by two or three of the bond-holders opposing it. The management of the canal consequently rests in the hands of Trustees. The net revenue from tolls, last year, was $90,268,61. The expense of the trustees were $58,868,27. The company seems to be suffering greatly from litigation. The report says:—"The costly, continued and wearisome litigation adverted to in the last report is now in full operation, and to what extent it will use up the money that ought to have been distributed among the bondholders can only be determined by the result."

THE Susquehanna Canal, north of the Junction, will open navigation about the 25th inst. giving transportation from the coal regions to tide water earlier than usual.

The Juniata Canal will be open about the 1st of April.

The Tide Water Canal will be open and in navigable order by the 20th inst.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I deem it due to the merchants and business men of Harrisburg to state that the unscrupulous attack made on my personal character in this morning's Patriot and Union, was provoked because I have been doing my simple duty in sustaining the business men of our city while they were opposing a gigantic scheme to plunder and oppress the laboring men and mechanics of Dauphin county. U. J. Jones, the conductor of the local department of that paper, and the author of the slander I refer to, is the paid agent of the "Harrisburg Exchange and Mercantile Company," and is supposed to have in his hand either a written obligation for $1000 or a covenant for a situation worth that amount per year as salary, to be given by certain of the corporators mentioned in the bill to incorporate the Harrisburg Exchange, provided he succeeds in boring the bill through the House as he has already done through the Senate by misrepresentation and falsehood. Thus while I sustained the merchants in their just opposition, and ruined the prospects of Mr. Jones getting the salary and lucrative position of chief clerk in a junk and shave shop, I invoked his malevolence, the full extent of which was exhibited to the public this morning.

I submit this to the public, candidly confessing that while I am humbly seconding the efforts of the most respectable men in this city to protect the fair fame of Harrisburg from the establishment of a den such as disgraces the purlieus of New York and Philadelphia in our midst, it is more than one man can bear in silence to be made the target of those who have been disappointed in the possession of a sinecure, the salary of which was to be derived from the profits wrung by usury out of the misery and infatuation of the unfortunate and depraved. But I am satisfied that the public will do me justice, even while the "chief clerk" of the junk shop in embryo thus labors for my destruction, while I am striving to do my duty to my employers, the public, and myself.

GEORGE H. MORGAN.

TWO HUNDRED PIECES of beautiful new spring calicos; a large lot of bleached and unbleached muslin of the best make; blue checks, at 12½ cents per yard; white stockings, at 12½ cents; another lot of those good white ribbed stockings; ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, at 12½ cents; children's pocket handkerchiefs, with border, 5 cents; shirt breasts 12½, 15 and up to 37½ cents; 25 pieces new pant stuff; undershirts and drawers very cheap; cotton and woolen socks, at all prices; 40 dozen woolen stockings, for children, 12½ cents; 1¼ yard bleached muslin 12½ cents; all wool French merinos, all colors, at 62 and 75 cents. Having bought the balance of the stock of a city wholesale house of plain and figured Swiss muslins, brillants, white cambrics, Nausuck and Victoria lawns, suitable for dresses, as those goods will be very scarce and dear next summer now is the time to buy. Our stock of Furs at cost.

S. LEVY,
Rhoads' Old Stand.

FIRST DAYS OF SPRING.—A thousand welcomes to spring. Though she cannot bring back with all her flowers, the flower of our youth, yet she brings joy to old earth still; the bees are once more out, the hare runs forgetting her fears, across the verdant fields; all nature is full of motion; the blue birds and goldfinch sing, and man is busy at fence and drain, is plowing and sowing and pruning and planting, while he talks of good years gone, and hopes for more, spring stirs everything with her influence—and makes us more than all other seasons, in love with life. Urich & Bowman, are taking of the same influence, are now receiving their first stock of spring dry goods, at the south east corner of Front and Market streets. 2t

NEW GOODS.—I am now selling off my entire stock of goods at and below cost, or 25 per cent. cheaper than you can purchase elsewhere, viz: fine linen shirts, 75 cts. to $1; shirts, 50 cts., and 60 cts. with linen bosoms; night shirts, 50 cts; under shirts and drawers, 40 cts. to 87 cts., all wool; monkey jackets, 50 cts. to $1; cotton and woolen hose 10 cts. to 16 cts; silk ties, 12½, 15 and 18 cts; collars, 8 cts. to 15 cts. a piece; ladies' collars, 4 and 5 cts.; cuffs, 4 and 5 cts. a piece; under sleeves, 18 cts.; fine cambric at 18 and 18 cts. per yard, worth 25 cts.; Marseilles bosoms of a new style, and fast collars, 12½ cts.; all linen bosoms, 15 cts and upwards. If you want cheap and good goods just go to James A. Lynn, at the Harrisburg Cheap Shirt Manufactory, where he is selling off without reserve. N. B.—Shirts, &c. made to measure, Room next to Hummel & Killinger's grocery store, 12 Market street.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Utica, N.Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.,) and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. DUPONCO'S Golden Pills, they might refer any Lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young Lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—"We were particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by C. A. RANDALL, No. 2, Jones Row, and U. K. KELLER, 91 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. By sending either of them $1.00 throught he Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country, free of postage.

N. B.—Look out for counterfeits. Buy no Golden Pills of any kind unless the box is signed S. D. HOWE. All others is a base imposition and unsafe; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of being humbugged out of your money,) buy only of those who show the signature of S. D. Howe on every box, which has recently been added on account of the Pills being counterfeited. The ingredients composing the above Pills are made known to every Agent, and they are safe, and will perform all claimed for them.
