BARRISBURG, PA. Thursday Afternoon, April 3, 1862.

CHICKENS FOR CUBA. - Twenty-five thousand chickens from Indiana, passed through this city a few days since, via the Lehigh Valley railroad, on their way to New York, from which they are to be shipped to the Island of Cuba.

THE BLUE BIRDS.—These beautiful little creatures are now making their appearance again, in their proper position. The spectator is now indicating, with their sweet voices, a return of enabled to form an idea of the extent of the the flowers and leaves, and that the change proposed structure, which, when completed, from dreary winter to spring, with all its lovelinesss, is near at nand.

SomeBody has said that "we ought always to believe less than we are told." This may be a safe maxim for general use, but when a woman entrusts you in confidence, of course-with her age, you may always believe a great deal more than you are told.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE continues to draw laughter-provoking troupe. Burlesques, odd away dull care, may be seen and heard there.

THE WHEAT PROSPECT.—The wheat fields in by the winter frosts; they are quite rank and give promise of a very large harvest. The grain fields along the railroad between here and the Allegheny mountains we noticed on a recent visit, also looked remarkably fine.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.-Every person elected to the office of Justice of the Peace or Alderman is required within thirty days after the election, if he intends to accept said office, to give notice in writing to the prothonotary of the proper day, owing to an attempt made by a landlady to county; otherwise the commission will not be summarily eject a poor family from one of her issued. See pamphlet laws, 1859, page 592.

THREE CHILDREN AT ONE BIRTH.—A German woman named Smith, residing in the Sixth getting a house in time to move on the first of ward, this city, a few days since, astonished her the month. This enraged the landlady, and she husband by presenting him with three children at once secured the services of two negroes, at one birth. Beside this, the passage itself, owing to a projecting cellar door, is so narrow as to scarely admit they finally left the premises, and the furmore than one pedestrian at a time. The supervisor of the district is urged to make a reconnoissance in that locality.

THE LATE REVIVAL IN THE "SITXY-THIRD." We have already alluded to the recent revival in the Sixty-third, Col. Hays' regiment, during which a number of conversions were reported. Previous to the departure of the regiment for a more Southern latitude, the sacrament was administered, a large number of the men being present. A correspondent thus describes the ceremonies: "A small rude table was usedcommon bread, wine made of grape jelly and water, and two glasses were placed in the cenbave them arrested for interfering with his duwell sung. PROGRESSING .- Messrs. Eby & Kunkle's new brick building, at the corner of Market and Sixth streets, is progressing finely. The foundation walls have been completed, and the door and window frames of the first story set will be one of the largest in Market street .-The erection of this imposing building affords additional evidence of the public spirit and enterprise of Messrs. Eby & Kunkle.

EXCITEMENT IN MULBERRY STREET - Emute among the Cilizens.—There was quite an excitement among the residents of Mulberry street yesterhouses. It appears that some members of the family were laboring under an attack of some infectious disease, which prevented them from by a number of kind-hearted citizens, who, WORK FOR THE SUPERVISOR .- A part of the fully acquainted with the circumstances of the case, and not entertaining any very high regard for the landlady herself, whose repute is questionable, resolved that she should not disgrace the neighborhood by such inhuman conduct. The negroes at first resisted, but finding that the citizens were in earnest, niture that had been removed was carried back to the house. In the meantime the new lessee of the property, hearing the nature of the sickness in the family, threw up his contract, which increased the ire of the landlady, who then, to show her spleen and spite against the sick family, had all the window sashes of the house taken weekly sales, which we promise to sell at city prices to wholesale buyers. THE FINE WEATHER to-day brought out some very sensible changes in the ladies' dress. We no longer see so many heavy furs, and the oddshow jackets, the very latest style, are becoming numerous. In Philadelphia and New York these curtailed garments are all the rage. They are certainly more comfortable than the absurdly long robes that have been worn, though they make the ladies look as if they field, and waked to find her dress cut off by some passing rogue to such a scantiness as so bewildered her as to her own identity that she went home disconsolate, and meekly asked Hans, of all descriptions. VALUE OF A TRUE THOUGHT .--- We look upon every true thought as a valuable acquisition to ociety, which cannot possibly hurt or obstruct the good effect of any other whosoever; for all partake of one common sense, and necessarily coincide with each other; and like the drops of rain which fall separately into the river, mix themselves at once with the stream, and strengthen the general current which flows steadily onward to the cheap dry good store of Urich & Bowman, South-east corner of Front and Market streets.

CARPET! CARPET! Having returned from New York, I now have on hand, and I am daily receiving from the New York auction sales, a large assortment of goods, which I offer cheaper than ever. 20 pieces of carpet, from 371 cents up to 87 cents; 40 pieces of beautiful Curtain muslin, very cheap; splendid black silks at 75 cents, worth 90 cents; good black silk at $1, worth $1 25; black silk 32 inches wide at $1, worth $1.25; black slik 32 inches wide at $1.10, worth $1.37; very fine black Bombazin at $1.10, worth $1.50; summer silks at 50 cents a yard; 10 pieces of the finest Irish linen at 75 cents, worth $1; 1,000 hoop skirts, at 50.75 and $1, very cheap. Great however, in stockings: 20 decays bear. Great bargains in stockings; 20 dozen hem-stitched handkerchiefs, at 25 and 31 cents cheap. A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the foilo eing certificate" from one of the first ladies in Utica, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.,) and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duron. Oo's Golden Pills, they might refer any Lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young Lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—"We wer. particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box.
