MORNING SESSION.

The SPEAKER called the House to order at O o'clock A. M.

The Clerk proceeded to read the journal of resterday, when, on motion of Mr. Cowan, the urther reading of the same was dispensed vith.

Several private bills were taken up and passed, when the House resumed the consideration of the bills remaining on the public calendar.

A further supplement to the act incorporating the North Pennsylvania railroad company was agreed to, on second reading, but left over for third reading. Mr. HOPKINS, (Washington,) (on leave given,) offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the Auditor General be requested to inform the House what amount of taxes were paid by the Pennsylvania railroad company the fiscal year preceding the lst of Jannary, 1861, on its capital stock, bonds, dividends or property. The resolution was read a second time, and

BANK BILL .- After a lengthy and tedious dis cussion yesterday in the House of Representatives, that body produced the following bill. We presume however that it will hardly pass the Senate in its present shape. From a care ful examination it will be observed that the ban ks are compelled to redeem their currency in United States Treasury notes when demandof the government for their support, while the ed. This will be a virtual resumption of specie payments, as those notes are now rating at par and we expect to see them shortly above par. Rally beneath it, and battle as of old for everything dear to freemen. Republicans be up and doing. Despotism is ever watchful for advantage. Democracy, so recently defeated, stained with treason and rotten with corruption, is not yet dead. It betrays its existence in Weshington where the Democratic members of Congress, under the lead of that semi-traitor Vallandigham, unite in a call for a National Convention of the party that betrayed our country into the hands of the traitors of the south. Bepublicans, loval men, lovers of your country and freedom, awake! organize, go to work and ensure success. We call upon the Bepublican press and advocates of the whole country to unfurl the old Republican banner and to stir up our friends to organization and action. We must strengthen the hands of our noble, wise, patriotic, liberty-loving President, and give him the power to carry out his plans for the rescue of our country from the dangers that environ it. Bally, rally, friends of freedom and progress ! organize, organize, and see to it that in the election of October the Republican banner waves over the prostrate foe of reedom, progress, humanity and our country.

REBEL PROGRESS-NO MORE USE FOR TYPE.

The progress of the rebels toward barbarism is evinced in more ways than one. Not satisfied with enlisting savages in their ranks, and scalping their fallen enemies, they are deter-mined to drive every vestige of civilization from their presence. The Marshall (Texan) Republican of a late date, has the following:

How would type metal answer, mixed with an equal quantity of lead? Our opinion is would answer every purpose. If so, there is any quantity of old type in New Orleans and elsewhere, and when that is exhausted, let us take the new. It could not be devoted to a better purpose than shooting at the Yankees.

Education and a spread of general intelligence are inimical to the designs of the Confederate leaders. The intellectual advancement of the north is what first led them to read in the progress of events the certain downfall of the hateful tyranny which they established during the two last administrations, and they wish to eradicate every vestige of northern institutions. Just at present, too, the south has no need of newspapers. There is no cheering news: to communicate, and that which is calculated to depress had better not be circulated. The conversion of types into bullsta, would be an act in perfect consonance with rebel civilization.

"The coercive power of the federal government, so long vanited as adequate to suppress the secession of a State, is rapidly proving it. self to be-what it has long been supposed and said to be - a wretched humbug - a scarecrow dirty bundle of red rags and old clothes!"

THE DELAWARE COUNTY ADVERTISES, in referring to the late rejection of Capt. H. Jones Brooke, the indefatigable and incorruptible United States Commissary at this point, uses the following language :

We are acquainted with some of the "pece liar circumstances" of the case which we withhold for the present in deference to the wishes of those interested, and in conclusion have but to say, that a state of corruption unparalleled must exist, when such a man is liable to prose-cution for firmly standing between the govern-ment and the vile robbers and scoundrels who would plunder it.
