HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, April 11, 1862.

advantageous point, and delivering their fire with considerable effect. But from all the divisions of our army they were closely pursued, a gallant fire being kept upon their rear.

The enemy had now been driven beyond our former lines, and were in full retreat for Corinth, pursued by our cavalry.

The forces engaged on both sides, in this day's battle, are estimated at about seventy thousand each.

Additional Details. CAIRO, April 10.—An arrival from Pittsburg says the enemy, in making the first attack on Sunday morning, carried the stars and stripes and wore Federal uniforms.

Gen. Bragg is reported killed. Provisional Governor Johnson, of Kentucky, is wounded and a prisoner.

It is stated that Gen. Prentiss escaped in the confusion of the enemy's retreat on the second day of the fight.

Our total loss is about 7000. This is the estimate of military commanders who were in the engagement. Of these about 2000 were taken prisoners and the balance killed and wounded in the usual proportions.

Gen. Wallace of Illinois, was reported dead, as it was thought impossible that he could live. He was, however, living on Wednesday, and improving. He was shot back of the car, the bullet coming out at the nose.

Gen. Halleck passed Cairo to-day, en route for Pittsburg. Five thousand prisoners are expected to-night from Island No. 10.

Every preparation is making here for the reception of our wounded at Pittsburg. CHICAGO, April 10.—The special despatch from Cairo to the Tribune says:

We are just beginning to get some reliable details from the great battle at Pittsburg from several gentlemen who were on the field after the fight. From their statement we gather the following:

General Prentiss' brigade, consisting of the 61st Illinois, 17th Wisconsin, 24th Indiana, and 7th Ohio, were attacked while eating their breakfast, by what seemed to be the entire rebel force. Prentiss had no artillery; his brigade was cut to pieces and forced to retire, and General Prentiss and many of his men were taken prisoners.

At twelve o'clock, the entire line was fiercely engaged, but in full retreat. At 4 o'clock P. M., the enemy had taken Schwartz's battery of six guns, President's battery of four guns, Watson's battery, and also two Ohio batteries, the names of which are not given.

Thousands of our soldiers had taken refuge under the bank of the river, and utterly refused to fight; in fact, they could not, as the officers and men were mixed in inextricable confusion. The army at this time seemed utterly defeated.

At this juncture, the gunboats Lexington and Tyler opened a tremendous fire of shot and shell upon the enemy and kept it up every half hour.

XXXVIIIth Congress--First Session.

WASHINGTON, April 11. SENATE.

Mr. SUMNER, (Mass.), presented a petition for the employment in the suppression of the rebellion of all classes without respect to condition or color.

Mr. WILSON, (Mass.), introduced a bill amendatory of the fugitive slave act.

Mr. HOWE, (Wis.), offered a resolution that the Military Committee be instructed to inquire what troops have been or are being mustered into the service of the United States as home guards, who are still in service or who refuse to go beyond the limits of their own State.

Mr. LANE, (Ind.), said that the War Department were already mustering out of service this class of troops.

Mr. HOWE said that he had heard this morning that some troops from Maryland refused to go over the State line.

Mr. GRIMES, (Iowa), said that some of this class of troops were being now enlisted. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. FOSTER, (Conn.), introduced a bill for the collection of agricultural statistics.

Mr. HENDERSON, (Mo.), offered a resolution that a majority of the Senators now in the Senate and duly elected, shall constitute a quorum. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. RICHARDSON, (Ill.), expressed the desire that the house go into committee on private bills.

Mr. WASHBURN, (Ill.), suggested that the House take up the bill for the relief of Gen. Grant, which was assented to and the bill passed. It reimburses him $1,000 which amount, while serving as Quartermaster in Mexico, was stolen from his trunk, without neglect or default on his part.

Mr. BROWN, (N. Y.), from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution that William Vanderbilt has not been entitled to a seat in the House since he was mustered in the military service of the United States as Colonel of an Iowa regiment since September last. The report was ordered to be printed.

Mr. STEVENS, (Pa.), moved that the debate on the bill abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia close one hour after the consideration of the same be resumed in committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

Mr. COLFAX, (Ind.), moved to amend so as to extend the debate two hours in order that a speech might be made on the southern side, if desired.

Mr. WADSWORTH, (Ky.), wanted to know what the gentleman meant by saying the southern side.

SWORN INTO OFFICE.—John Tway and Martin Hower, supervisors of the First and Second Districts, and F. P. Hahnel, clerk of the market, appeared before the Mayor this morning and were duly sworn into office.

THE GOVERNOR'S ANNUAL reception of the members of the Legislature took place at the Executive Mansion at 9 o'clock last evening, and is described by those present as having been a very pleasant affair.

ROBERT AT THE DEPOT.—Mayor Kepner this morning received a letter from a gentleman named Thomas Heaton, of Loveland, Ohio, stating that while passing through this city before daylight on Friday morning of last week, in the cars, he was robbed at the depot of a carpet-bag containing a quantity of wearing apparel and a number of letters from the Secretary of the United States Treasury, addressed to him as special agent. He gives a minute description of the clothing, and the envelope containing the letters, the latter of which are only valuable to himself, and is particularly anxious to have them restored.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES OUT WEST.—It will be gratifying to Pennsylvanians to know that the Union gunboat Carondelet, which recently made the gallant dash of running the blockade by the rebel batteries at Island No. 10, on the Mississippi, getting safely into her desired position under a fire of forty shots, is manned entirely by volunteers from the Pennsylvania Reserve corps, McCall's division. The quota of volunteers from the division, for the gunboat service, was sixty men, ten from each regiment, and they left Gen. McCall's headquarters on the Potomac, after inspection of the detachment by the General himself, on Monday morning, the 17th of February. They are a fine body of men, and nobly are they sustaining the reputation of Pennsylvania. They left via the Pennsylvania railroad, under charge of Sergeant H. S. Fisher, Fifth regiment.

SERIOUS GAMING AFFAIR.—This morning, while Senator Benson was engaged as usual in the discharge of his arduous duties as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Senate, he was approached in the Senate Chamber by several individuals armed with a large bludgeon, who, after a few Parliamentary demonstrations, carried the Senator most handsomely. The bludgeon, upon examination, proved to be a fine piece of ebony, surmounted with a gold top, elaborately carved, upon which was this inscription:

Hon. ISAAC BENSON, From the officers of the Pennsylvania Senate. "All men are created equal."

The Honorable Senator at last accounts expressed himself highly pleased with the affair, and may we not hope his pleasure will increase when, in returning to his constituents after a three years campaign in defence of their rights, he is welcomed with the hard-earned salutation of "well done, good and faithful servant."

THE DOG TAX.—Dogs are subject to taxation by the tax bill now before Congress. The result will be the elevation of the dog standard. The Spartans were accustomed to kill all their children except those which were healthy and well formed, and dog fanciers will now always drown the whole of the litter, except they find in it an unusually knowing specimen. When dogs come to be such an expensive and troublesome luxury, people will become much more fastidious about the purity of the breed and the value of the animal. As for the seedy, rough coated, gutter prowling, vagabond "sports" which now infest our streets, their race will become entirely extinct.

INTERESTING FLAG PRESENTATION.—Agreeably to provision made in the general appropriation bill, the flag used at the funeral of Col. Wm. G. Murray, by the joint legislative committee, was presented at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon to the mother of the lamented colonel. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. Murray, at the corner of Second and Pine streets, and was witnessed by Alderman Maglaughlin, Mr. Perkins, Colonel McCoy, of the army, and two or three soldiers of the 84th regiment.

The following is Captain Brady's instruction; also, the Speaker's letter, and the remarks of Captain Brady on delivering the flag: CAPT. WM. P. BRADY.—You are selected to deliver this flag.

Speaker of the Senate. To Mrs. SARAH MURRAY.—This flag was carried before the Senators and Representatives of Pennsylvania when they followed the remains of Colonel William G. Murray to their last resting place.

Accept it, Madam, from the Speaker and members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, as a testimonial of the profound respect which they entertain for the memory of that brave and noble soldier whom you fondly, and can proudly call your son. L. W. HALL, Speaker.

Remarks of Capt. Wm. P. Brady, on presenting the flag to Mrs. Murray: MADAM.—Pardon the intrusion I make upon your solitude and sorrow. I come not to cause your deeply lacerated bosom to bleed afresh; but, if possible, to soothe the aching void. I have the high honor to be the messenger from the Speaker and Senators of Pennsylvania, to present to you the highest emblem of the best Government God has yet given to the world. For this glorious emblem your brave and noble son paid the highest estimate, and stamped it deeper in the patriot's heart. He loved God, loved his mother and his country, and as your heart loved and cherished him when living, so will every true American heart love his ashes and cherish his memory. Take this for yourself and those of your own.

Mrs. Murray received the flag with a simple expression of thanks to the donors, and although a sad memento, she doubtless appreciated the gift, and will cherish it as a sacred relic.

THE PRESBYTERY OF HARRISBURG has just concluded a very interesting session at Northumberland. The following resolutions, preceded by several patriotic speeches, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we regard with entire abhorrence and reprobation the unjustifiable and wicked rebellion now existing in our beloved country, and do proclaim our unqualified loyalty to the Constitution and the Union, and our approval of the efforts of the National Administration to restore unity and peace.

Resolved, That while we return unfeigned and joyful thanksgiving to Almighty God for the victories which His hand has wrought for us, we will continue our constant prayers for a speedy and entire success in restoring law and order throughout the whole country.

Resolved, That we deem it to be the solemn duty of the church to express through all her channels her abhorrence of treason and disloyalty, and to inculcate earnestly upon the people the virtues of patriotism, of subjection to law, and of faithfulness to constitutions.

Resolved, That viewing the system of American slavery as the main cause of all our national troubles, we hail all lawful and constitutional measures for the abolition of this great evil, and pray that they may be speedily successful.

Resolved, That we will cheerfully bear any burdens of taxation that may be imposed on account of this war, and will in every way inculcate this loyal and patriotic duty.

TESTIMONIAL TO SPEAKER HALL.—Hon. Lewis W. Hall, Speaker of the Senate, was yesterday made the recipient of an elegant and costly gold watch, presented by his brother Senators as an acknowledgment of his many good social qualities, and the able, dignified and impartial manner in which he has presided over their deliberations during the session just closed. The presentation speech was made by Senator Clymer, and was responded to by Mr. Hall in a feeling and eloquent manner. The watch was manufactured by the American Company, at Waltham, Mass., and is a beautiful piece of workmanship. It bears the following inscription:

PRESENTED BY THE Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, to His Hon. LEWIS W. HALL, Speaker, As a token of their high respect and esteem.

The presentation of this testimonial has about it an attraction other than that of the mere empty compliment which usually attaches to gifts for public men. The recipient is a gentleman of that high character which at once dispels all thought of effort on his part to win such a particular favor; and yet his course, official and unofficial, was such as at once to command respect, win confidence and create friendship.

In the Speaker's chair he was urbane, yet unyielding in what he deemed right. On the floor of the Senate, he was the equal of the ablest, and the friend of the humblest Senator, making his intercourse with Senators throughout his term of that prompt and practical character which at once stamped him as one of the most useful, incorruptible and indefatigable men in that body. It was in obedience to claims growing out of such conduct and accomplishments that Senators deemed Speaker Hall worthy of this gift, and in response to the same feeling, we cannot fail to commend the donors and congratulate the recipient in the presentation ceremonies.

THE PRESBYTERY OF CARLISLE (O. S.) met at Carlisle on Tuesday evening last, and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Nicolls, of Chambersburg. Rev. Mr. Hays, of Middle Spring, was elected moderator. There was a very large attendance of ministers and elders, and the sessions of Presbytery were unusually harmonious. Among the items of business transacted of most general interest were the following:

Messrs. Eells, of Carlisle, Davis, of Middletown, and Symmes, of Cumberland, resigned their respective charges. Rev. Mr. Pringleau received a call to Shellburg, and Mr. Proctor, late of the Presbytery of Winchester, Va., received a call from the churches at Dillsburg and Petersburg. The installation services of Mr. Proctor were fixed for the 12th and 18th of June, and Revs. Messrs. Cattell, Murray and Dinmore were appointed to conduct the same.

Rev. Mr. Myers was dismissed to the Presbytery of Baltimore, and Mr. Donaldson, a licentiate to the Presbytery of North River, (N. S.) Mr. S. L. Fisher, a member of the Harrisburg church, was received as a candidate for the ministry from the Presbytery of Newton. Mr. Ferriday, also a member of the church here, having passed all his examinations, was licensed to preach the gospel. Rev. Mr. Fulton, from Ohio, Rev. Dr. Wiry, (N. S.) Rev. Mr. Black, (Meth.) Rev. Mr. Phillips, (Germ. Ref.) of Carlisle, were invited to seats as corresponding members. Rev. Messrs. Nicolls, of Chambersburg, and Brown, of Hagerstown, with Messrs. Reed, of Chambersburg, and Blair, of Carlisle, ruling elders, were elected commissioners to the General Assembly, which meets at Columbus, O., in May. These commissioners were instructed to request the General Assembly to appoint a place of meeting for the synod, there having been no meeting last year on account of the troubles in Baltimore, and consequently no appointment for this year. The Presbytery recommended Harrisburg as the place of meeting.

The fall meeting of the Presbytery was appointed at Bedford—the Moderator to preach the opening sermon, and Mr. Cattell the sermon on the second day. The usual June meeting will be held in Chambersburg. The Presbytery adjourned yesterday.

E. M. MATHER has opened a fruit and provision store at the corner of Second and Pine streets, where can be found, at all times, the latest products of the eastern markets, he having made arrangements by which fresh goods are received daily. Give him a call. See advertisement in another column.

FINE BEEF.—A few days since Mr. John G. Neuer, purchased from Mr. Metzger, Esq., a fine heifer, which was slaughtered to-day, and will be offered for sale at Mr. Neuer's stall in the market house to-morrow morning. The lovers of good beef should be on hand.

THE BANK BILL.—The following bill, legalizing the suspension of specie payments by the banks passed finally both Houses last evening, and having been signed by the Governor, is now a law.

AN ACT requiring the Resumption of Specie Payments by the Banks.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of any act of Assembly as declares or authorizes the forfeiture of the charter of any bank of incorporation having banking privileges, or inflicts any penalties or restrictions, or authorizes any compulsory assignment for, or by reason of the failure or refusal of any such bank or incorporation to redeem its notes, and pay its liabilities in gold and silver coin, since the seventh day of October, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, be, and the same is hereby suspended until the first Tuesday in February, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and all forfeitures, penalties, or liabilities heretofore incurred by any such bank or incorporation, by reason of any failure to redeem its notes and pay its liabilities in gold and silver coin, be, and the same are hereby remitted, and the notes of the solvent banks of this State, which are paying specie on the nineteenth day of November, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the notes issued by any bank incorporated under the provisions of an act, entitled "An Act to establish a system of free banking in Pennsylvania, and to secure the public against loss from insolvent banks," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and a supplement thereto, approved the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and the demand or other notes that have been, or may be issued, and made a legal tender by the government of the United States, shall be deemed, taken and computed for all purposes as the notes of and balances due from specie paying banks, from the said seventh day of October, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, until the first Tuesday in February, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and all forfeitures or penalties incurred by any bank or incorporation for, or by reason of their having used, treated or computed the notes of such suspended banks of this State as being paying specie on the nineteenth day of November, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the notes issued under the provisions of the said act of March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the supplement thereto, as the notes of specie paying banks are hereby remitted, and so much thereof as prohibits any bank from making loans and discounts, issuing its own notes or the notes of other banks incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth, though not specie paying, or declaring dividends during the suspension of specie payments, or from loaning or discounting without the requisite amount of specie or specie funds as aforesaid, be, and the same is hereby suspended until the day and year aforesaid; Provided, That it shall be lawful for the said banks to pay the demand or other notes that have been or may be issued and made a legal tender by the government of the United States; And provided, That the banks of this Commonwealth, incorporated in pursuance of any law or laws thereof, may issue notes of the denomination of one, two and three dollars, to the amount of thirty per cent. of their capital stock paid in; said notes to be signed by or on behalf of the president or cashier of the bank so issuing the same; Provided, That this act shall be so construed as to extend to banks incorporated under the provisions of an act, entitled "An Act to establish a system of free banking in Pennsylvania, and to secure the public against loss from insolvent banks," approved the 31st day of March, 1860, and the supplement thereto; And provided further, That so much of the act of April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, section ten, article thirteen, or any other act or part thereof as provides that such corporations shall not be at liberty to purchase any stock whatever to a greater amount than one-third of the capital stock actually paid in, shall not apply to the loan or stock, or treasury, or other notes or bonds of the United States or of the State of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 2. That the sureties of every cashier of a bank in this Commonwealth, shall be residents of the county in which such bank is or shall hereafter be established, and no cashier shall act in that capacity until the provisions of this section shall be complied with under a penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered at the suit of any party suing for the same.

SECTION 3. That for the purpose of paying in specie or its equivalent all interest that shall hereafter become due and payable by this Commonwealth, by the act of the 12th day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty, the several banks who shall avail themselves of the provisions of this act and who shall refuse to redeem their notes in specie, on demand, at any time within ten days upon or after the time when such interest shall become due and payable, shall hereafter when required by the State Treasurer by notice in writing, pay into the State Treasury in proportion to the capital stock paid in of such bank within thirty days after the State shall have paid such interest, their rateable proportion of such premium for gold or its equivalent as shall have been actually paid by the State, and in default the State may sue for and recover the same by due process of law.

JOHN ROWE, Speaker of the House of Representatives. LOUIS W. HALL, Speaker of the Senate. Approved the 11th day of April, 1862. A. G. CURRIE.

New Advertisements. TO PARENTS AND NURSES. INFANTILE PLEASURE AND HEALTH. Parents, if you desire your children to enjoy health and pleasure, you must provide the means for them to exercise and enjoy themselves; and for this there is nothing so good as one of these LITTLE LANCASTERIAN CARRIAGES. It not only pleases the little ones and gives them healthy exercise in the open air, but it saves the nurses much trouble, and answers the place of a cradle—the older children take care of the younger. The Doctors state, that children, to be healthy, must have exercise in the open air, and our venerable grandmothers assure us that exercise in a little carriage prevents the baby from becoming "silly" or "giddy" the "apple of the eye." They are right. There is no two ways about it—but there are two kinds of these carriages—one kind that are built in Lancaster, and another kind that are not.

The Lancasterian Carriages are the Best—the strongest and cheapest. Be sure and get one! They are made by PHILIP LANCASTER, S. Queen St. opposite Conroy's Tavern, Lancaster, Penna. N. B. These carriages will be offered for sale in Harrisburg in a few days. THE BEST GOODS FOR THE LEAST MONEY. A. HUMMEL, Dealer in
