

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, March 25, 1862.

THE REMAINS OF Col. Wm. G. Murray, of the 84th Pennsylvania, are expected to arrive here some time to-morrow morning, most probably in the 11 o'clock train from Chambersburg.

AT HALF PAST.—The flag over the Friendship Fire company's building and over the dome of the State Capitol were at half past two as a token of respect to the memory of the gallant Col. Wm. G. Murray, who fell at the head of his regiment in the recent battle near Winchester, Va.

THE TIMBER BUSINESS.—The Raftsmen's Journal, referring to the timber business in Clearfield county and the region in that vicinity, says that from inquiries made during the last ten days, and the information obtained, it inclines to the opinion that the quantity of timber taken out this season will fall considerably short of what it has been for several years past.

FIREMEN'S MEETING.—A meeting is to be held in the public school house, Bainbridge, Lancaster county, on Tuesday next, for the purpose of compelling the Tide Water Canal company to alter their dams so as to permit the free passage of fish up the Susquehanna river. We understand that able counsel has been retained and that a determined effort is about to be made to abate this long talked of nuisance.

SUDDEN ILLNESS OF JOHN R. BOYD.—The personal friends of Mr. John R. Boyd, keeper of the Dauphin county prison, will be pained to learn that he was attacked, this morning, with what is said to be congestion of the brain.—Physicians were promptly summoned, and the proper restoratives administered, but up to the time of writing this article, he still lies very low, and there is scarcely any hopes entertained of his recovery. Mr. Boyd has been laboring for the last few days with a slight cold, which, however, caused him but little inconvenience, and he continued to pursue his usual daily avocations both in and out of doors until he experienced the attack of illness above noticed this morning.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—This fashionable place of amusement was filled last evening to its utmost capacity to witness the performance of Sanford's Philadelphia Opera Troupe. Moran and Dixey are the most common geniuses we ever had the pleasure of witnessing, and kept the audience in a continued roar of laughter. J. L. Carnross is one of the sweetest balladists in the profession, and received much merited applause. The solos, by Buch, a Becket and Dougherty, were given in a masterly style; and the dancing of Mr. J. Sanford was loudly encored. The evening's entertainment concluded with a Becket's burlesque of Romeo and Juliet, which contains some capital hits, and should be a warning, indeed, to those dishonest contractors who, taking advantage of our national difficulties, seek to defraud the people.

BAD SIDE WALKS.—The sidewalks in several parts of the city want fixing up very badly. In wet weather it is nothing but squash, squelch and over boot tops. Lucky it is for the ladies that high balmy boots are in fashion, as in some parts of the town they are in danger of "swamping." On some streets are puddles of water mourning the loss of departed bricks, on others the bricks have risen en masse, on a regular bender. Some are on edge, others on end, and not a few have taken their departure. It is decidedly pleasant for gents with "stubb-toed boots" to travel that way after nightfall, and in daytime during a thaw, it reminds one of the thin ice called "kiddy benders," up in one place and down in another. As the weather is now getting fine, we hope to see these nuisances in the shape of "duck ponds" abated. When we go walking, we go, but we don't care about swimming up the streets every time it rains.

THE FRIENDS AND COL. MURRAY.—Colonel W. G. Murray, who fell in the recent battle near Winchester, Virginia, during his residence in this city was an active member of the Friendship Fire company, to which his attachment was of the warmest character, as evidenced by the many beautiful tokens sent by him to the company long after his change of residence from this city to Hollidaysburg. We see by the proceedings of a meeting held last night, that the members of the Friendship company, as a tribute of respect to the memory of their departed associate, will proceed in a body to the depot to-morrow afternoon, for the purpose of meeting the corpse, and accompanying it to the residence of his mother, corner of Second and Pine streets. The other fire companies are invited to participate in this arrangement. As a further mark of respect the company has resolved to drape the house and apparatus in mourning for the space of thirty days, and directed the flag to be suspended at half mast.

THE PURITY OF KEROSINE.—Mr. Editor: After reading in the TELEGRAPH of last evening an account of the coroner's inquest at Green Point, and the test applied to kerosene, I thought I would try some that I was using, I put some, cold, into a cold cup, and applied a lighted match to it, when it ignited within one second. Was the test properly applied? Was the kerosene of the exclusive kind? If so, how are we to protect ourselves from such dangerous stuff, for the kerosene was what I had considered a superior article? It gives such a clear, good light that I should not like to give it up, but do not wish to endanger my own or the lives of my family by its use. Cannot something be done to make us feel a little more secure in its use? HOUSEKEEPER.

We think that the test was properly applied, and that the oil could not have been pure. With ordinary care, no accident could result from the use of such kerosene, but perfect security can only be secured by using the genuine oil, which will not ignite until heated to the temperature of one hundred degrees. There undoubtedly is pure kerosene in the market, and the only way to find it is to buy at different stores, and patiently apply the test until the pure oil is discovered.

A VISIT TO JERUSALEM AND THE SURROUNDING COUNTRY.—We trust our readers will not forget the lecture to-night at the Methodist Church on the above subject, to be delivered by the Rev. W. C. Cattell. From present indications there will be a large audience, as all classes of our citizens seem to be interested in the subject, and very many of them in the lecture.—We think we are safe in assuring all that they will be well rewarded for the time and money spent in attending. The lecture will commence at quarter-past seven, p. m.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—Death of Col. William G. Murray.—At a stated meeting of the Friendship Fire Company, held in their hall, it was announced that Col. William G. Murray, of the 84th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, late a member of our company, was killed at the head of his regiment, in a battle fought yesterday, near Winchester, Va., when on motion, a committee of three were appointed to draft a series of resolutions. The President appointed Messrs Sullivan S. Child, Andrew Schlayer and Edward P. Lescaure, who made the following report.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to take from among our absent members—who are battling for our glorious cause, our worthy and much esteemed fellow member, Col. William G. Murray; and

WHEREAS, He, like many more of our fellow members, went forth at his country's call, to show its TRAITORS that our laws shall and will be enforced, even at the sacrifice of precious lives. Therefore, be it,

Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of one so dear to us, we cannot fail to express our feelings in relation to the decease of our late fellow member, Col. William G. Murray, who has been taken away from us in the prime of life and vigor of manhood.

Resolved, That we deeply and sincerely regret the loss of one who was endeared to us by his many virtues, as well as the unbounded interest he always manifested in the affairs of the company. Although absent from us for several years, we can safely say that his place cannot easily be filled.

Resolved, That by the death of Col. William G. Murray, this company has lost one who, from nearly the organization of the company to the time he was stricken down by the hand of some ruthless traitor of our country, manifested a zeal as untiring and energy as unflagging as it is almost possible for human nature to sustain.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the orphan children, bereaved mother, and afflicted sisters of our deceased member; and although we cannot bring to them their affectionate father, dutiful son, and loving brother, we deeply sympathize in their sad hour of bereavement.

Resolved, That as the last tribute of respect we can pay to him, the company, in a body, meet his corpse at the depot, on its arrival here, and escort it to the residence of his mother; and that we respectfully invite the fire department of the city to participate; and that the house and apparatus be placed in mourning for thirty days; and that our flag be hung at half mast.

Resolved, That the above be entered on the minutes of the meeting, and be published in the daily papers of the city, and a copy sent to the children and mother of the deceased.

The report and resolutions were, on motion, unanimously adopted.

GEORGE EARNST, President.

Attest: SULLIVAN S. CHILD, Secretary, HARRISBURG, March 23, 1862.

THE FORTY-SIXTH AND EIGHTY-FOURTH PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENTS.—Their Field and Line Officers.—As the Eighty fourth is known, and the Forty-sixth is supposed to have participated in the battle at Winchester last Sunday, we have gone to the trouble to compile from the official records in the State department the following list of their field and line officers. It will be seen that considerable changes have been made in the latter, since the regiments first took the field. It might be proper to add that the first and second Lieutenants of company I, Eighty-fourth regiment, have not yet been commissioned—the positions being claimed by other parties.

WHAT MRS. SMITH AND MRS. JONES SAY.—"Good morning, Mrs. Jones," and then Mrs. Smith went on to say—"Oh! where did you get that beautiful Plaid Saxony dress?" Mrs. Jones—"At Ulrich & Bowman's, corner of Front and Market streets. Indeed, I never saw a handsomer stock of dry goods out of New York or Philadelphia; and then, Mrs. Smith, they are selling so very cheap, that one cannot help buying." And so the good old ladies went on to say.

NEW GOODS.—I am now selling off my entire stock of goods at and below cost, or 25 per cent. cheaper than you can purchase elsewhere, viz: fine linen shirts, 75 cts to $1; shirts, 60 cts., and 60 cts. with linen bosoms; night shirts, 50 cts.; under shirts and drawers, 40 cts. to 87 cts.; all wool monkey jackets, 60 cts. to $1; silk ties, 12 1/2 to 15 cents; collars, 8 cts. to 15 cts. a piece; ladies' collars, 4 and 5 cts.; cuffs, 4 and 5 cts. a piece; under sleeves, 18 cts.; fine cambric at 18 and 18 cts. per yard, worth 25 cts.; Marseilles bosoms of a new style, and fast collars, 12 1/2 cts.; all linen bosoms, 15 cts and upwards. If you want cheap and good goods just go to James A. Lynn, at the Harrisburg Cheap Shirt Manufactory, where he is selling off without reserve. N. B.—Shirts, &c. made to measure, Room next to Hummel & Killinger's grocery store, 12 Market street.

TWO HUNDRED PIECES of beautiful new spring calicos; a large lot of bleached and unbleached muslin of the best make; blue checks, at 12 1/2 cents per yard; white stockings, at 12 1/2 cents; another lot of those good white ribbed stockings; ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, at 12 1/2 cents; children's pocket handkerchiefs, with border, 5 cents; shirt bands 12 1/2, 15 and up to 37 1/2 cents; 25 pieces new pair 15; undershirts and drawers cheap; and woolen socks, at all prices; 40 dozen new stockings, for children, 12 1/2 cents; 14 yard bleached muslin, at 12 1/2 cents; all wool French merinos, all colors, at 62 and 75 cents. Having bought the balance of the stock of a city wholesale house of plain and figured Swiss muslins, brilliant, white cambrics, Nausauk and Victoria lawns, suitable for dresses, as those goods will be very scarce and dear next summer now is the time to buy. Our stock of Furs at cost. S. L. SAWY, Rhoads' Old Stand.

A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. "Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Giles, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.) and said that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if you should doubt the true veracity of the Pills, I can assure you that she considered it a duty as well as a pleasure to give her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into convulsions, taken with spasms, became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—We give, particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions are given in every box. Price $1. Sold wholesale and retail by C. A. BARNARD, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. RALL, 91 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. Agents for the State of Pennsylvania, are: Carline; S. G. Wild, Newville; J. C.
