The House reassembled at three o'clock, P. M. OBSEQUIES OF COL. MURRAY. Mr. SCOTT offered the following resolution: Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Colonel William Gray Murray, the members of this House will meet at the residence of his mother, corner of Second and Pine streets, in this city, on Friday morn-ing next, at 8½ o'clock, and, in a body, escort his remains to the railroad depot.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. HOOPER in continuation said that laying tax of fitty cents per ton on pig iron, would yield from Pennsylvania alone about a quarter of a million of dollars. He had no idea the bill would get through Congress by the first of May. Having passed this House, the Senate would consider it, and besides, Secretary Chase would then put in a bill of his own. At the rate of our expenditures, $3,000,000 per day, the notes recently authorized would not last two months, and they would be under the ne-cessity of passing another bill before the close of the session of Congress. He wanted the bill properly matured to satisfy all interests, and declared he was ready to go his death to put down the accursed rebellion.

Mr. Mallory said the amendment was like a two edged sword, cutting both ways. The Morrill tariff bill gave Pennsylvania a monopoly. The people of Kentucky depend for the material upon that State. Now if the gentle-man from Indiana would modify his amendment so as to invite foreign competition he would vote for it. Mr. Cox's amendment was rejected—ayes 25, nays not counted.

Mr. Noble offered an amendment, taxing an hracite coal twenty-five cents per ton, and biuminous coal one-halt cent per bushel. Mesers. Campbell, Lehnan and Wright sev erally opposed the amendment, showing the Strictly the ONLY Mercantile Sale made, that is both mar29-dly injustic of imposing such a tax. The last Price 15 cents.
