HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, April 2, 1862.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—The programme for to-night's entertainment at this popular place of amusement is elegant, diversified and humorous, and cannot fail to attract a large audience.

SACRIFICIOUS BUSINESS MEN advertise all the year round; they do not make a splurge for a day, a week, or a month, and then stop; for business is lost as fast as made unless men are continually before the public.

SECURE THE SHADOWS OF THE SUBSTANCE FADE is an old and tried maxim, and we were never more impressed with its force than during a visit this morning to Parker's Daguerrean gallery, in the second story of Shell's building, corner of Market and Third streets.

FIRE THIS MORNING.—About one o'clock this morning flames were discovered issuing from a small one-story and-a-half frame house, situated in North Filbert street, a short distance east of Cumberland, in the Sixth Ward, occupied as a residence by a laboring man named William Bracey.

An adjoining two-story frame building, occupied as a residence by Mr. John Waggoner, was badly burned, and only saved from entire destruction by the timely arrival and prompt action of the Good Will fire engine and Hope Hose—the only fire apparatus on the ground.

Prof. Anderson.—This distinguished necromancer, whose pro. oced opening at Brant's Hall in a series of his prestidigitatorial exhibitions next Monday night, has created such a sensation, is thus spoken of by a Pittsburg paper:

He styles himself not merely a Prestidigitator, but as well seen on reference to his advertisement, an "Ambidextrous Prestidigitator." There was a time when those who wrought incomprehensible mysteries were known as magicians. In antecedent ages they were timid chills and sorcerers; more recently they have been termed illusionists, and now, at this present day, they are designated as Prestidigitators.

MOVING DAY.—Yesterday was moving day, and never, perhaps, within the memory of the old inhabitant was there such a general "fitting" in our city. Spring-wagons were in great demand; and, turn where you would, everything had that kind of topsy-turvy appearance so peculiar to the first of April.

THE UNION FENCIBLES.—This fine company of volunteers, attached to the 107th Regiment, P. V., (Col. Thos. A. Zeigler), is at present quartered at or near Washington city. The company has been armed with the Austrian rifle, a very fine piece, with which the boys are well pleased.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—The "New South," published at Port Royal, S. C., by Mr. SEARS, a notice of which appeared in the TELEGRAPH a few days since, contains the following item:

OTTER ISLAND.—An unfortunate circumstance occurred yesterday morning at Otter Island. Two small parties of the 45th Pennsylvania regiment went out to surround a number of rebels, supposed to be lurking in the vicinity.

Captain Bumbo was from Columbia, Lancaster county. He was the Captain of a company in the three months' service in Colonel Stambaugh's 24th regiment.

SPRINGING UP.—In some of the gardens about town, the flowers are springing out of the ground already, but as a general thing they are backward, as are the fruit trees; but this is all the better; they will not be so apt to get nipped by the frost. It seems to be the general belief that there will be an abundance of fruit in the coming summer.

THE WARM SUN of April and its showers will bring parasols and umbrellas into frequent use; and, of course, those not supplied with these articles will call at Lee's, No. 69 Market street, to make purchases. His stock embraces almost every imaginary variety, and sold at regular war prices.

THE GRAIN AND FRUIT CROP.—A correspondent of the Steubenville Herald, who has traveled much through the country lately, speaks glowingly of the beautiful prospects for a good wheat crop. It is pronounced to be uncommonly forward and flourishing in present appearance, the best that he had seen for thirty years.

ALL FOOL'S DAY.—To detail the wit and ingenuity of the April fool's jokes, which occurred in this city yesterday, would fill a volume.

The origin of April Fool Day is like that of love, very far back in the past, and very indefinite of date. Some historiographers say it arose from the emphatic practical joke played by the Romans upon the Sabines, in hoaxing them into a visit, and stealing their wives and daughters.

The early Christian Church, in order to make within proselytes among the Romans, humored their tastes and conformed to their customs, where they did not interfere essentially with the fundamentals of Gospel doctrine.

The French adopted the fashion from them, confining the festival to one day only, and calling the victim of jokes a "poison d'Avril," or April Fish, meaning that like certain fishes, during that month, they were easily caught.

Bristol & Co.), and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the veracity of the Golden Pills, they might refer any lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to refer her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old, who was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now happy and well.
