LETTERS FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES. Letters intended for the Pennsylvania Reserves. for the present, should be addressed as heretofore, to the Washington City Post Office.

A BUTTER RATION.—Nearly every member of Congress, and five hundred and twenty-one field officers, have petitioned the Secretary of War to grant a butter ration to the soldlers. It is said that the ration will be granted. We fear the soldiers will not prize it much when they get it. Rancid butter will be no great treat, and fresh butter will be out of the question.

BAD MONEY -The issue of small bills by the banks of this State has given the rascally counterfeiters a larger field for the display of their thlevish ingenuity. Every fort-night there seems to be a new addition to floating stock of scoundrelism, and the public cannot be too cautious in receiving bank notes. The cunning regues who manage to elude the vigilance of detectives, are always careful to anticipate the publications of Peterson and Hodge, and to put into circulation a fresh batch simultaneoutly with the issue of the Detectors Hence. these are no guide till after the public have realized the infliction of a new swindle.

BILL FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF BAWDY HOUSES. -Sepator Irish has read in place an act for the suppression of bawdy houses. It enacts that any person or persons who shall keep or maintain such houses, and shall refuse to deliver up to the owner possession of the premises occunied for such illegal purposes after ten days' notice and demand served on the premises.
