Those of our troops principally engaged were as follows:

The Eighty-fourth Pennsylvania Regiment the One-hundred-and tenth Pennsylvania Regi-ment; the Fourth Ohio Regiment; the Seventh Ohlo Regiment ; the Eighth Ohio Regiment ; the Sevent: Indiana Regiment ; the Thirteenth Indiana Regiment: the Fourteenth Indiana Regiment; the First Virginia Regiment; the Michigan Cavalry; Daum's Battery of Parrott gans.

It was evidently known to many in Win chester that Jackson was approaching, from the holiday attire and buoyabcy of spirits previously displayed by numbers of the Secession residents, both men and women.

The fact of Gen. Shield's command having een screened fr m observation on the east side of the town, led the informants of Jackson to believe that all our troops were evacuating and that Jackson could enter unobstructed. This evidence is derived from the prisoners. Goo i judges estimate the enemy's loss at over two hundred killed, five hundred wounded.and three hundred prisoners, including an aid-decamp of Jackson's staff.

Out loss was sixty-five killed and about one hundred and twenty five wounded.
