The many thousands cured at this institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgica operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the respectors of the papers, and many olior persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a penileman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

DISEASER OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shams or droad of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this herrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, 30, progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "too bourne from whence so traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, wing to the unaktifulness of Ignorant protenddisease, owing to the unskillulness of ignorant protond ors, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, rule he constitution and make the residue of life miserable. From our Morning Edition,

A CARD.

GENTLEMEN: - I see by a synopsis of the report of the investigating committee on the tonnage tax question that my name has been used in a manner that does me great injustice. It is not agreeable to me to appear in my own defence, but the nature of the charges of the committee against me leaves me no other alternative.

The report alleges that the committee had tried but failed to procure my attendance before them. There is evidently a mistake somewhere. I came to Harrisburg unsubpæned, and went voluntarily before the committee, and answered every question propounded to me by them; and it was not until I read it in the papers that I understood the nature of Mr. Marshall's testi-mony...And knowing the statements therein set forth to have no foundation in fact, I has-tened here, bringing Mr. Marshall with me, and reported myself to the chairman of the committee. He informed me that the labors of the committee had ceased. I then availed my-self of the only means of vindication, and ob-tained the following affidavit of Mr. Marshall:

Mr. Marshall swears: The impression I wished to convey to the committee with regard to my visit to Mr. Davis' committee with regard to my visit to Mr. Davis' room, and the facts in the case are substiantially as follows: Since giving my testimony to the committee, I recollect why I went to Mr. Davis' room to borrow forty dollars, having a considerable sum of money. I do not recollect the amount. He said he would lend me the money, providing I paid it back as soon as we arrived in Pittsburg, stating at the time that the money belonged to another gentleman, and that he (Mr. Davis) was instructed to deposit it in Kramer and Rahm's bank in the city of Pittsburg. He (Mr. Davis) said he had about five hundred dollars of his own money, and that he would like to have it exchanged for gold. I went with him to the bank, when we arrived in the city of Pittsburg, and assisted him (I having an acquaintance with the bank officers) to get about two hundred dollars. We had a good deal of conversation in a jocular manner, but these are to the best of my recollections, the facts in the case. Mr. Davis at lections, the facts in the case. Mr. Davis at previous to our troops occupying their present suppose or believe that he ever received any money from the Pennsylvania railroad company or from Thomas A. Scott, although it was not unusual at that time to pass a joke in reference to the accusations made by the enemies of that road.

KENNEDY MARSHALL.

DAUPHIN COUNTY, 88: On this 9th day of April, A. D. 1862, personally appeared before me, a justice of the peace of the city of Harrisburg, the above named Kennedy Marshall, who, being duly sworn at every point. according to law, says that the facts set forth in the above statement is true and correct, according to the best of his knowledge and belief Witness my hand and seal the day and year

HENRY BEADER, [SEAL.]

Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Marshall swears to my having in my pos session a considerable sum of money, (but has no idea of the amount,) and that I then stated XXXVIIth Congress--First Session. that the money did not belong to me, but that I was instructed to deposit it in a certain bank in the city of Pittsburg. Any person that will take the pains to examine will find that on my ing to Pittsburg I deposited the money at the banking house of Kramer & Rahm to the credit of the parties to which it belonged.— The amount was less than one-third the sum guessed at by W. Marshall, as reported by the committee, and was in my possession two months before the passage of the commutation act. The money was given to me for a particular purpose and having failed in the object for which it was attained, I returned it to where it belonged. And here I will state that from time to time I had sums of money placed in my hands. There being a great excitement in my district with regard to paten-ting oil lands, and this was the purpose for which I had the two thousand dollars referred to by Mr. Marshall when he says he does not know how much meney I had. I make this statement in self-vindication, and submit the facts to the public. The imputation of fraud has been public. The vindica tion should be the same. Being sworn by the committee, I desire this statement to be considered under oath. And I take this occasion to say that neither Thos. A. Scott, nor any other person, ever approached me in connection with the commutation act with any improper proposition. And I never, before nor after its passage, received any comsideration whatever for my vote or influence. I was known to be in favor of the bill from the commencement of the session, and I never cast a vote of which I am more proud. I voted for it from principle, having no understanding with any person that I was to receive a consideration for my services. I make this statement only to answer the tes-timony of Mr. Marshall, as given before the committee, and to submit his own statement of what he says he wished the committee to understand. Mr. Marshall never accompanied me up the Allegheny river, nor did he ever carry any money for me. Painful as it is to be thus drawn before the public, I have felt it my duty to say this much. I am going into no argument, but declare the foregoing statement to be true and correct.

Yours, very truly,

Senate concurring, Congress adjourn sine die on the third Monday on May. Agreed to. Mr. M'Knight (Pa.) had unsuccessfully proposed an amendment, extending the time to the first Monday in June; and Mr. WADSWORTH one limiting to the first Monday in May. The Pacific railroad bill was postponed till to-day week, in order to afford members au (pportunity of examining this measure.

Mr. WRIGHT, (Pa.,) from the Military Committee, reported a bill to facilitate the transportation of troops, mails and stores of the United States between the cities of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union, on the bill regulating the franking privilege.

Mr. Whight, (Pa.,) hoped the latter bill would, as it ought to, die in the Senate. He was opposed to any further action upon the subject. The committee then rose and the further consideration of the bill was posponed till Tuesday.

The House again went into committee of the
