

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, March 26, 1862.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—Business notices in the local column, and transient advertisements, must invariably be accompanied with the cash to insure their insertion in the TELEGRAPH.

FOUND.—A Turkey morocco portmanteau containing a small amount of money and some postage stamps. The owner can have it by calling at this office, and paying for this advertisement.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—This well conducted place of rational amusement nightly increases the admiration of our citizens. Without exaggeration this is the best Operatic Troupe that has ever visited this city. The drolleries of Dixy and Moran keep the audience in a continual roar of laughter, while the sweet ballads of Carross must charm the most fastidious ear.

DAVIS' PANORAMA OF AMERICA AND THE GREAT REBELLION.—This popular and highly artistic panorama will be again exhibited at Brant's Hall in this city, next Friday evening. It is now fairly before the public, and the interest it has excited, and the applause it has elicited, wherever it has been exhibited, are the best evidences of its intrinsic artistic merit.

THE CITY LOOK-UP is almost tenantless now o' nights. The habitues of a year ago have mostly gone on another route. Many of them have enlisted, and not a few have ceased their pilgrimage, and repose quietly in the cemetery attached to the County Alms House. Poor "bummer!" yours is a hard life; no one to care for you, few even notice you, unless to shrink away and sneer at your rags. Many are brought to this mode of living from force of circumstances. A turn of the wheel and the rich man of to-day may be the beggar of to-morrow.

THE LECTURES ON JERUSALEM.—This lecture, the third in the Young Men's Christian Association course, delivered last night by the Rev. W. C. Cattell, in the Methodist Church, was in every respect a complete success. The church, which is one of the largest in the city, was completely filled, and the ability with which the lecturer handled his subject may be inferred from the fact that he held the close attention of his audience for more than an hour and a half.

FOR THE LADIES.—Our storekeepers and dress-makers have opened the spring fashions for ladies' wear. The new spring silks are all in plain chevre leaf patterns upon a changeable ground. The dark colors, brown, steel, purple, green, etc., changing with white, and the figure chevre in darker shades of the same color.

PRESENTATION AT THE CAPITOL.—Just after the adjournment of the House of Representatives at one o'clock to-day, Messrs. John Smull and E. S. Capron, assistant clerks of the House, approached Mr. Speaker Rowe, and on behalf of the chief clerk, E. H. Bauch, formally presented him with a handsome gavel, as a token of the donor's regard for his many fine social qualities, and his uniform urbane and courteous deportment, while performing his official duties.

ARRIVAL OF THE REMAINS OF COL. WM. G. MURRAY.—The remains of Col. Wm. G. Murray, of the 84th Pennsylvania regiment volunteers, who fell in the battle against the rebels near Winchester, Va., last Sunday, arrived here by the regular passenger train from Chambersburg at 11 o'clock this morning.

Although the anticipated arrival at that hour was not generally known, yet several hundred of our citizens, including many females, were at the depot awaiting the approach of the train. The remains were enclosed in an ordinary walnut coffin, trimmed with crape, and were accompanied by Second Lieutenant Charles O'Neal, of company C, a sergeant and two privates, all of the 84th regiment, detailed as an escort.

After some time spent in removing the coffin from the car to the hearse of Mr. J. B. Boyd, in waiting, a procession was formed, which moved as follows: Committee of four gentlemen, personal friends of the deceased.

HEARSE BEARING THE COFFIN. Private of the Escort, with musket reversed.

Lieut. Barrett, Lieut. O'Neal, Sergeant of the Escort. His Excellency Gov. Curtin, Quartermaster General Hale, and Commissary General Irvin.

Joint Committee of the Legislature to accompany the remains to Hollidaysburg. Senate—Messrs. Baily, Serrill and Glatz. House—Messrs. Banks, Gross and Blanchard. Delegation of the Friendship Fire Company, of which the deceased was a member. Delegations from other Fire Companies. Citizens generally.

The hearse and cortege passed slowly up Market street, followed on the sidewalks by an immense concourse of people, while the doorways and windows of the residences were thronged with spectators, who witnessed the solemn and impressive scene with feelings of the deepest veneration and respect for the memory of a brave and gallant officer.

Upon the arrival of the hearse at the residence of the mother of the deceased, corner of Pine and Second streets, the coffin was carried into the front parlor of the building, where the upper portion of its lid was opened, in order to afford his sorrowing mother, sisters and relatives an opportunity of viewing the features of the deceased, after which the doors were opened to satisfy the curiosity of the public with a similar opportunity.

The countenance of the deceased, with the exception of the palor brought with death, retained all its features, and was easily recognized by those familiar with it when animated and living.

From a conversation with one of the escort we learn that the gallant deceased received his death wound by being struck with a grape shot in his forehead, which tore off and shattered the frontal of his skull.

Previous to being wounded his horse was shot from under him, and it was while advancing with the color-bearer of the regiment, and when he was beneath the folds of the stars and stripes, he received the fatal shot, and fell exclaiming, "Forward to the charge."

As a mark of respect to the deceased, the flags in various sections of the city were all at half-mast to-day, and the fire bells were tolled during the progress of the hearse bearing the corpse from the depot to the residence of Mrs. Murray.

The body of the deceased will remain over night at his mother's residence, and be taken to Hollidaysburg in the train for the west which leaves here at nine o'clock to-morrow morning, accompanied by his relatives, the escort from the 84th regiment, and the Legislative committee appointed for that purpose.

UNLAWFUL.—Many persons indulge in the habit of mutilating and tearing down handbills at stores, hotels and other public places, greatly to the detriment of those who pay for the printing and posting these bills; perhaps they are not aware that they are violating the law by so doing, and rendering themselves liable to a fine and costs. They should be cautious or they may find it an expensive indulgence.

ROBERT AT THE DEPOT.—A letter was received this morning by Mayor Kepner, from a gentleman of Williamsport, Pa., stating that he was robbed between nine and ten o'clock last Friday night, at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, in this city, of a wallet containing the sum of $68, and that he heard of another gentleman who was relieved at the same time of a purse containing $90. The writer believes the thief to be a short, thick-set man, with black hair, wearing a black sack coat and high black hat.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN R. BOYD.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. John R. Boyd, keeper of the Dauphin county prison, which occurred a little after two o'clock this afternoon. The immediate cause of Mr. Boyd's death was a severe attack of congestion of the brain at an early hour yesterday morning, a notice of which appeared in last evening's TELEGRAPH. The deceased was about 46 years of age, a native of this city, and has always borne an irreproachable character for honesty and integrity. His death will create profound grief among his numerous friends. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his untimely loss.

A NEW FEE BILL.—The following bill has passed both Houses of the Legislature, and is now in the hands of the Governor for his approval: AN ACT establishing a fee bill in certain cases in the county of Dauphin.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the fees, or costs, to be hereafter charged or received, or demanded, or taken by the mayor, alderman, or justices of the peace in the city of Harrisburg, or in the county of Dauphin, in all cases wherein any person, or persons shall be charged with being vagrants, idle and disorderly, or drunk and disorderly persons, or with committing an assault, or assault and battery, shall be as follows: For all proceedings in all, or any of the above stated cases, except cases of assault, or assault and battery, the sum of twenty cents, and no more than twenty cents, shall be charged by the said officers in either of such cases, for any official services rendered therein for committing to prison any person charged with either of the above offences, except cases of assault, or assault and battery, the sum of twenty-five cents, no more, or further fees than as above stated, shall be charged or paid to the said officers in any case wherein two or more persons are arrested for committing any of the said offences at the same time, or at the same place, except in cases of assault and assault and battery.

SECTION 2. That in the above named cases, except in cases of assault, or assault and battery, the fees to be charged and received, or demanded, or taken by the constables in the said city and county, or by the chief police constable, or police constable, or other officer of the said city, shall be as follows, to wit: For arresting any person, or persons, according to law, either upon or without warrant, or other process, and taking such person or persons before either of the officers named in the preceding section of this act for any of the offences therein specified, except cases of assault, or assault and battery, the sum of twenty cents for any of the offences therein specified, except cases of assault and assault and battery, for committing to prison upon process issued by either of the officers named in the preceding section of this act, and including mileage for all persons arrested within the limits of the city of Harrisburg, when such mileage actually traveled would exceed two miles, three cents for each mile actually traveled in making said arrest and committing to prison; but in no case shall mileage be charged separately for making said arrest and committing to prison.

SECTION 3. That in all cases of assault, or assault and battery, wherein the grand jury shall return the bill of indictment a true bill, the fees now allowed by law in such cases, shall be paid to the said officers in the mode and manner now prescribed by law, in all cases of assault, or assault and battery, wherein the grand jury shall return the bills of indictment grandis, or not a true bill, no fees or costs shall be paid by the county of Dauphin to any of the officers named in the preceding sections of this act, and all laws heretofore enacted, or now in force providing for the payment of fees or costs, to any of all of the officers named in the preceding sections of this act shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, so far as relates to the city of Harrisburg and the county of Dauphin.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. A GIFT TO THE LADIES. "What the doctor has said?" from one of the first ladies in this city. "I was called upon by my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.) and told them that he had cured, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they might refer any lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into convulsions—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health. We do not advertise in buying the genuine. Fall and winter explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by C. A. BANNARD, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. KILMER, 91 Market street, Harrisburg. By sending either of them $1.00 through the Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country. Free of postage. No. 1.—"I took two boxes of your Pills, and I feel that they are of any kind such as the Pills I have mentioned. There is a base imposition and waste; therefore, if you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of the health and nature of your children) be sure to know who show the signature of S. H. Ives on every box which has recently been added on account of the Pills being 'non-explosive.' The ingredients composing the above Pills make a safe, and a pleasant, and they are safe, and will perform all claimed for them. Sold also by T. Lumberger, Lebanon; A. J. Kaufmann, Mechanicsville; M.
