FROM WASHINGTON.

Conviction and Sentence of a Newspaper Editor for Violating the Laws of War Publishing Military News.

WASHINGTON, A. E. Edmund Ellis, publisher of the Boon Standard, was tried before a Military Commission at Columbia, Missouri, on two First charges—the publication of information for the benefit of the enemy and of resistance to the Government and the United States. Second charge—violation of laws of war by publication, within the lines, of the troops of the United States, in a public newspaper, of articles and information intended and designed to comfort the enemy and invite persons to rebellion against the Government of the United States.

One of the criminal publications was styled "Letters from the Army" another, "Foot Abe on the Die" a third "News from Gen. Price." The commissioners found the publisher guilty of the charges and specifications and sentenced him to be placed and kept outside the lines of the State of Missouri during the war, and that the press, type, furniture and materials of the printing office of the Boone county Standard be confiscated and sold for the use of the United States.

Gen. Halleck approved the finding and sentence, and directed the printing office in charge of the Quartermaster until further orders; that the printer be placed outside the State of Missouri, and that if he returns during the war without permission that he be arrested and placed in close confinement in the Alton military prison.

The proceedings being returned to the War Department, they were approved by the secretary, and an order issued that the form of procedure should be adopted in like cases by the commanding officers of all the military departments.

FROM FORT MONROE.

HER APPEARANCE EXPECTED.

The Rebel Force on the Peninsula.

AN ARRIVAL FROM NEWBERN, N. C.

The Rebels Demand the Evacuation of the Town.

Gen. Burnside Replies that he will meet the Rebels at Goldsboro' or Raleigh.

Fort Macon Still in the Hands of Rebels.

PREPARATIONS TO ATTACK IT.

HEAVY CANNONADING HEARD IN THE DIRECTION OF YORKTOWN.

REPORTED BURNING OF THE TOWN.

General Buell at Savannah, Tenn.

Fortress Monroe, April 5.

The latest intelligence that we have in relation to the Merrimac dated Norfolk last night. At that time she was coaling up at the navy yard, and was expected to come out to-day.

She has two new guns on board.

It has been reported that Com. Hollis would command the Merrimac on her next trip, but the name of Capt. Pugin is the latest mentioned in that connection.

The Yorktown, Jauntown, Laser, and four other gunboats are at Norfolk.

A deserter came in this morning from the vicinity of Harrod's Mills. The enemy's force upon the Peninsula is not reported so large as has been supposed.

Gen. Magruder's headquarters are at present at Lee's Mills, near Williamsburg.

Steam tug, Trampet, Hazell and Ellen S. Terry arrived this forenoon from Newbern, having left on Thursday. They bring a large mail for the North and dispatches from the army and naval commanders.

There is very little news of interest from Gen. Burnside's department. A report was current that Gen. Burnside had been ordered to evacuate Newbern within six days and that he had returned a reply that he would meet the rebel commander at Goldsboro' and Bealigh.

There is little change in State affairs at Beaufort. Fort Macon still holds out and is besieged.

Extensive preparations are going on and operations will be commenced in a few days. A few shells have already been thrown into the fort.

The steamer Peabody arrived from New York to-day and proceeded to Hatteras.

We were visited by a thunder-storm last night. The weather will continue pleasant.

To-day cannonading has been heard, all morning, from the direction of Yorktown. No official reports have been received, but it rumored that the town has been burnt. This is probably incorrect. However another report says a fight is taking place this afternoon.

A flag of truce this afternoon brought down the following released prisoners of war from Richmond: Col. Bonafant, Lieut. Vanhorn, Capt. Bliss, U. S. A., taken in Texas last summer, Col. Woodruff, 1st Kentucky regiment, taken in Kentucky.

The Richmond papers mention that two men named Price Lewis and John Scully, have been convicted as spies, and were to have been hung yesterday, but that a short reprieve had been granted. The men claim to be British subjects and loyal.

MOBILE, April 4.—The Advertiser has a special despatch from Memphis stating that Buell's army had reached Savannah, on the Tennessee river, from Columbia. There had been a brisk skirmishing and great activity on both sides for the great struggle.

On Wednesday a Yankee force 2000 strong landed at Biloxi, from three vessels and cut the telegraph line between Mobile and New Orleans.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The boat which left Fortress Monroe at 10 o'clock this morning brings word at that hour that all was quiet in the immediate vicinity and no indications of any movement on the part of the Merrimac.
