HARRISBURG, PA.

(Thursday) Morning, April 10, 1862.

CATHART.—By an advertisement published in this morning's Telegraph, the Catholic public are informed that a female who has been solicited to contribute to the benefit of the orphans of Conaway, Adams county.

THE GOVERNOR AND THE LEGISLATURE.—His Excellency Gov. Curtin has formally invited the members of both branches of the Legislature to take of his hospitable at the Executive Mansion, at 9 o'clock this evening. The session has been accepted.

RECALL OF A DUESMAN.—Some two months ago a young man by the name of Peter G. W. who volunteered in the 104th regiment, and was detailed as orderly for hospital duty at the Brigade Hospital, Washington, D. C., as a school teacher. Capt. Harvey, of his whereabouts, despatched a messenger officer to that place on Saturday last, and yesterday, with the messenger in custody passed through this city en route for Washington.

EXPERIMENT ON SUNDAY.—There was a case before the court of common pleas in Philadelphia yesterday, in which the discharge of a prisoner was asked for on the ground that he was a Sunday worshiper. On the hearing, the evidence was admitted, but testimony was given by the officer to show that the man did not drink when he presented himself, and was advised to delay his enlistment until the 15th inst. He declined to do so, and was then released. The case being a novel one, and the court wishing to act hastily in the matter, it was all under advisement.

THE SUSQUEHANNA.—The river commenced rising on Friday night last, and continued to rise until Sunday evening, when it had attained the usual height of our spring freshets. The rain and snow of the last two days will doubtless continue the "rise," and we may shortly look for a freshet on both the North and West branches, and as soon as the flood subsides to rafting season, all the lumber prepared will be sent to market. The usual quantity is expected to arrive in our market this morning, as the manufacturers assure us that the lumber in the pine regions—in consequence of the many hands previously employed in the manufacture being now in our hands—this year, fall far short of previous seasons. The present and coming week, we expect, empty out both the Susquehanna, and large quantities of lumber be at our wharves, and merchants will be enabled to judge of the quantity and quality, and we have no doubts will be to the manufacturer's advantage as last season.

THE CAVALRY. Col. E. C. Williams, city well scattered, extending from Kentucky, to some distance beyond Tennessee. The first battalion of the Tennessee, under command of Major John S. Detweiler. Russia is the "best egg" of secession in the world, at that place that the Government was found, and removed to Bowling Green, Kentucky. The forces of the Confederacy and Buckner were essentially a considerable time; the present post, Brevet Major John S. Detweiler, a change of the name of "Park." A continuous line of "cavalry" has been extended along the line of the Louisville cavalry, and the name has been made its intelligence. All letters to this regiment are addressed to the Ninth Pennsylvania, Nashville, Tennessee.

THE FEMALE COLLEGE.—We have this morning a catalogue of the Pittsburg College for the year 1860-1. This is the reputation of being one of the most successful educational institutions in the country, and is extensively patronized by the citizens of Western Pennsylvania. The course of instruction is extensive and thorough, embracing the usual course of a liberal education, and the government is paternal, and the discipline is of the most lenient and mutual confidence. The college is one of the best constructed and equipped for educational purposes. Within the last year, it has all the advantages of light and while the exterior is the most imposing in the city, the interior is the most complete. The college has all been planned for the purpose of teaching. Rev. T. C. Williams, D. D., whose eloquent sermon in the Presbyterian Church, in this city, on the 2nd inst., will be remembered by our citizens, is the President of the college, and occupies the Chair of Mental and Moral Philosophy in the College. Rev. W. H. Williams, a brother of C. L. Pershing, Esq., is the regular representative in the present Legislature from Columbia county.

THE WAR NEWS from the South-west yesterday created an intense excitement throughout the city, and for several hours the bulletin board in front of our office was fairly besieged by crowds of people anxious to learn further particulars of the glorious Union victories.

A STORY of the singular adventures of a bank bill is given by the Boston Transcript as follows: "A ten dollar bill of the Old Colony Bank, Plymouth, was brought to this city on Saturday last as a curiosity. The bill, while in the hands of a person in Bridgewater, was seized by a dog, chewed and swallowed before it could be rescued from him. The animal was at once killed, and the mangled pieces of the bill secured. The gastric juice had acted somewhat on the edges, destroying them, but they were very neatly put together, so as to pass current. The bill recovered of the bite; the dog, it was, that died."

ORDER.—Never leave things lying about—a shawl here, a pair of slippers there, and a bonnet somewhere else—trusting to a servant to set things rights. No matter how many servants you have, it is a miserable habit, and if its source is not in the intellectual and moral character, it will inevitably terminate there. If you have used the dipper, towel, tumbler, etc., put them back in their places and you will know where to find them when you want them again. Or if you set an example of carelessness, do not blame your servants for following it. Children should be taught to put things in their proper places as soon as they are old enough to use them; and if each member of the household would observe this simple rule the house would never get much out of order, and a large amount of vexation and useless labor would be avoided.

PRINTERS.—By the way, says a writer in the Philadelphia Press, it is right for printers to know that for a while until a recent period, actors were legally designated "vagabonds" in England. A statute passed in the reign of Queen Anne, distinctly declares that printers, like attorneys, are gentlemen. The distinction arose in this wise: When swords formed a part of genteel attire, they were worn by many who neither by birth, education nor calling, were entitled to be considered gentlemen. To place the matter out of dispute, an act of Parliament was passed, in which was set forth the various classes authorized to wear swords or rapiers, as a part of their costumes, and in this statute printers are expressly named as entitled to what at that period was considered a privilege. The word "printer," in Queen Anne's time, meant the compositor, who out of a chaos of types, put men's thoughts into the form which preserves them, if worthy, for the future as the present.

A GOOD MOVE.—We have been informed that the children of Columbia will give a Union concert for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, on Wednesday evening next, in the Odd Fellows' Hall at that place. This, observes our reportorial cotemporary of the Lancaster Express, is a noble movement, and is worthy of imitation by other communities. The enterprising little town of Columbia is so patriotic that even the little ones cannot rest satisfied without contributing their share to the comfort of the wounded and sick soldier. Look at that, ye slow waxes, country communities, and resolve to "go and do likewise."

This arrangement seems to us to be one of the most sensible that can be made—acting on the principle of our Young Men's Christian Institute lectures, giving a treat to the audience as well as aiding a noble cause. We give this extended notice, not only as a deserved tribute to the noble feelings of our Columbia friends, which prompted the thought, but as an incentive to bring out something of the same sort in our city.

Who is the man that does not love to hear the music of children's voices, and would not willingly give his share towards helping them to attain their good end. Besides, the work need not be confined to the children; those of a larger growth might follow in their footsteps and get up a concert which would do credit to the community which produced it.

FANNY FERN has said some good things in her way, but she never made a better hit or spoke truer than when she perpetrated the following: "It is just as sensible to get married without courting as to attempt to succeed in business without advertising." How are the public to know what you have to dispose of unless you make it known through the medium of the press? A gentleman whose mind had been brought to bear upon this subject by reading an article on the subject of advertising, concluded to make an examination of the matter, and taking up a paper examined the advertisements, made a list of those merchants who had advertised, and then made a tour of the streets where they were located, and his experience was that those houses which advertised freely and liberally were crowned with customers, while equally as attractive looking stores next door to them were doing but little, and some of them no business. That which is true of the city is equally so of the country merchant.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Ulster, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Dock, Jr., & Co.), and told me that she had never before seen such public, but that if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they might refer any lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to bear knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old, who was fast becoming consumptive, and taken cold, and became so distressed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health. "We were, particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box.
