LICTURE. - The fourth lecture in the course on behalf of the Young Men's Christian Assochation, will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Hay, is the Lutteran Church, Fourth street, on red Subject - "Reminiscenses of a Residence

A BRIGHT little three year old was sitting in his mother's lap, a few evenings since, when he asked, "Are the stars in heaven?" The mothe of course, responded in the affirmative when the little fellow put the further question, " Are the stripes there, too, mother?"

DEAD LETTER SYSTEM ABOLISHED.—On the 21st of Lanuary, 1862, the President approved an act passed by Congress, authorizing the Post-Office Department to return all dead letters to their writers, which new system works more smoothly and with less expense to the Government. All letters not reaching their destination, instead of being burned by the cart load. are now carefully sent to the writers, and double postage collected. The following notice on the relope enclosing the dead letter to the postmaster explains the further object of the new

The enclosed letter is sent to the writer under an act of Congress, approved January 21, 1361. If not delivered, and double postage colected, as required by this new law, it must be returned to the 'Third Assistant Postmaster General' within one month, with the . reasons for non-delivery endorsed on it, according to section 199 of Post Office Regulations.

"If retained a longer period, the postmaste will be held accountable for the postage, whether delivered or not. The date of receipt at the ost-office must be marked on the letter. "The nostmaster will not allow the envelope o be opened before receiving the postage."

Too MUCH WHISKY .- The Norfolk Day Book -secesh-complain that the rebels imbibe too freely of the ardent. It says :- "In the cars. t the shanties, at the groceries, in village werns and city hotels—whisky. Officers with old lace wound in astonishing involutions ipon their arms, private soldiers in simple mespun, and civilians in broadcloth, all drink with great energy and perseverance. They drick it, too, in quantities which would astonsh the nerves of a cast-iron lamp-post, and of quality which would destroy the digestive orins of the osirich. Truth is often unpleasant tell, but the public safety demands that the ce in question should be rebuked and reno more skin to rye than rye is to coffeehisky which is of the unadulterated tangleown in a manner alike revolting to public ency and the general good."

READING FOR THE ARMY AND NAVY .- Probably but few, even of the religious public, are fully aware of the great work that is going on in supplying our vast army with religious reading. Not far from six hundred thousand men are in the field: our navy may be reckoned at tens of thousands and there are from twenty to thirty thousand suffering in our various hos pitals. In addition to these, there are several thousands of prisoners scattered through the North, and the "Contrabands" at Fortress Monroe, Hilton Head and elsewhere. who should be included in the charities of the benevolent.

At the commencement of the war, the American Tract Society, New York, began to supply the army and navy with their valuable publications in several different languages. -Some fifty thousand German soldiers in the army have been almost wholly dependent on rmed, for it is a fact which the press should this society for religious reading. Books, tracts oither palliate or conceal, that whiskey which and handbills have been issued and circulated in unprecedented numbers. It has been a common thing to issue editions of a tract numst, chain lightning distillation, is guzzled bering from fifty thousand to one hundred thousand. And the whole number of pages distributed, and that of the purest and choicest kind of reading, cannot be less than from

The demand for these publications is conen there will, as usual, be a general sus- stantly increasing. The pressure upon the sosion of business among all persons of the ciety for grants the last six months has been brew faith, and religious services will be incessant. Appeals are constantly poured in all in the Synagogue. They welrefermission to make it upon agreeing to come reading—they crave it. They cordially to certain regulations laid down for and courteously accept the offer of any religious book, tract or paper. The amount of good that has been accomplished has been beyond all estimate. When off duty, when confined to the hospital, when thoughts of home and friends have made the heart tender, when the prospect prime lot of human flesh, at the above desire for religious truth, then these books, trac's, hymns, papers and handbills, have pre septed, in simple and touching words, the story IGHTY NEGROES. of salvation, and many have yielded to the power of the gracious truth. Can any patriot or Christian, any friend of the soldier and will be sold at the residen e of sailor, who peril their lives to save all that is William Seabrook, Sr., Esq., on Edisto dearest to us on earth, do aught else than en courage so noble a work? The society pauses just now, and asks for help to put out for our brave soldiers over two hundred thousand copies of a series of books lately written expressly for the army and navy.
