BARRISBURG, PA Tuesday Afternoon, April 1, 1862;

FLOWERS! !- Don't forget the great sale of fruit and ornamental trees, shade trees and flowers, from Burst's nursery, Philadelphia, to morrow, at the lower market house.

THE EXHIBITION of Davis' Panorama of "America and the Great Rebellion" has closed for the present, and will remain in this city until the completion of a new section embracing a number of new battle scenes illustrative of the progress of the rebellion, on which the artist will shortly be engaged.

WE DIRECT ATTENTION to the advertisement of Mr. Geo. M'Calla, jeweler, No. 38, Market street, found in another column of this evening's Telegraph The display of jewelry at Mr. M'Calla's establishment is of the most beautiful description, and those who wish to purchase cannot fail to be suited by giving it a SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.-The famous and popular Sanford is with us again. It is almost a work of supererogation to explain to the Harrisburg public what kind of entertainment Sanford gives. He comes for a short engagement with a grand combination company of the cream of the profession, who have performed at Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington to crowded houses. A change of programme every evening.

A LATINIZED RECIPE.—Every man who has pride enough to own a horse is anxious to have it appear well. We insert the following universal panacea for all the ills horses are hair to: Recipe-Bushus et curricum bus, adlibitum; elbow greaset quantum sufficus; blanketus firstratus : stablus warmus : fodderus, never say dictus, but mealus et oatus ; exerciscus non compromisus. RAFTING.—The Raftman's Journal, of Clearfield, Pa., says: Rafting was brought to a stand about the middle of last week on account of low water, the weather having set in cold enough to prevent the snow from melting sufficient to keep up the streams. Several inches of snow fell on Friday, which melted a great deal, but there is still enough lying in the woods to make a good rafting flood-the weather being . favorable. On Tuesday morning the ground was frozen bard, and continued quite cold during the day.

The relic is worth examination.

PROF. ANDERSON.—The wonder-loving portion of our citizens will be pleased to learn that the renowned Prof. Anderson will give three entertainments at Brant's Hall in our city, commencing next Monday evening. His wonderful feats of legerdemain—or prestigitation, we believe, is now the proper word—bave excited from among us our much loved and deeply the wonder and admiration of all who behold them. A strong objection to the action of the Board is in not allowing each army corps to arrange its own uniform. As the recommendations of the Board have to be passed upon by the Secretary of War, it is possible that none of them will be adopted. It is evident, however, from the agitation of the subiect that some essential changes in uniform will soon be made. Many urge that the present style of officers' dress has too much tinsel and glitter about it, while others would make it still more showy and gewgawy; but the Board has the matter in hands now, and doubt-

Money.-Money is a queer institution. It buys provender, satisfies justice, and heals wounded honor. Everything resolves itself into cash, from stock jobbing to building churches. Childhood craves pennies; youth aspires to dimes; manhood is awayed by the mighty dollar. The blacksmith swings the sledge, the lawyer pleads for his client, and the judge deto be charitable, to send bibles to the heathen, rugged scenes of life, and spreads over the rugour tread: the rude scenes and turmoils are encased in a gilt frame. It bids care vanish, soothes the anguish of the bed of sickness; stops relentless hand spares none, but levels all moral distinction, and teaches poor weak humanity that it is but dust. Thus wealth pauses on the brink of eternity; the beggar and the millionaire equality to answer the final summons.

THINGS THAT ARE FOOLISH. - A great many foolish things are said and done in the world among which an unknown writer classes the following: For a young man to think he does himself credit by hanging around stores and taverns, smoking bad cigars, and paying for whisky and oysters, in order to be called "liberal" by a set of youths as soft in brain as himself. For a lady to be annoyed because gentlemen do not always give her the best half of the street and the nicest seat in the public assembly. She should not forget that these convential courtesies are not her right any further than they choose to concede them. For an unfledged youth to think that he must buy extravagant gloves and cravats for every festival occasion, because Jones, whose father is worth thirty thousand dollars, does so. The best way of proving his mankind would be to leave such en route for Philadelphia, where he intends to things entirely alone. A SPECIAL MEETING of the Friendship Fire

CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY .- A meeting of the members of the Citizen Fire Company will be held at their Hall on Wednesday, the 2d of April, at half-past seven o'clock, to make ar rangements to attend the funeral of James Donnelly, member of the Hope Fire Company

LECTURE THIS EVENING -The lecture in the Able, A egular course before the Young Men's Chris- Adams, tian Association, intended for this evening, has Albert, S A been postponed till next week, and there will Ashton, A thus be an opportunity for all to attend the lec- Afrigd, E ture on Egypt, by Mr. Armstrong, at the capito to to-night at half-past seven o'clock. This is Bashore, L less if they order a change, it will be made for the same lecture delivered by Mr. A. last winter, before the Young Men's Christian Association, and which was listened to with such delight by a large and intelligent audience. All Bender, E J his fellow members in the Legislature and many Bixler, M.A. of our citizens united in requesting the honorable gentleman to afford themselves and the public another opportunity of hearing this truly Bowers, E able and eloquent description of the "ancient Brant, A E land." Of course there is no charge for admit- Bryant, M tance, and we have no doubt the hall will be Brans, H crowded.

COAL OIL AND ITS DANGERS .- The House of for the eye of the world looks through golden Representatives has considered and passed an Burke, 8 spectacles. It buys Brussels carpets, lace curlact appointing Inspectors of Coal Oil in each marble mansions. It drives us to church in ing the discussion many interesting facts were Cardwell, C splendid equipages, and pays the rent of the elicited. Mr. Shannon read a letter from Pitts. Carrelton, F best pews. It buys silks and jewelry for my burg declaring that the mere fact of oil being Clay, M E lady—it commands the respect of gaping crowds, over forty-five degrees of gravity was not a Conrad, H and insures obsequious attention. It enables us sufficient test of its safety. Very often there is Callern, M more benzele or explosive matter in low than Dunavon, 8 Donsey, M to remove domestic indulgence. It gilds the in high oils. The fluid which caused the death D rsheiner, S of Mrs. Graham and two Children, at Crestline, Enders, F ged scenes of existence a velvet carpet soft to Ohio, was scarcely forty-five degrees, yet it was like gunpowder, and would ignite before the mrach touched it. A true test is by fire-to place a small quantity in a saucer, then light a short of nothing save the grim destroyer, whose match and place it in the oil. If ignition takes place it will be unfit for use. An oil manufactured in this way may be 43, 45, 48 or 50 Graham, degrees, and yet be as harmless as water. One Gunder, M A of the establishments in Pittsburg makes oil of Hainly, M rest side by side beneath the sod, to rise in 46 and 50 degrees, and not a drop leaves the Hatton, A Hetley, SE works without being heated to 100 degrees, and | Hearty, A then tried by fire.
